Ducks Are at Oakland; Get Good News of Posedel's Imminent Return

By RUSS NEWLAND SACRAMENTO. April 2 - (A) Baseball blows the top off the 1937 Pacific coast league season tomorrow in opening games of what is expected to develop into one of the liveliest pennant scrambles in the 34-year history of the circuit.

The song of the hickory bat crashing into horsehide pellets will be heard by some 40,000 fans gathered in four California cities for the seasonal inaugural of the national pastime. The coast league is the first to open and last to close in the country.

Team and probable batteries as the 26-week drive gets under way: Seattle at Sacramento: Gregory and Bassler; Freitas and Clark. Missions at San Francisco: Beck and Sprinz; Gibson and Woodall. Portland at Oakland: Liska and Cronin; Douglas and Raimondi, San Diego at Los Angeles: Hebert and Detore; Thomas and Boi-

Softball Meeting Set Next Tuesday

First steps in the Salem Softball association for 1937 will be taken at a meeting Tuesday, April 6, at the Y. M. C. A. at 8 o'clock. At that time, contracts will be made, and no entries will be accepted after that date.

The following business houses and plants have signified intention to enter: senior league-Eagles Lodge, Hogg Brothers, Pades, Watts, Oregon Pulp and Paper, Man's Shop, Quelle Restaurant, Square Deal Radio, Golden Pheasant, Y. M. C. A. and St.

In the junior league, the Y. M. C. A., Valley Motors, St. Vincents, Parkers, and Brooks Cloth-iers will probably enter.

Bernie Bierman, coach of the famed Minnesota Juggernaut, looks for four things in his football players. Bierman wants ruggedness and good health, an active, alert mind, courage and ambition. Bierman means mental rather than physical courage. He says, "When you see two teams going into the latter part of the third quarter, and one of them eventually shows superiority, nine time out of ten it is the team with the greater courage that pulls away from the other. When you see a team score early, lose its drive and permit its opponents to win the game, it usually comes because the eleven that first scored became self-satisfied."

This dampish weather has more or less hampered softready to blossom out with a fanning session as soon as a little heat intrudes itself into the atmosphere, Spring play will start April 19, a date not so far away, and most of the sponsors have already lined up their teams. In fact, we hear rumors that Ben Pade had his team for this year lined up by the middle of last season, Gurnee Flesher has been busy working out details of the new junior league for boys under 20 years old.
