

Clean State is Conference Aim of Bearcats; Pacific Comes

Badgers Faced In Final Game

Slam-Bang Game That Put Albany to Route May Be Used Again Tonight

With only one game standing between them and a perfect record for their conference season the Willamette Bearcat basketball team will meet the Pacific university team on the Willamette floor tonight at 8 o'clock in their final Northwest conference game. The Bearcats, already conference champions, have won nine straight conference tilts. They won from Pacific 36 to 18 in a game at Forest Grove. While "Spec" Keene was fearful of Pacific before the Bearcats finally clinched the championship it is probable the Willamette team will again throw caution to the winds and play the slam-bang, unorthodox style of basketball it exhibited against Albany. It is a style which, while not scientific, is interesting. Using it the Bearcats defeated Albany 41 to 16. The game will be the last on the home floor for three seniors, Charles Versteeg, Don Brandon and Harry Mascher, although they will play again away from home in the state A.A.U. tournament at Portland.

Senators Best Indian Quintet

Teams Tied at Halftime; Salem Gets Offensive Clicking Later On

Salem high's basketball team smoothed out its offense in the second half to defeat the Chemawa Redskins 33 to 26 after the Indians had run the Senators ragged with their run-and-shoot style of play in the first half. The two clubs played the same kind of barum-scarum basketball in the first half and stayed about even in score with the half ending 14 to 14. The first half was a scoring duel between Christian, Indian long range artist, and Medley, Salem's red-haired flash. Christian amazed everybody by sinking three field goals from a point approximately in the middle of Clackamas county. Medley, until Chemawa's zone defense throttled him effectively, was hitting the hoop from his favorite spot in the deep corners. Drop Passing Style. Salem dropped the active but ineffective racing style with the first play of the second half when Wickert came in fast on the tipoff and whipped a quick pass to Galaher set for a shot and a field goal under the basket. That put the Senators ahead 16 to 14 and they were never headed as they built up a 26 to 14 lead before Chemawa got its first second half point with a free throw in the final period. Salem played a swift-passing, fast-breaking game that produced numerous good shots in the second half and also showed an improved defense as it held the Indians scoreless well into the final period. Summer Gallaher was more often on the receiving end of the Viking passes than any other and looped in four field goals during the second half. Medley accounted for a pair and Hill, who scored 15 points against Chemawa in the first game, collected two. Indians Go Ahead. Salem, on two field goals and a free throw by Medley, took a 5 to 2 lead in the early minutes but Christian's field goal from the center court put the Indians in the lead 8 to 7 with two minutes left in the first period. Another from the same spot gave the Indians a 10 to 7 lead at the close of the first period. Gallaher's two free throws and a field goal by Wickert after following in a longer shot put the Senators ahead 11 to 10 but Red Elk sank a free throw to tie it up. Maers and Red Elk each scored field goals to make it 13-13 and then Red Elk potted a free throw to give Chemawa a 14-13 lead. Wickert's free throw brought Salem even as the half ended. Medley and Gallaher each scored 12 points. Bighorn and San-

That 14-Club Bogey

By BURNLEY

14 CLUB RULE

GENE SARAZEN VOLUNTARILY CUT DOWN TO 14 CLUBS A COUPLE OF YEARS AGO...

HOW CAN YOU DO WITHOUT US?

HARRY COOPER WILL BE HARDEST HIT BY THE NEW 14 CLUB LIMIT--HE'LL HAVE TO DISCARD EIGHT STICKS!

Willie MACFARLANE

ONE OF THE VETS WHO WON'T BE WORRIED BY THE NEW 14 CLUB RULE!

WHETHER you like it or not, the new rule that will set the limit of golf clubs at 14, is causing a lot of interesting discussions. This new statute is scheduled to go into effect January 1, 1938, and it already has the boys in a panic trying to figure out which clubs to discard. Eight of his pets must get the old heave-o. Olin Dutra is another pro who doesn't like the new rule at all, at all. Olin likes to putter around with a lot of different sticks, and this 14-club limit will cramp his style. On the other hand, veterans like Gene Sarazen and Willie MacFarlane haven't so much to worry about. Gene only uses 15 links weapons, and a couple of years ago he voluntarily cut down to 14 clubs after poor showing in the British Open. Willie and Gene hold the theory that too many clubs spoil the brook, or something like that. MacFarlane doesn't think the rule was necessary, though. He says that in spite of all the improved mechanical equipment and better courses, the current golfers haven't shared down the competitive scores of the old timers to any extent. As for the average duffer, he needs all the help he can get.
