Robin Commits Suicide Trying To Get Image

INDEPENDENCE, March 25—Apparently being able to see his image in the dining room window of the home of Principal and Mrs. Paul E. Robinson, Tuesday morning a robin perched on the branches of a cherry tree about four feet from the window and began flying, pecking and scratching, trying to get in or to fight with the bird he could see in the glass. He banged the window so hard many of the times that Mrs. Robinson felt surely he would die or the window would break. The robin hit the glass about every 45 to 90 seconds all day, and then began his labor again Wed-nesday morning until he dropped dead.

Mrs. Robinson worried about the bird, and because it made her nervous, chased it about a block from the house several times, but was unable to make him cease.
