Grangers' News

NORTH HOWELL, March 13.—Twenty-seven members of Silverton Hills grange visited at North Howell Friday night, took charge of the business session under the direction of the master, Mrs. Ida Benson, and presented the program during the lecture hour. Visitors were also present from Mcleay and Chemawa.

North Howell grange accepted an invitation from Stayton to visit there on Saturday, March 20, and as a part of the program will re-enact their play "Sardines," which the home economics club members have worked on this winter.

A card party was announced for the evening of March 18 and the next home economics club meeting will be at the Oddie home on April 1st.

LIBERTY, March 13.—The grange is in the business of club Thursday arrangements at its Thursday meeting for the third annual grange turkey dinner and entertainment to be held next Tuesday, March 16.

Serving will be held from 6 to 8 p.m. in the dining room of the grange hall. A quilt made by the club will be given as a door prize during the evening. The entertainment to follow the dinner will include the grange play which recently won first prize in the Marion county Pomona grange contest. There will be music and other numbers on the program.

MACLEAY, March 13.—Mrs. H. E. Martin and Mrs. M. A. Wells will entertain at the Marion county Pomona grange contest Tuesday afternoon at the Martin home.

After a short business meeting Miss Maxine Buren of the Oregon Statesman will demonstrate salad making and Miss Merle Bowen will speak on "Foods."

Unified Program Begun at Church

CLEAR LAKE, March 13.—A recent innovation to the Clear Lake Evangelical church is the unified Sunday school and morning worship service. Splendid attendance and enthusiasm have resulted, reports the pastor, Rev. Herbert E. Bennett.

The organization of a chorus of junior boys and girls who sing each Sunday morning add much to the service. The song service begins at 9:55 a.m., followed by the pastor's message at 10:20. The Sunday school classes then convene at 11 o'clock, dismissed by 11:20 o'clock. Everyone in the community is invited to be present.

The master Sunday school plan is invited to be present. Added to this is a graph of Sunday school attendance comparing last year's attendance with that of the present year. A steady increase in Sunday school attendance is the result.

Plays for Stunt Night Rehearsed

MILL CITY, March 13.—Clarence Mason and Harbo Thompson were hosts to the basketball team of Mill City high at a turkey dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Mason Thursday night.

Play rehearsals have begun on several plays which are to be given on Stunt night, March 25, on the high school stage. The girls' dramatic club has chosen "Heaven Will Protect the Working Girl," with the following cast: Bessie McAtey, Lois Fleetwood, Velma Downing and Donnie Swan.

"The King's Highway" will be given by the student body with the cast as follows: Jack Hasegan, Bill Richards, Mary Ford, Evelyn Vaughn and Dale Bassett and "The Great Chan's Diamond" has the following cast: Virginia Slater, Donald Jenkins, Bill Henderson and Collis Heath.

A freshman class party was held in the school gymnasium last Friday night. The evening was spent playing volleyball, basketball and other games.

Halsey Teachers Given Contracts and Increase in Salary For New Year

ALBANY, March 13.—All the teachers in the Halsey school have been rehired for next year at a substantial increase in salary. The janitor, George McNeill, was also rehired and will share in the increase of salary.

The grade teachers are Vernon A. Meyer, principal; Mildred Moody, and Edith Hutton. Prof. Floyd V. Barrett is principal of the high school and W. J. Nees is manual training, science, glee club and music instructor and also acts as athletic instructor.

Associate Matron Visits at Chapter

Mrs. Mervine Wilson Made a Member; Coypus Are Being Raised

SCIO, March 13.—Mrs. Mervine Wilson was initiated at a special meeting of Euclid chapter No. 76, Order of the Eastern Star, at Jefferson Thursday night. About 60 members of the order were in attendance, representing chapters at Turner, Salem, Corvallis and Montano. Mrs. Hazel Ingram of The Dalles, associate matron, made an official visit to the chapter.

Contract is in preparation for a new residence on the John Jiroch acreage in the south outskirts of Scio, on the site of which the Jiroch home burned a few weeks ago. It will be a five-room bungalow with basement and is to be completed not later than July 1.

A new species of fur-bearing animal, the Coypu, native of South America, is being propagated at the W. J. Turnidge place in Scio, he having secured five of the rodents a short time ago. Coypus are a limited number of coypu farms have been successfully operated in North America. The animals have webbed hind feet and are about the size of beaver. They are dark gray in color.

P. McPherson, publisher of the Times at Sundance, Wyo., his nephew, Ellis MacPherson, and Judge Wm. Roberts visited here recently. Joe Lytle of the Scio Tribune formerly published the Wyoming paper. The senior MacPherson was an investigating Oregon newspaper plants with a view of purchasing.

The 34th birthday of Mrs. Drusilla Phillips of Scio, mother of the local postmaster, Earl Phillips, was observed March 13 as the pastor, Rev. H. E. Bennett, had pneumonia, from which she was confined to the home of her son for several weeks. About 80 of Mrs. Phillips' summers have been spent in the vicinity of Scio.

Consolidation of the three Scio rural mail routes into two units is being considered by the postal authorities at Washington according to E. Phillips, Scio postmaster. Under the proposed plan, Rolla Shelton and Lawrence Montgomery would be retained here. Forthcoming vacancy at Albany probably would be filled by transfer of Ed Holland of Scio route one, it is believed.

Teachers Elected For Middle Grove

MIDDLE GROVE, March 13.—Mrs. Reuben Hilliker will be hostess for the "Amities" Women's club Tuesday night, March 16.

Miss Elveta Minton has been reelected as principal and teacher of the advanced grades for another year, while Miss Yvonne Gardner will teach the primary grades, which place has been filled for the past three years by her sister, Mrs. Mildred Yunker, who will not teach.

Santiam Press Is Leased to Ohians

LEBANON, March 13.—C. F. Burkheimer and L. T. Ward have leased the Santiam Press in Lebanon of C. E. DePew, veteran publisher, who has operated plants in Lebanon for 22 years and was at one time editor and publisher of the Lebanon Criterion.

The new operators are publication men of experience and were associated in business in Ohio for several years. Mr. Ward came to Lebanon five years ago and has since been engaged in the advertising business. Mr. Burkheimer recently severed connection with the Scripps-Howard newspaper in Cleveland, Ohio, and having been in the future of Lebanon is pleased to join Mr. Ward in the business here.

Mr. DePew will continue his insurance business in Lebanon. Ladies' night at the meeting of the fish and game association at Riverdale Wednesday was attended by a number of Lebanon people who enjoyed a program of music and lectures. Screen pictures of wild life added to the diversions of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Masendank of Albany Wednesday visited after property in Lebanon this week; their daughter, Mrs. W. R. Geer, a former Lebanon resident, accompanied them and was the guest of Mrs. N. E. Crane during her stay.
