Artis Guild to Sponsor Exhibit This Week

The Artis Guild of Salem high school is sponsoring an exhibit of direct prints from the great masters which will be shown today, Thursday, and Friday in the upper room of the Y.M.C.A. An invitation is being extended to the public to attend.

This collection which has been gathered from all parts of the world includes such famous and historical prints as: "Sistine Madonna," "Mona Lisa," and "The Laughing Cavalier."

The club plans to purchase one of these pictures for the new school building. Merrill Ames, president of the club, is responsible for the exhibit and Miss Ruth Marie Brauti, advisor of the club, assisted in making the arrangements.

Miss Forrester Becomes Bride Monday Afternoon

A wedding of interest to Salem folk is that of Miss Hazel Forrester and Philip G. Miller which was solemnized Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in Vancouver, Washington.

The bride wore a smart tailleur of gold with British tan accessories and corsage of tallisman roses and lily-of-the-valley. Miss Georgia Hall was the bride's only attendant.

The couple will make their home in Eugene where Mr. Miller is connected with the Eugene News. Mr. Miller made his home in Salem for a number of years and was formerly with the Oregon Statesman. Mrs. Miller is well known among the younger set in Salem and was employed at Ogden's Beauty salon.
