

Monmouth Plans Music Week Event

MONMOUTH, March 25—Plans are in progress for observation of National Music week here, and with an organized orchestra, women's chorus and band, Monmouth has fundamental resource material for such participation. The slogan chosen is: "Foster Local Musical Talent."

Committee members arranging for music week include Mrs. F. E. Murdock and Mrs. J. S. Landers, representing the Civic club; Mrs. James Gentle and Mrs. W. L. Smith, the Social Hour club; Mrs. F. E. Chambers, in charge of combined Sunday night church service; Miss Edith Clark and Miss Helen Irwin, local high school teachers who will plan high school night; Mrs. Murdock is in charge of "Original Compositions of Monmouth Composers' Night." These women met at the studio home of Mrs. R. D. Elliott this week to schedule activities.

It is hoped to have Mr. Thomas H. Gentle speak one night on high lights of opera.

Athletic Awards Given Three Corvallis School Girls; 7 Get Emblems

CORVALLIS, March 25—Three Corvallis high school girls were recently awarded blue "C" letters and became members of the Oregon Girls' Athletic association after earning 100 points. Mary Stevenson, local G. A. A. adviser, announced yesterday. Seven other girls were awarded an emblem after they had earned a total of 50 points.

Those receiving the blue "C's" were Ruth Banks, Audrey Johnson and Esther Lathrop. Emblem earners were Marjorie Aitau, Betty Anne Fox, Cleone Cooper, Bertha Mae Dana, Florence Mae Resholt, Dorothy Winters, and Bertha Winston.

30 Seniors to Receive Diplomas at Aumsville; Class Largest on Record

AUMSVILLE, March 25—With the enrollment this week of Sylvester Kramer of South Dakota in the senior class of the high school, the number who will receive diplomas for graduation in June increased to 30. This is the largest class graduating from the Aumsville school.

Recruiting Office Will Be Opened for Corvallis

CORVALLIS, March 25—Sergeant Joseph in charge of the Salem recruiting office, will visit Corvallis every Monday and Tuesday, starting April 5, to conduct a recruiting office in the local postoffice building, Major H. D. Barnhill, district recruiting officer in Portland, announced yesterday. This is the first time there has been any sort of permanent recruiting set-up in Corvallis.

Artillery Officer Madrid Hero

Credited with saving Madrid from the determined rebel attack headed by Gen. Francisco Franco, Gen. Jose Miaja, commander of the Loyalist forces in the capital, stands out as one of the notable strategists of the conflict. In contrast to the showy brilliance of Franco, Miaja depends on proven military tactics and massing of strength rather than flashy maneuvers. Born in Oviedo in 1878, he attended military academy and served in the artillery where he soon rose to rank of major. Eighteen years of his service was spent in Morocco where his exploits made him a legendary figure.

More Students Enroll at State College, With 19 Per Cent Increase Now

CORVALLIS, March 25—Eighty-one more students signed up at the registrar's office on the Oregon State campus yesterday to bring the second day enrollment total up to the 3261 mark for a 19 per cent increase over last year's spring term enrollment.

The two-to-one ratio between men and women still remains as there are now 2192 men and 1669 women compared to 1843 men and 896 co-eds registering the same time last year.

Seventeen attended the all-day quilting of the Unionvale Evangelical Ladies' Aid held at the church Tuesday. Mrs. Harry Ryan, Mrs. Ralph Timm, Mrs. Ross Rogers, Kearney Stouten-

Linfield Prexy to Speak for P.-T. A.

SILVERTON, March 25—"These Queer Chinese are not as Queer as they Seem," will be the topic of address by Dr. A. Anderson, president of Linfield college, before the Silverton Parent-Teachers' association the night of April 1. Refreshments of Chinese nuts, candies and tea will be served by 12 high school girls in costumes. The costumes are to be furnished by Miss Olivia DeGure, who has collected them during her travels in the Orient.

Special invitations are being issued to all men's organizations with instructions to bring their wives or feminine friends along. Music will be furnished by the high school trio, the high school chorus and the trumpet trio.

Nearly 1000 Delegates Will Attend Endeavor Convention April 15-18

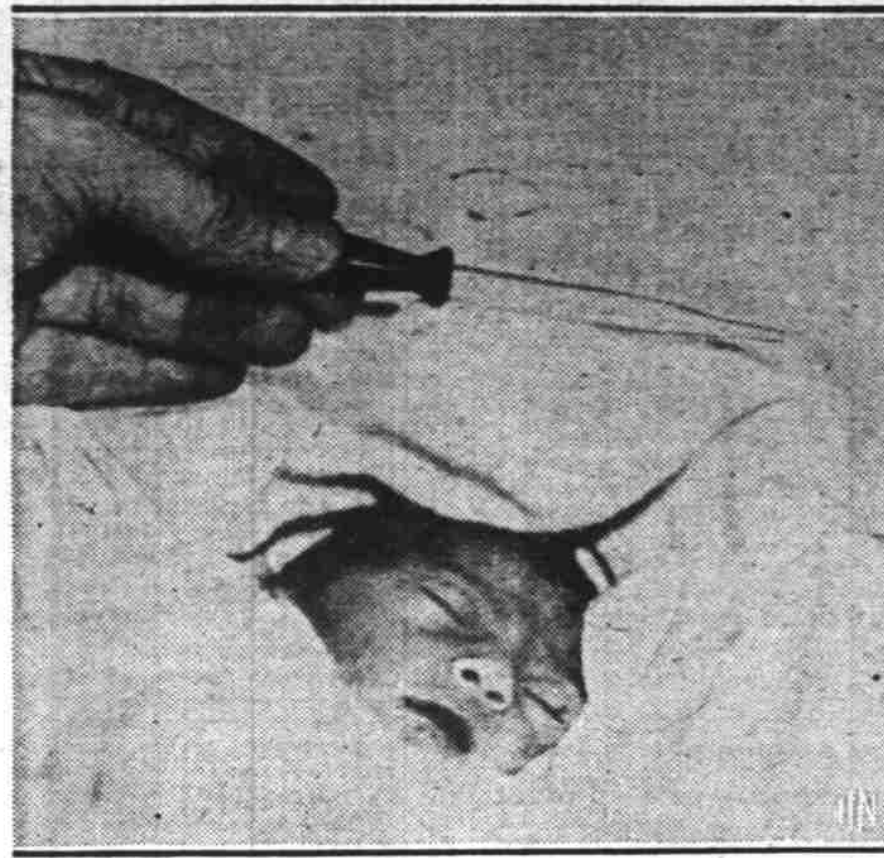

CORVALLIS, March 25—Registration and housing problems for the state Christian Endeavor convention scheduled for Corvallis and the college April 15 to 18 were discussed by the local planning committee with Walter Meyers, state secretary, in the college memorial union yesterday.

Nearly 1000 delegates from all sections of the state will be accommodated by the committee through facilities in Albany and Philomath combined with what may be available in Corvallis. Because of the 20 per cent increase in college enrollment there are not as many housing possibilities as there would otherwise be. A. L. Keeney, chairman, pointed out at the meeting yesterday.

Trinity Choir Planning To Replace Pipe Organ

SILVERTON, March 25—Trinity choir has begun a fund to replace their present pipe organ which the church had installed in 1922. Frances Nelson is president of the choir and Althea Meyer is secretary-treasurer.

New York's Littlest Baby

A half-ounce under one pound, this little baby was born to Mrs. Max Post at the Park East Hospital in New York City. The relative size of the eye-dropper, with which she's fed, and the baby's head will give an idea of how tiny she is. Her father is a WPA worker.

Kitchen Shower Given Mrs. Robert Morgan at Miller Home, Santiam

NORTH SANTIAM, March 25—A kitchen shower was held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Roberta Miller, for Mrs. Robert Morgan, who recently lost most of her household goods by fire.

The Women's club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Leona Miller. The next meeting will be on April 1 at the home of Mrs. Effie Angel.
