Hospital Auxiliary Elects Officers For New Term

MRS. T. A. LIVESLEY was re-elected president of the Salem General Hospital auxiliary yesterday morning at a meeting of the auxiliary at the Chamber of Commerce. Other officers elected for the ensuing year were Mrs. B. O. Schucking, vice-president; Mrs. E. M. Page, secretary and Mrs. Roy Simmons, treasurer.

Three year term board members who were elected include Mrs. T. A. Windishar, Mrs. L. V. Benson and Mrs. Frank Snedecor.

Mrs. Taylor Hawkins gave a treasurer's report and stated that $222.24 had been spent during the current year 1936 for supplies and equipment, and $50 more was appropriated at the meeting yesterday morning.

Plans are now underway for an extensive membership drive which will begin in the near future by members of the auxiliary. Other plans being made by the group are the annual "Hospital Day" and a rummage sale.

Twelfth Night Will Be Presented Next Week

The evening of March 12 and 13 the Little Theatre guild of Willamette university will present Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night" in the university chapel in Waller Hall.

Mrs. Chester Oppen is directing this light comedy production. Mrs. Oppen is head of the Willamette drama department. Elaborate and distinctive stage scenery is being made by the university art department under the supervision of Miss Constance Fowler, head of the art department, and with the cooperation of Paint Spots, campus artist's organization.

Proper lighting facilities in the chapel are being made possible for the production of the play. The lighting effects have been completely rearranged in ororder to give the best results.

The leading roles, Malvolio and Viola are being portrayed by Forrest Mills and Josie Acklin, respectively. Other major parts are played by Harlan Sheldon as Sebastian: Leonard Schmurr as Duke; and Melba Riopelle as Olivia. Good comedy parts are carried by Mary Elizabeth Kells as Maria; Lloyd Riehl as Sir Toby Belch; and Morrell Crary as Bir Andrew Aguecheck.

Billy Utley, George Greene, Bill Holt and Baine Cater carry miner roles in the play. Edwin Minneman is general manager of the production.

We'll put it up to your complexion-or makeup-whether it will be lime on navy, citron and cherry on black, dusty blue on rust, dusk rose on silver gray, or so on and so on; but take it from us that the spring print above is tops in design. The center of interest, and fullness, is the ingenious knot-all that lies between a sharp V neck and a pointed raised waistline. Three-quarter sleeves grasp the arms with increasing firmness as they near the elbow. If the corners of the neck were a touch more extended they would be collar points, but let's make no more of their stunted growth for the denuded neckline is very, very smart.
