Seen and Heard

By JERYME UPSTON

TOURNAMENT week provided many thrills for basketball fans. Business men and their wives and even the children were not at home, but enthusiastically watching the many games. Mothers took their youngsters in the afternoon but in the evening father took their places. As usual the week has been an incentive for informal entertaining, luncheons, breakfasts and dances. Spring clothes were in hiding due to the inclement weather, but we did spot a few new top coats, hats and ensembles. Sitting together as usual were Mrs. Ted Chambers in a beige swaggar with green hat, her sister, Miss Dorothea Steusloff in a brown suit with fox collar. Mrs. Roy Keene in a colorful print and navy straw; Mrs. Curtis Cross in green wool and Mrs. Bruce Baxter in a navy ensemble. Sitting down a little further were Mrs. Bill Phillips, Mrs. William Busick and daughter, Jeanne, and Mrs. Karl Becke and Miriam, the girls very excited over the games. Hurrying to the tournament on Thursday were Mrs. Kenneth Bailey and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Orville Bailey, wife of the McMinnville coach. Of the younger married set enjoying every minute of the play were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clay-

MUSIC ON FRIDAY

The Leslie Memorial church choir under the direction of Mrs. Jessie F. Bush will sing "Seven Last Words of Christ," the sacred cantata by DuBois, on the night of Good Friday.

Mrs. Marjorie M. Walker of Portland, Bill Bush, Carl Mason and Billy Utley will sing the solo parts in the cantata. Mrs. Walker, popular soprano soloist of Portland, was at one time director of St. Paul's choir in Salem.

In order to enhance the beauty of the presentation of this presentation a Portland music firm has sent a Hammond electric organ to accompany the vocal numbers. Preceding the program, Mr. Jerry Gilmore of Portland will present a concert of sacred organ music from 7:30 to 8 o'clock.

Another program planned for the night of Good Friday is that to be given at the American Lutheran church at 8 o'clock under the direction of Prof. E. W. Hobson. Several popular Salem soloists are included among those who will sing during the program. "There's a Green Hill Far Away" is the most familiar of the numbers to be given. Miss Ruth Bedford is organist for the musical program.

Interesting Meeting Planned by Juniors

Mrs. M. Foster of Price's will talk on spring fashions at the regular meeting of the Salem Junior Women's club Monday night. Styles will be modeled by Miss Jessie Cooper, Miss June Lochridge, Miss Ruth Geer and Miss June Edwards.

The Salem Women's club trio will sing several numbers and Miss Beth DeLapp will give a reading. Miss Rosemary Gaiser and Miss Elizabeth Lewis, students of Miss Frances Virginia Melton, will give piano selections. Guest night will be observed at this meeting.

Refreshments will be served by the committee in charge late in the evening. Miss Helen Stett is chairman and assisting her are Miss Jean Bahrburg, Miss Virginia Wassam, Miss Helen Boardman, Miss Lila Abrams and Mrs. Peter Fookl. Spring flowers will center the serving table where Mrs. Estill Brunk and Mrs. Glenn Passon will preside.

Oil Painting to Be Returned to Owner

The oil paintings which have been hung in the lobby of the Y. M. C. A. for several months have attracted wide attention, but will be on exhibition only today. The paintings are the work of Mrs. Colista Dowling of Portland, and are to be returned to her tomorrow.

"Aspiration," "Rising Mists," "Autumn," and "Temple Beth Israel" are notable among the 12 paintings of the exhibit.

The Y. M. C. A. has had several fine exhibits by famous artists and the next exhibit is expected to be by Mr. Clyde Keeler, a well known professional artist of Portland.

Catholic Daughters to Have Card Parties

The Catholic Daughters of America met in St. Joseph's hall Wednesday night to formulate plans for the state convention to be held in Salem April 24 and 25.

Mrs. Cecil O. Wilhelm, state regent, of Eugene, was in the city on Wednesday helping in plans for the convention.

Members of the court are holding card parties in their homes, the proceeds of which will be used in carrying out the charity work. Margaret Innocent will hold a party at her home on North Winter street Thursday, April 1, with Mrs. Margaret Dimler assisting.

Disabled American Veterans of the World War will meet at the World War night at 8 p.m., and the auxiliary will meet at the Y.W.C.A. Both groups will convene afterwards for a social evening at the armory. Membership night is also being observed.

Macabbes of Cherry City tent and five No. 122 met for a business and social evening on Friday. A string trio gave Hawaiian music after the business session. State Manager D. V. Chapman was present with Mrs. Chapman, and gave an interesting talk as did P. D. Smith, district manager. Mrs. Robert Parent was elected delegate to the state convention to be held in Portland and Herbert Riek was chosen alternate.

First Garden Show Is Scheduled

The Little Garden club of Salem Heights, one of the most active of this vicinity, is planning a spring flower festival to be held somewhere around April 15th. All garden clubs of Marion and Polk counties are being asked to compete, and Mrs. C. A. Kells is inviting presidents of the various groups to suggest ways in which their garden clubs would like to contribute.

The Little Garden club members will compete amongst themselves, and other prizes will be awarded in competitions where all clubs enter. To further the interest in wild flowers, a special prize will be offered for bouquets brought in by children.

Because of Lent the regular meeting of the Salem Women's Press club scheduled for Tuesday will be postponed until the next week.
