

Work on Gym Will Start Soon, Said

West Salem M.E. Church Is Planning Pageant For Easter Evening

WEST SALEM, March 25—The gymnasium project for the West Salem school has been approved and the work on it probably will be started before long.

The West Salem school will have this Friday and Monday off as its Easter vacation. Several of the classes have planned Easter egg hunts and parties for the afternoon of next Thursday.

The fifth grade engaged in a spelling match Monday. The list consisted of 1000 words. Howard Obershaw received first place; Shirley Kelly, second; Lorraine LaBaugh, third and Carl Komyate, fourth.

The program for the community club meeting Monday consisted of instrumental and vocal numbers by Russell and Charlie Beardsley, the Erickson sisters, the West Salem Hill Billies, and a tap dance by Patsy Musinger.

A sacred pageant, "In Joseph's Garden," will be presented Sunday at 7:30 p.m., in the Ford Memorial church by a group from the senior Epworth League and the Willing Worker's league. Special music will be by Ruth Bedford and a children's choir.

The cast includes Francis Wise, Doris Hamby, Mary Clark, Dorothy Menfield, Lillie Shipley, Jessie Arnold, Estaline Rieraon, Clara Boyd, Joe Herson, Connie Coon, Marianna Starr, Dorothy Fyeatt and Mary Jeanne Otey.

Klinger Pays Fine

SILVERTON, March 25—Virgil Klinger of Mt. Angel paid a $3.50 fine Wednesday afternoon to Judge George Cusiter on a charge of failing to stop at a stop sign.

Former Residents Return, Mill City

MILL CITY, March 25—Week-end visitors here were Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Baltimore, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Klein of West Fir, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Moore of Cottage Grove, Miss Barbara Davis of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. George Crook of Fort Grove and Malcolm Davis of Longview, all former Mill City residents.

An enjoyable party was held in the Rada hotel Saturday night in honor of the alumni and seniors of the Mill City high school. The evening was spent dancing and playing games, after which a lunch was served.

Mrs. W. W. Mason returned Sunday after spending several days at Elmira with her son Arthur, principal of the school there.

A party in honor of St. Patrick's day was held Wednesday by the 4-H "Stitch a Bit" club.

Fosters' Injuries More Serious Than Believed Right After Accident

PLEASANTDALE, March 25—Injuries which Mr. and Mrs. George Foster sustained in an automobile accident Sunday are apparently more serious than at first reported. Instead of only a dislocated knee Mr. Foster also has a broken hip and Mrs. Charles Addison has a badly crushed chest. At first she was reported uninjured, her husband, driver of the car, escaped injury. Mrs. Foster received cuts about her face.

Pie Social and Program Slated For Halls Ferry; Installing Lights at Hall

HALLS FERRY, March 25—The school and community will hold an interesting program and pie social at the hall Friday night. Electric lights are being installed and will be ready for use at the social.

The pupils on the honor roll this month are: Tommy Holmes, Doris Nichols, Betty Reeve, Bertha Kitz, Winifred Newton, Billy Patterson, Robert Pearsell, and Dale Patterson.

Since you can't go to 5th Avenue
WARDS bring 5th Avenue to You

No matter how far from 5th Avenue you live, Wards brings you the pick of the latest New York fashions. Brings them quickly, and at a fraction of their 5th Avenue price. How does Wards do it?

Every day in New York our fashion buyers select the best of today's fashions—styles that are featured in fashion magazine pages—stunning costumes being worn that very day on 5th Avenue.

The dresses selected are faithfully copied in large quantities (that's where the saving comes in!) and rushed in small quantities (so the clothes you choose won't be seen all over town) to your Wards store.

Because we pick so carefully, because we dress so many thousands of women, Wards can dress you with 5th Avenue chic for less!

which is which?

One dress sells for 29.75 in a 5th Avenue store. The other costs you 5.98 at Wards.
