Second Team Match Promises Fireworks at Armory Tonight

Cleanies Will Face Bad Pair

Opening Arena to Four Is Apparent Invitation To Others, Seen

No one dares predict how it will all end but tonight's main event on the Legion wrestling card at the armory will begin as a team match between those alleged cleanies, Harry Elliott and Ben Sherman, on one hand, and the villains, Fritz Ludwig and Jack Lipscomb, on the other. Unless the opener-with-thesnake, Otto Luger, chases the big boys out of the ropes with his pet serpent as he did his own opponent and the referee last Tuesday, the main event will be on a two-falls-out-ofthree basis with or without benefit of tussle-minded spectators. Last week, be it remembered, the Lipscomb-Ludwig team won its two-man battle despite the unofficial eforts of Referee Elliott and Semi-windup Sherman. Tonight the meanies will go to work right from the start on Elliott, Sherman & Co., unless other ringsters choose to muss up the battle The semi-windup will bring

Charles Keen, newcomer, and Noel Franklin, Hill Military academy mat instructor, together in a 45-minute go. Otto Luger and snake will face John Thomas in the 30-minute

Three Eggs Will Admit to Capitol For Easter.Show

Clever designs, bright colors and fancy patterns will grace the Easter eggs that are admission cards to the annual eggmatinee held at the Capitol theater this Saturday morning and hundreds of kiddies will be on hand to see the entries

Just three eggs (one colored and two fresh) are admission to the show, which is under the sponsorship of the Mickey Mouse club, and Chief Bill Hagedorn will present a number of special prizes from Salem's leading merchants, to winners in the contest. The fresh eggs will go to help out some needy families.

Carl Porter, manager of the theater, has obtained a special program for the boys and girls which will include Jackie Cooper in "Dinky," a clever youngsters' comedy, "Backyard Broadcast," a cartoon, and a

Water Conditions

Water conditions in Oregon, as of March 11, showed an improvement over those a year ago, Charles E. Stricklin, state engineer, declared Monday.

For Oregon as a whole the snow-water content above the Corvallis to Fete 3000 feet elevation averages about 76 per cent of that found at the same time last year. Between elevations of 3500 and 5000 feet the snow-water content this year is 15 per cent greater than last year at this time.

Storage in eastern Oregon is about the same now as last year except in Owyhee reservoir which is now 90 per cent full and in Agency valley which is 33 per cent full as compared with 9 per cent full last year at this time.

There has been a moderate storage increase in central Oregon since November 1. Crane Prairie reservoir is practically

In southern Oregon the water storage is appreciably greater Hill Relay Event than a year ago.

110 Receive Jobs At State Agency

One hundred ten men and women obtained jobs through the state employment office here last week, according to Marie Baker, district statistician. Through cancellations of applications and the placements, the job agency's list of people wanting work dropped from 4058 to 3835.

Of the 110 jobs, 77 were listed as permanent, 22 as farm, work and 11 as casual assignments. Permanent jobs included 45 for men and 11 for women in private employment, 20 for men on PWA contracts and one for a man on a WPA project.

Big Squad Out At Salem High

42 Answer First Call for Diamond Game as Coach Hauk Starts Work

Coach Harold Hauk decided he had a northwest rather than a mere capital city baseball team in the offing when 42 Salem high school boys answered first call of the season yesterday afternoon.

Not only were there four lettermen and a flock of Legion juniors and ex-Parrish players in the crowd of applicants but also newcomers from Spokane, Idaho, Montana and Rickreall.

"I was surprised to see so many out," said Hauk, who will be coaching his first Salem high diamond squad. "It looks pretty

If the weatherman will permit the sun to dry out Olinger field for a couple of days, Hauk will get his squad to work and prune it down to an efficient size with the hope of whipping a lively team together in time for early April contests. Holdover lettermen who reported in yesterday included Bruce
Jones, second baseman; Lee Fallin and Leroy Bright, pitchers, and Melvin Pillette, shortstop. Also from last year's squad were Jack Steiger, pitcher, and Richard Wilson, outfielder.

Among the newcomers to Salem high were Charles, Collar, letterman shortstop from Spokane, Wash., high school; Les Haynes, pitcher, from Caldwell, Idaho; Reese Campbell, estcher, from Montana, and John Dierks, catcher, from Rickreall.

From the Legion junior and Parrish ranks came Ivan Lowe, Kenneth Buchanan, Howard Myers, George Arbuckle, Jed John son, Bud Eland, George Wilkinson, Stanley Parton and Bob Eaton.

Tourney Receipts Make Slight Gain tion because the veterans have Squeeze Upon Jim

Attendance gained slightly at last week's state high school basketball tournament over the 1936 mark of 12,723, Lestle J Sparks, Willamette university graduate manager, reported yesterday. Gate receipts increased on the opening day, fell off Thursday and Friday but exceeded the 1936 total Saturday.

Sparks estimated the attendance last week at 13,000 and tournament will show a small net profit, which will be divided between the Oregon High School Athletic association and Willamette university, sponsor.

Baseball Started By Bearcat Squad

Although it's officially spring racation time on the Willamette university campus, Coach 'Spec' Keene called out such of his baseball aspirants as were in town Monday afternoon, and further workouts will be held this week.
