Bank Department's Action Against McCormicks Up Monday Forenoon

Continuing the hearing of cases which filled every day last week, Circuit Judge L. G. Lewelling will sit for trial of the case of Mark Skinner, superintendent of banks, against M. J. and Louise McCormick Monday morning.

The suit is being brought for the reformation and foreclosure of a $2700 mortgage. In asking for the reformation, the plaintiff is seeking to have included in the foreclosure proceedings land not set out in the mortgage.

Suit for divorce was filed in circuit court yesterday by Wava Cothren vs. Maurice A. Cothren. The plaintiff charges the defendant with failing to take care of her, and of telling friends that he no longer loved her and that he would not live with her again.

The couple was married at Mill City, June 22, 1933. The plaintiff claims custody of a minor child, $25 month support money and a division of personal property. In a separate motion she asks for $23 suit money and $100 attorney fees.

Van Trumps Back After Long Trip

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Van Trump returned yesterday from an extended trip in the south that carried them as far east as Florida. They left December 8. They reported on their return that the weather in California and Arizona was extremely cool most of the winter with the mercury reaching 30 degrees below zero at one time and snow drifting four and five feet deep during the storm.

Most of their time was spent in the cross-country trip to Florida where they found the only real warm weather of the trip with the thermometer showing above 78 degrees most of the time. Mr. Van Trump is county horticulturist.

CCC Entry Rules Modified, Report
Rules for admission to the CCC have been modified for the spring enrollment, which is expected to open early in April. Glenn C. Niles, Marion county relief committee chairman, reported yesterday, the chief change is the wiping out of the old rule denying re-enrollment to youths who had previously been in CCC camps but had served for less than four months.

The new enrollment will be restricted to young men 17 to 28 years of age who are on relief or are members of families receiving relief. If they have been in the service previously, at least a year must have elapsed before they will be eligible for re-enrollment.

927 Will Receive Pension in March
Nine hundred twenty seven men and women in Marion county will receive old age assistance payments April 1 for March. The committee headed by Florence E. Adams, state superintendent of public instruction, announced yesterday. The payments will average $21.01, a slight increase over February, and will total $19,482.64.

The committee has approved payment of $603 to 26 blind persons under the blind assistance provision of the social security act.
