Four Cases Up In Court Soon

Lewelling to Be Busy in Next Week; 2 Divorce Actions Started

Four trials are scheduled for next week in department two of circuit court under Judge L. G. Lewelling, who yesterday finished hearing testimony in the case of Salem Navigation company and others against Bean Truck Line, Inc. Testimony in yesterday's case was remanded to the utilities commissioner for his consideration.

Judge Lewelling's schedule for next week is as follows:

Monday, Smith vs. Carlson; Tuesday, motion day; Wednesday, Patton vs. Charlton; Thursday, Zumwalt vs. Knapp, and Friday, Boyer vs. state industrial accident commission.

One divorce decree was handed down yesterday and two new divorce actions were filed. No marriage licenses were issued.

The decree awarded Nancy Teter a default divorce from D. L. Teter and custody of a minor child. The court reserved for future action the question of an allowance for the child's support.

Suit for divorce was instituted by Margaret Burdett against W. R. Burdett on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment. They were married February 11, 1934, at Vancouver, Wash., according to the complaint. Plaintiff asks for restoration of her maiden name, Margaret Frey.

Helen D. Bohannon filed suit for divorce from Roy Bohannon, to whom she was married at Vancouver, Wash., November 3, 1916. She charged he deserted her in February, 1936. She requests custody of a minor child and $10 a month for his support.

— Circuit Court —

Cecile L. Rigney vs. William E. Rigney; motion for default order.

Helen Armstrong vs. Tom Armstrong; defendant's motion for modification of decree to reduce from $25 to $12.50 monthly maintenance money for minor child on grounds of reduced earnings.

Ladd & Bush Trust company as executor vs. Ira Preston Hamilton et al; order for publication of summons.

Federal Land Bank of Spokane vs. Carl H. Johnson et al; reply of defendants Johnson to answer and cross-complaint of defendant Ladd & Bush; motion of defendant Ladd & Bush for trial date.

Charlotte M. Jones vs. Clayton W. Jones; petition for issuance of execution.

— Probate Court —

Joseph Baumartner guardianship; order approving report of Joseph B. Felton, guardian, on sale of real property to E. S. Jones for $595.

Henry R. Ling guardianship; order authorizing Flavia Ling, guardian, to accept cash surrender value of life insurance policy on ward.

J. N. Haugen estate; appraisal, $478.07 including $328.07 in cash by Robert McClure, O. M. Anonby and Robert Ramsey.

Stephen Fessler estate; order setting hearing April 17 on final account of Mrs. Lena Fessler, administratrix, showing $1304.87 received, $659 paid out and $645.87 remaining for distribution.

J. B. Parker estate; order approving final account of Charles T. Parker and closing estate upon distribution.

— Justice Court —

A. Tracy, disorderly conduct, 90-day jail sentence suspended and defendant put on one year's probation.

Adolph Johnson, $10 fine, operating four-wheel trailer without license plate.

Roy Hamerly, pleas of not guilty to forgery and n.s.f. check; bound over to grand jury after preliminary hearing waived; $500 bail on each charge not furnished.

Kenneth Christenson, released on own recognizance and trial on charge of larceny of gasoline continued indefinitely on account of illness of material defense witness.

Revival Continues—The revival service is still in progress at the First Evangelical church, corner Marion and Summer streets, every night except Saturday and will continue through Palm Sunday, March 21. The evangelist, Rev. W. C. Graves, preaches the old-fashioned gospel and brings great spiritual messages each evening, members declare. There is special music each night, including numbers by the choir, quartet, trio, and solos by the pastor, Rev. J. E. Campbell.

L.D.S. Conference — A district conference of Latter Day Saints churches will be held Sunday at the local church, Cottage and Chemeketa streets, with Mission President Preston Nibley presiding. Sessions will be held at 10 a.m. and 2:30 p.m.

Brooks Services Set — A group of Willamette university students with Eugene Hibbard presiding, will conduct the Methodist church services at Brooks Sunday. The subject will be "Students' View of Religion."

Moody Plans Vacation—Ralph E. Moody, assistant attorney general, will leave today for a beach resort where he will recuperate from his labors at the recent legislative session. Moody was legal adviser to the legislature.

Ransdens Parents — Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ramsden are the parents of a son born at the Salem General hospital Thursday night. The child is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Day.

Editor to Speak — Dr. W. E. J. Gratz of Chicago, editor of the Methodist publication, The Epworth Herald, will speak Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the First Methodist church.

McKay to Speak — The Men's club of the Knight Memorial Congregational church will meet Wednesday night with Senator Douglas McKay the guest speaker.

Alarm Answered — The Salem fire department responded to a chimney fire alarm at 1270 North 18th yesterday morning.
