

Dallas Woman's Club Enjoys Interesting Patriotic Program

D.A.R. Leader Main Speaker

Mrs. Richardson Advises Women to Use Vote Intelligently

DALLAS, Feb. 23.—Mrs. John Y. Richardson, D.A.R. director general to the Smithsonian institute and past state president of the D.A.R., was the principal speaker at the meeting of the Dallas Woman's club which was held Monday afternoon in Library hall.

Other honored guests present were Mrs. W. S. Fargo, second vice-president of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, Mrs. J. M. Devers, state legislative chairman of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, Mrs. I. N. Schanne, state chairman of the American Citizenship division of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, Mrs. F. A. Elliott, past president of the Salem Woman's club, Mrs. Paul Bales, all of Salem; Mrs. Ray Boydston, president of the Dallas Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and Miss Marie Hayes, past president of the Dallas organization of the Ladies of the G.A.R.

Seal Sale Sets Record Mrs. H. D. Peterson, president of the Dallas Woman's club, presided at a business meeting which was held previous to the afternoon's program. Mrs. George Cooper, chairman of the Christmas seal sale committee reported $221.60 realized from the sale in Dallas, which is the largest amount ever raised here from the seal sale.

Mrs. Peterson announced that a women's club tea will be held at the home of Mrs. Roy Donahue March 12. An exhibit of heirlooms will be displayed at the tea.

Mrs. Harold Holmes, adviser of the Dallas Junior Woman's club, told of the work of that organization.

Patriotic Program Given Mrs. Walter Waite took charge and presented a most interesting patriotic program.

Advises Wise Use of Vote Mrs. Waite introduced Mrs. Richardson who gave a fine talk on patriotism and the responsibilities of women to their country's welfare. She spoke of the changing world and the great need for the women of today to use their right of franchise wisely.

She stated that women should use their influence to secure the right kind of legislation and that if this influence is used intelligently it can prove very effective in shaping state and national laws.

Mrs. Richardson gave a number of specific examples of proposed legislation about which club women should be informed. She spoke of the need of women to use their influence for the betterment of the child labor amendment, for the passage of a federal anti-lynching law and for stricter laws to regulate divorce. She believes they should use their influence to enforce immigration laws which she stated would do a great deal to solve social and economic problems such as those connected with strikes, unemployment and the dangers of radical propaganda.

Urges Stand on Court Issue She also stated that women should be informed on the newly proposed law which would change the U. S. supreme court and really do something to let their congressman know their stand.

Short talks were given by Mrs. Fargo, Mrs. Devers, Mrs. Schanne, Mrs. Elliott and Mrs. Bales. Mrs. Devers sang a beautiful church choir song and other numbers were vocal solo "My Buddy," by Hubert Springsteen, accompanied by Mrs. A. B. Cromwell; solo, "Roses of Picardy," by Mrs. Raleigh Middleton, accompanied by Joseph C. Hartley.

Mrs. Harry Pinkerton arranged an interesting shawl display. Mrs. Harvey Carpenter, Mrs. W. L. Pemberton, and Mrs. Blanche Eakin displayed some beautiful shawls and told something of their history.

Silver Tea Is Benefit At the conclusion of the program a silver tea was held to raise money for the scholarship loan fund.

Presiding at the tea table was Mrs. Eugene Haxter. The Misses Marjory Waters, Joan Stinnette, Eileen Helgeson, Maxine Helms, and Mary Ellen Dalton, dressed in colonial costumes, assisted in the serving.

Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Oscar Haxter, Mrs. W. Y. Fuller, Mrs. Ora Cooper, Mrs. John R. Allgood, Mrs. Harry Pinkerton, Mrs. C. L. Crider, and Mrs. R. Y. Morrison, who belong to both the Women's club and the D.A.R.

"Gable Game" Is Weekend Pastime About Silvertown

SILVERTOWN, Feb. 23.—"Have you seen Clark Gable?" almost became a game here early this week when a Salem paper carried a story about Gable stopping at Salem on his way to Silvertown. Every nook and cranny where Gable could possibly have been was searched out.

A. N. and Martin Doerflers, where it is said Gable had once been friends, were besieged by telephone calls. Mrs. Charity Scott of Cottage hotel, where Gable lived while working at Silvertown spent the morning answering the telephone and doorbell.

No one admitted to having seen Gable or having heard anything about his having been at Silvertown.

300 Pupils Enjoy Mt. Angel's Show

Boys and Girls From Other Schools Invited For Historical Film

MT. ANGEL, Feb. 23.—Mt. Angel celebrated Washington's birthday by entertaining about 300 children of the upper grades of surrounding public schools by a free showing of the picture, "The Last of the Mohicans." Children and teachers of the fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth grades of St. Mary's school, the sisters and high school students of Mt. Angel Academy and the seminarians of Mt. Angel college viewed the picture at 10:00 a. m., returning to their studies in the afternoon.

Invite Outside Schools In the afternoon the same program was repeated for the pleasure of the children of all surrounding public schools. Some 20 districts were represented. The children and their teachers were the guests of the St. Mary's auditorium committee, consisting of Father Alcota, pastor and director, Theo Enders, assistant manager, and J. T. Bauman, secretary-treasurer.

The purpose of the committee in presenting these free shows was to give this little area pleasure along with educational entertainment to the many youngsters of outlying districts who have few opportunities for such advantages. Other shows will probably be given in the same manner later on.
