

O'Grady Back For Determined Attempt at Revenge on Riggi

Lithian Boxer In Good Shape

Eddie Norris Meets Tough Bailey of Centralia; Ambrose Returns

Back to avenue—perhaps—a technical knockout he received here several months ago Gene O'Grady, Ashland heavyweight, will enter the arena ring with Frank Riggi, Brooks battler, for a scheduled ten round battle as the main dish of the first fight card since before the legislature convened.

O'Grady, whose first fight with Riggi was stopped when the heavy puncher from the onion fields drove the Ashland fighter to the ropes and cut him down to size, has been training heavily for several months and figures he is in condition to turn the tables on Riggi. It is the contention of O'Grady that the first fight should not have been stopped and he wants to prove that he can whip the Brooks Italian with the heavy fists.

Lithian Good Boxer O'Grady is more of a boxer than Riggi but will have much to cope with in the steam which the Brooks boy is able to put behind his short punches. Riggi has been working out daily and is said to be in fine condition.

Eddie Norris will meet a tough customer in Ernie Bailey, Centralia lightweight, in an eight round semi-windup event. Bailey went to a draw with "Buz" Brown, top flight Portland fighter, on a recent card at Klamath Falls.

Buddy Ambrose a former headliner in these parts, will clash with Ike Bostwick of Portland in a six round special event.

Two four round preliminaries will open the card at 8:30 o'clock. Butch Liebald, 130, Salem, meets Charlie McCoy, 134, Independence, in one and Rocky Perkins, 155, Salem, meets Swede Spina, 149, Portland, in another.

Schedule of Linn Softball Tourney Nearly Complete

ALBANY, March 25 — Plans for the Linn county grade school softball tournament have practically been completed and the tournament date has been set for May 8. The schedule provides for at least 24 games to be run off on Central field. Both boys' and girls' teams will participate. The games are being sponsored by the Linn County Principal's association and the plans provide for three divisions, an A league, a B league and a C league.

The A league is restricted to three teams, Madison and Central, both of Albany and Lebanon. In the B league Harrisburg will meet Brownsville. Scio will play Sweet Home, and Shedd will meet Halsey in the first bracket. In the second bracket the winner of the third will get a bye, meeting the winner of the second bracket for the B league title. The winner of this title will meet the A league winner.

The C league schedule has not been completed but only the C title will be at stake in this series and it is to be determined by a game between the winners of the western and eastern Linn county divisions.

The schedule for the girls' teams are the same as for the boys, except that Lacombe will be substituted for Scio in the second game of the first bracket as Scio has no girls' team and Lacombe has no boys' team.

Two Knockouts on FFA Fistic Card

INDEPENDENCE, Mar. 25. — The annual Future Farmers of America Smoker was held in the high school gymnasium Wednesday night. The bouts ended with two knockouts, three decisions and seven draws.

Training Camps

Woodburn has its Legion ball park and Silverton is building a $12,000 baseball park, but Salem hasn't had a ball park for nine years and doesn't seem to care if it never has one.

Rehearsal for World Series?

Frank Frisch, left, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, and Joe McCarthy, right, New York Yankee pilot, posed before the start of their "grapefruit league" exhibition at Daytona Beach, Fla. Favored to lead their teams to league pennants, the pair may meet again next fall for the world series.

Cougars Ready For Big Series

"Watch Luisetti" Slogan; Kerpa Is Handed Job Doing Just That

PULLMAN, Wash., March 25.—(AP)—Washington State's Cougars took their final brisk workout today for the Pacific coast conference championship basketball series opening tomorrow night, while Stanford's squad traveled.

The defending champions are scheduled to arrive shortly after 8 a. m. tomorrow, in time for a pre-game shooting workout on the W. S. C. floor.

"Watch Luisetti!" was the cry in this basketball-mad camp on the eve of the Cougars' first participation in a north-south basketball playoff series.

Kerpa Gets Job
Coach Jack Friel continued to list Sophomore Ed Kerpa, a reserve, for the probable starting assignment of checking Angelo "Hank" Luisetti, the Stanford all-American forward.

The other probable starting forward is John Koisch, another sophomore. Ivar Nelson, northern division leading scorer, will start at center, with the veterans Bill Dahke and Frank Hooper, both under six feet at guards.

The teams will clash Friday and Saturday nights, with a third game Monday if necessary to decide the championships.

The only radio station scheduling the Washington State-Stanford game broadcast is KWSC, the Pullman campus station. The broadcast will start at 8 p. m.

Big Fight May Be Moved to Gotham

Chicago Program Is Less Certain; Baer Dispute Arriving Nowhere

NEW YORK, March 25.—(AP)—Peering through the fistic fog today it seems the heavyweight title fight, already buffeted in a gale of dispute ever since it hauled off suddenly for Chicago, may yet be steered right back to New York.

Two Salem High Relay Teams Enter Mill Meet; Distance Medley Squad Hopes Highest; Weather Handicaps

TWO Salem high relay teams will be entered in the annual Hill relay meet in the Pacific International livestock pavilion in Portland Saturday night.

Coach Vern Gilmore is banking most on his distance medley team, a group composed of the best runners of the Salem high squad, with a sprint relay team also being entered.

Bill Smith, century dasher for last year's Salem track team, will take the 290 stretch in the distance medley. Bernard Larson will cover the 440 while Daryl Shields will run the 880 and Amos Jahn the final stretch of three-quarters of a mile.

Both Shields and Jahn were top-ranking members of the Salem cross-country team.

Nig Ninomiya, a former Parish junior high sprint star, will take the lead-off position in the sprint relay on the 145-yard stretch. Carl Chapman will run the 290 length. Halbert Kemper, 440, and Bill Major, 580.

Bad weather and a torn-up track have hampered Salem's preparation for the Hill meet.

Opening Knitters' Shop
