

Multiple-Champion Moran Tangles With H. Elliott Tonight

Meanie Claims Three Crowns

Tommy Tassia Will Make Debut; Gunther and Porter to Clash

Sailor Moran, wrestler who has so many championships he doesn't know what to do with them, will meet Harry Elliott, the people's choice, in the main event of tonight's American Legion wrestling exhibition at the armory.

Moran collects championships like other people collect stamps and old match boxes. Before coming to the Pacific coast he held the Gulf state and New England middleweight championships and he wrestled the coast middleweight title away from Jack Hagen at Eugene recently.

Moran, who showed in his first appearance here that he knows how and when to use his dukes, has also held a few boxing championships in his day. He was at one time welterweight champion of the U. S. Navy.

Athletic Field at Silverton Okehed

Approval of a WPA project calling for the construction of a baseball park and athletic field at Silverton has been received by the district 3 WPA office here according to J. E. Smith, director. The project calls for expenditure of $6942 in federal funds and $5880 by the sponsor. Also approved was a West Salem storm sewer project which will be provided $4264 by the federal government and $1265 by the sponsor.

Vince Dundee Is Winner In Third Comeback Bout

PLAINFIELD, N. J., April 12.—(P)—Vince Dundee, 146, former world's middleweight champion, tonight captured the third win in his comeback campaign by knocking out Willie Murphy, 160, of Syracuse, N. Y., in the third round of the eight-round main bout.

Courageous Comebacks

Ted YAROSZ
-- ILLNESS AND INJURIES THREATENED TO END TED'S CAREER -- BUT -- NOW HE'S AGAIN KNOCKING AT THE MIDDLEWEIGHT CHAMPS' DOOR!

ALICE MARBLE
FOUGHT HER WAY BACK TO THE TOP AFTER A LONG SIEGE WITH PLEURISY...
BRUCE CAMPBELL AND FEE WEE WANER BOTH LICKED OLD MAN ILLNESS -- AND CAME BACK --

It takes real courage—moral as well as physical—to come back as an athlete after a serious siege of illness has threatened to end one's career.

Alice Marble did it. A couple of years ago, just when she seemed headed for the tennis heights, she suffered a breakdown due to the strain of too much tennis. Pleurisy set in, and it seemed that the blonde Californian's net future was irrevocably shattered. But after a long rest, Alice came back—and how!

Teddy Yarosz, former middleweight king, is another gallant brawler who showed his mettle in the face of illness and adversity. Teddy was a sick man when he lost his title to Babe Risko, and he suffered several broken ribs that also set him back. It was thought that his ring career was over, but the lion-hearted Pittsburgher came back to lick the man who had dethroned him, and in so doing again won the threshold of the middleweight throne.

Tris Speaker Gravely Hurt

Surgeons Predict He Will Recover; Severe Fall Suffered Sunday

By BEN BASSETT
CLEVELAND, April 12.—(P)—Death called two strikes on Tris Speaker today, but it looked as if the toughest pitcher of them all was going to be knocked out of the box.

The man who batted .344 in 21 years of major league competition—baseball's "immortal" along with Christy Mathewson and Ty Cobb—was in Cleveland's Lakeside hospital with a fractured skull. He fell 16 feet to a stone walk Sunday while he was putting up a flower box at his home.

Surgeons took 100 stitches in a wound that extended from his left eye to his neck, and then stood back to marvel at his stamina. The 49-year-old "Spoke," one of baseball's greatest outfielders called on his rugged constitution to pull him through.

"We think he'll live," a surgeon said, at the same time denying all visitors to Speaker's room. Speaker made it plain he didn't want to be coddled. Even with his skull broken, he didn't want to be carried to the ambulance that led him to the hospital.

To Cleveland baseball fans, Speaker's critical injury put a shadow across the path of what they hope will be the best year for the Indians in a long time. Cleveland fans have been concentrating their attention on a young pitcher named Bob Feller. Today they were pulling for the man who brought them their only world championship. That was in 1920—when Bob Feller was still in his crib.

Only three months ago baseball writers named "Spoke" to baseball's hall of fame at Cooperstown, N. Y. There his name stands alongside those of Nap Lajoie, Ty Cobb, Babe Ruth, Walter Johnson, Christy Mathewson, Cy Young and Hans Wagner.

And so death didn't have much sting in a third pitch to tonight. After all, the fellow at the plate is already one of the immortals.

Deader Pellet in Use This Season

But Not Generally Until Midsummer; Pitchers Expected to Shine

By ALAN GOULD
NEW YORK, April 12.—(P)—Looks like 1937 will be the biggest season for major league pitchers since the Jackrabbits ball was given an extra shot of juice shortly after the war, to promote the Ruthian slugging era... the big league spheroid has been deadened intermittently, with some secrecy, to give the defense more chance, but magicians have been slow to realize star pitchers can be as successfully ballyhooed as star sluggers.

The latest "de-lively" ball won't be in general use until mid-season, due to manufacturing circumstances and the fact big leaguers have a big holdover supply... nearly all clubs with pennant hopes feature improved twirling and stress defensive tactics, with the exception of the world champion Yankees.

Seven pitchers gained 20 or more victories in the majors last year... We won't be surprised if the number is doubled this year... Bob Feller, Lefty Gomez, Cy Blanton, Hal Schumacher, Lonnie Warneke, Van Mungo and Schoolboy Rowe appear the most likely additions or comebacks to the select class... Most consistent winners of 20 or more games now in the big league show are Carl Hubbell, Dizzy Dean and Wes Ferrell. Dean and Hubbell have been in 20-game class four straight years, Ferrell in six of the last eight seasons.

Max and Kingfish Enjoying Harvest

LONDON, April 12.—(P)—Maxie Baer and King Levinsky, neither of whom was previously famed for his judgment, are beginning to look like the two smart boys of business.

At the moment they are jointly about to tap the rich vein of British gold that has been here all along for American heavyweights to discover.

Baer is due to pocket $22,500, tax exempt, for whom some observers consider an easy workout Thursday night against the new British champion, Tommy Farr. Levinsky is believed to be guaranteed another big sum for fighting Irish Jack Doyle, rated a fair crooner but a poor fighter.

Harrington Brothers already have sold $50,000 of tickets for Thursday's Baer-Farr fight.

Sabin and Grant Doubles Winners

HOUSTON, Tex., April 12.—(P)—Bryan "Bitay" Grant of Atlanta teamed with Wayne Sabin of Hollywood today to defeat Bob and Karl Kamrath, 6-1, 6-3, 10-8, and capture the seventh annual River Oaks tennis tournament doubles title.

The match was no walkover for the champions, although they had less difficulty than in the first attempt to settle the title yesterday. Darkness halted the match with the teams tied 15-all in the third set after each had won one.

The match was played over today. Grant and Sabin had little trouble in the first two sets but ran into strong opposition in the final set.

Monmouth Tennis Squad Due Today

Willamette's tennis team, provided it can find a dry court, will meet the Oregon Normal netters here today. Willamette's first meeting with Oregon Normal was halted by rain after the Bearcats won the first three matches.

The Bearcat netters meet Oregon State at Corvallis Saturday.

Church Softball Openers May Be Postponed Today

Pressing Shop Is Opened, Jefferson

JEFFERSON, April 12.—Frank A. Hall of Albany has opened a tailoring and cleaning and pressing shop in Jefferson. He is located next door to the Tyson club on Main street, in the front room of the cold storage building. The shop will be moved into the Jones building as soon as it is completed. Mr. and Mrs. Hall are living in Albany at present, but are anxious to move to Jefferson as soon as they can secure a house.

Mrs. Myrtle Myers, Mrs. Charles Fogg, Mrs. Nettie Reeves and Mrs. Carl Kils of the Evangelical Women's Missionary society attended the missionary rally in the Evangelical church at Monmouth Friday.

Women of the Morning Star grange home economics club are planning a program and ice-cream social to be held at their hall three miles west of Jefferson, Saturday night. The proceeds will be used toward installing electricity in the grange building.

Badger and Pilot Will Clash Today

FOREST GROVE, April 12.—(P)—A double header baseball game with Portland university here Tuesday will mark the beginning of an intensive schedule that Coach Pete Miller of Pacific university has lined up for his Badgers.

Orange Consistent In Postponements

CORVALLIS, April 12.—(P)—Oregon State's baseball team continued its unbroken "postponement" streak when rain scored its sixth consecutive victory over Coach "Slats" Gill and his Beavers who were billed to play Oregon Normal today.

Coach Gill said Tuesday's scheduled contest with the teachers would probably likewise be postponed. In an effort to shake the rain jinx, the Oregon State mentor said he would try naming another starting battery for the series here Friday and Saturday with Willamette.

NEW YORK, April 12.—(P)—Salvy Sahan, 147, New York, out-pointed Frankie Cavanaugh, 144½, New York, here tonight. Jimmy Fantini, 141, New York, defeated Jimmy McLeod, 137½, Tacoma, Wash., in the eight-round semi-final.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO IMPROVE FERRY STREET FROM THE EAST LINE OF TWENTY-FIRST STREET TO THE WEST LINE OF TWENTY-THIRD STREET IN THE CITY OF SALEM, OREGON.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that the Common Council of the City of Salem, Oregon, deems it necessary and expedient, and hereby declares its purpose and intention to improve FERRY STREET FROM THE EAST LINE OF TWENTY-FIRST STREET TO THE WEST LINE OF TWENTY-THIRD STREET IN THE CITY OF SALEM, OREGON, at the expense of the abutting and adjacent property, except the street and alley intersections, the expense which will be assumed by the city of Salem, Oregon, by bringing said portion of said street to the established grade, constructing Portland cement concrete curbs, and paving said portion of said street with a six inch Portland cement concrete pavement, cement (30) feet in width, in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor which were adopted by the Common Council on March 15, 1937, now on file in the office of the City Recorder and which are hereby referred to and made a part hereof.

Coast Boy Defeated

Doesn't anybody know an organizer who will foment a sit-down strike in the Rain-makers' Union for a reasonable figure?

Willamette's 1937 football schedule, as now set up, calls for the Bearcats to play Whitman at Walla Walla November 20 and University of Nevada at Reno November 28. At the time the Nevada arrangement was concluded for Thanksgiving "Spec" Keene was also having feelers from the University of Wyoming for a game. "Spec" thought of scheduling a game on December 3 at Laramie, making a nice three game road trip for the Bearcats. He mentioned the scheme to some of the boys whereupon Weary Willy Waldron, the New Jersey songbird, piped, "Say, you better not build a library. You better build a hospital."

You'd hardly recognize the old Oregon state league anymore. There's only three, of the old-timers left and included among the franchises are such strange sounding names: to state league fans as Reedsport, Hills Creek and Sweet Home. Eugene, Toledo and Bend are the old-timers but Eugene was on the verge of dropping out of the chamber of commerce came to the rescue. Portland has no club in the league this year but Woodburn, freshman team of last year, has hung on to its franchise. Silverton is a new one and one which may be expected to go places.
