

Spring, Theme Of Program Planned

SPRING concerts of interest are planned for the next few weeks with the outstanding musical organizations of Salem giving their final concerts of the season.

First of the affairs is the spring program given by Barbara Barnes and the Willamette Songmen, which is scheduled for Wednesday, March 31. The dance number "Dynamic Rhythms," which created interest last spring, will be repeated by request. A program of interesting selections has been promised by Cameron Marshall, director of the Songmen.

On Monday, April 5, the Salem Philharmonic orchestra will give the third of a series of concerts, featuring the music of the orchestra, and Mrs. Bruce Spaulding, contralto. Jacques Gershwitz will direct the young artists in this concert.

Mrs. Spaulding will sing arias from Samson and Delilah, and from Carmen. Her appearance as guest soloist, and the excellent program promised by the orchestra, should make this the best attended concert of the association's season.

The MacDowell club's concert, following again close on the heels of the Philharmonic orchestra, will be in quite a different theme. Besides several spring numbers to be presented by the group of fifty women's voices, under the direction of Miss Lena Belle Tartar.

Miss Jean Ulrich, Portland soprano, will sing.

Miss Ulrich has chosen several Spanish numbers and will dress in the costume of the country. She will be accompanied by Henri Arcand, well known Portland pianist.

Miss Doege Luncheon Hostess Saturday

Miss Margaret Doege entertained at a smartly arranged luncheon yesterday afternoon at her suburban home in compliment to Miss Martha Sprague who is home from Leland Stanford for the spring vacation.

The graduation theme was carried out in the table decorations as most of the guests are senior class members. Miniature dolls dressed in caps and gowns centered the table and small bouquets of daffodils were arranged on the table. The afternoon was spent informally.

Covers were placed for Miss Sprague, Miss Helen Purvine, Miss Julia Johnson, Miss Eleanor Trindle, Miss Edna Savage, Miss Melba Belle Savage, Miss Jean McElhinney and Miss Doege.

Mrs. Arthur Gibbard will leave today for Los Angeles where she will visit with Mrs. Nelle Watkins for the coming month. Mrs. Gibbard will motor south with Mrs. Bertha Bekins of Portland.

Mrs. Mary E. Rauch and Miss L. May Rauch will entertain chapter A.B. P.E.O. Monday night at their home at 7:45 o'clock. C. B. McCullough, state bridge engineer, will be the speaker of the evening.

Style - Smiles - - - by Gretchen

"I had to leave Junior home, mother, he didn't harmonize with this new Easter outfit!"

Harmony realized glowingly on a theme of rosy tan in a thin woolen ensemble. A pleated cape swings from a shoulder yoke, displaying shades of mellow redwine in bag, gloves and belt. Like an over-tone, the grosgrain banding her broton plays the same pleasing chord. Mother's very smart in a sawtooth edged navy whose white central panel gives this one piece dress a decided redingote expression.—Copyright 1937, Esquire Features, Inc.

DON'T TRIFLE WITH ARTHRITIS

By A. T. Woolpert of Woolpert & Legg, Drugs

The most dreaded form of rheumatism is arthritis, costing the victim a tissue until the victim is a hopeless cripple and ending ultimately in death.

Like all forms of rheumatism this disease derives from a "focus of infection," perhaps from the tonsils, or at the roots of the teeth, it may be from the intestines. It scores in all walks of life and is as deadly as cancer, tuberculosis, or heart disease.

A skilled physician can detect the point of infection before it has had time to spread through the system. For this reason annual health examinations by a competent doctor are important.

Follow his orders and have his prescriptions filled by a capable druggist.
