

Local News Briefs

Report Accidents—Vehicular accidents reported to police yesterday involved the following operators: F. E. Neer, 755 North Church, and Ray Williams, 1811 North Front, at 19th and State; R. A. Toney, Salem, and Charles Coleman, 575 North Liberty, on State between 12th and 13th; Floyd J. Cook, 515 Judson, and John Doran, route 2, at Commercial and Center; K. K. Clark, 8715 Edgewater, and S. W. Starr, First National bank building, on Church street; Charles Daland, route 1, and Melvin Propp, 415 North 18th, at South 21st and Lee streets.

Lutz florist, 1276 N. Lib. Ph 5622.

Permits issued—F. W. Morse took out a building permit yesterday for the erection of a one story duplex house to be located at 1805 and 1807 Lee street and to cost $1375. Other permits issued: Foster & Kleiser, to erect a sign board at 530 South 12th, $50; L. C. Hockett, to alter a two story dwelling at 1603 North Commercial, $50; Elmer Roth, to alter a grocery store at 2060 Market, $35.

Still Many Tagged—That it takes longer than a few days to educate the public to half hour parking is shown in police reports that 387 tags were issued for parking violations Monday and 238 Tuesday. Many of the persons whose cars are tagged are from out of town and are ignorant of the new ordinance. A policy of leniency is being followed in municipal court for first offenders.

My dental office will be closed until Monday, April 26th while I attend a National Orthodontic convention in Chicago. Dr. David B. Hill.

Power Lafke's Topic—"Public Ownership of Power" will be the subject of an address to be delivered by Herman Lafke, Salem attorney, at tonight's meeting of the WPA adult education class in problems of democracy at Salem high school tonight. Arrangements are being made to initiate a class in this subject at West Salem.

For Sale—Large bundles old papers, 10c. Statesman Pub. Co. 215 S. Commercial street.

Van Winkle Rules—Where an insurance company appoints an agent and such agent is certified by the state insurance commissioner, he continues to serve so long as the company renews the annual license and his fee is in effect. Attorney General Van Winkle ruled yesterday that the opinion was requested by Hugh Earle, state insurance commissioner.

Will Sail for China—Thomas C. Kung, who attended Willamette university two years ago, has completed a course at Ryan school in San Francisco, and plans to sail on the President Lincoln April 17 for his home in China, according to a letter received yesterday by C. A. Kella of the Y.M.C.A. Mr. Kella was the boy's guardian during his stay here.

Don't fail to see Fullers Paint Display in trailer at our office today. Chas. K. Spaulding Logging company.

Convoy Visits City—A fleet of 50 army trucks on route from Fort Lewis, Wash., to San Francisco reached Salem Monday night and departed shortly after dawn Tuesday. The contingent stayed at the fairgrounds. They will return next week carrying part of the 1500 men comprising a regiment which is going to Washington for army maneuvers.

Dance Fri., Sat. Mellow Moon.

Salem Recruiting Leads—Sergeant Joseph Scarpa of the Salem recruiting office was formed yesterday that his office leads all others in the state excepting Portland for numbers signed up this month. Four have enlisted here, two are waiting for examining at Vancouver Barracks, and four applicants will have this morning.

Final payment of 20% offered for your First National Bank in Salem Receiver's Certificates at 309 U. S. Bank Bldg., Salem.

Gibbard Returns—Arthur E. Gibbard, assistant postmaster, and Mrs. Gibbard returned yesterday from Los Angeles where Mr. Gibbard has been enjoying a two weeks vacation. He expects to be back at his desk today.

Gets Teaching Position—Miss LaVerne Homyer of Salem has signed a contract at the high school at Ashland to teach English for the coming year. She will graduate from Willamette university in June.

SPECIAL
Our Usual Wave, Complete 75c
Perm. Oil $1.50
Push Wave, The Complete Phone 3663
307 1st Nat'l Bank Bldg. CASTLE PERM. WAVERS

USE CHINESE HERBS
When Others Fail
CHARLES CHAN
Chinese Herbs REMEDIES
Healing virtue has been tested hundreds years for chronic ailments, coughs, colds, throat, sinusitis, catarrh, constipation, asthma, chronic cough, stomach, gall stones, colitis, constipation, diabetes, kidneys, sciatica, heart, blood, nerves, neuralgia, rheumatism, high blood pressure, gland, skin sores, male, female and children disorders.
S. B. Fong, 8 years practice in China, Herb Specialist, 1222 N. Commercial St., Salem, Ore. Office hours 9 to 6 P. M. Sunday and Wed. 9 to 10 A. M.

Present Club Program—Entertainment for a meeting at Woodburn yesterday afternoon in which the Woodburn Rural Women's club entertained the Woodburn Woman's club membership, was furnished by the Marion County Public Health association. Mrs. George R. K. Moorhead, executive secretary of the health group, spoke and also showed the film, "Behind the Shadow." The Woodburn grade school 25-piece harmonica band furnished music. The session was held at the Lutheran church hall.

Prompt del. Dry wood. Tel. 5000.

Would Vacate Road—The county court yesterday received a petition for vacation of the old Silverton-Victor Point road which was replaced a few years ago by a new market road. The road proposed to be abandoned is approximately one-half mile long, running between the Victor Point school grounds and county road No. 313. It is not now in use. The petition was signed by L. E. Guard and 33 others.

REGULAR MEETING—Salem Lodge of Perfection, Thurs. Eve., April 15, 1937. Eighth and Ninth Degrees. Visiting Brethren welcome. Venerable Master.

Wells Reports Crash—R. A. Wells, 2095 Maple avenue, Salem, reported to the sheriff yesterday that his automobile was slightly damaged early Tuesday in a collision with a north on the Salem-St. Paul highway. Driver of the other car involved was given as D. Jardin, route two.

Obituaries

Garver
David C. Garver, late resident of 879 N. Liberty street, passed away suddenly near Silver Creek Falls at the age of 54 years. Survivors are the widow, Anna Garver; a sister, Mrs. Harold Beck of Charlo, Mont.; a niece, Miss Verda Garver of Quincy, Wyo.; and four nephews, Kenneth I. Close of Portland, Lyle Cooper of Turner, Mont., Paul Cooper of Lewistown, Mont., and Lynn Cooper of Charlo, Mont. Memorial services at the chapel of Walker and Howell funeral home (formerly Salem Mortuary), 545 North Capitol, at 2 p.m. Thursday, April 15. Rev. P. W. Erikson officiating. Concluding services Mt. Crest abbey crematorium.

Nairn
Mary T. Nairn at the residence, 1973 North Capitol, April 13, at the age of 85 years. Survived by three sons, Peter of Salem, Charles D. of Elston, and Alexander T. of Sheridan; six grandchildren and three great grandchildren. Funeral services will be held from Clough-Barrick company chapel Thursday, April 15, at 10 a.m. Interment in Dallas I.O.O.F. cemetery. Rev. Lyban Wood will officiate.

Brittall
George Arthur Brittall, at a local hospital, April 13, aged 66 years. Survived by two daughters, Mrs. Fay Wetzel and Mrs. Mary Marsh of Nebraska; four brothers, William A. of Salem, Miles of Kimball, Neb., Carl of Fremont, Neb., Jesse of Santa Rosa, Calif.; two sisters, Mrs. Ada Bucher of Ravenna, Neb. Mrs. Viola Samuelson of San Diego, Cal. Announcements later by Clough-Barrick company.

Thiel
Mrs. Margaret Thiel, at the residence on Saginaw street, April 14. Survived by two children, Mrs. Leona Fisher and Joseph Beck, both of Salem; three grandchildren, Harold Domogalla, Mrs. Marguerite Davis and Miss Theo Beck, all of Salem; and one sister, Mrs. Mary Wolff, Salem. Funeral services Friday, April 16 at 10 a.m. in St. Joseph's Catholic church, Father Bernard officiating. Vault entombment Mt. Crest abbey mausoleum.

Adams
Mrs. Amy C. Adams at a local hospital April 14. Survived by the widower, Hector Adams of Salem; a daughter, Genevieve Adams of Salem; also a mother, Genevieve Masters of Salem; two sisters, Miss Leona G. Masters of New York and Mrs. James Pirone of Long Beach, Calif.; a niece, Helen Margaret McGee of New York. Announcements later by W. T. Rigdon company.

Brown
Mrs. Emily Brown at the residence of her son, 1495 Edgewater street, West Salem, Wednesday, April 14, aged 69 years. Survived by husband, A. W. Brown; two sons, Alvin J. Brown of Dallas and Clarence R. Brown of West Salem; and two daughters, Mrs. J. C. Hutchins of Trinidad, Calif., and Mrs. C. R. Bennett of Tillamook; two brothers, A. J. and M. W. Barham, both of Salem; two sisters in North Dakota and one in California; also nine grandchildren and several nieces and nephews. Mrs. Brown was a member of Free Methodist church. Funeral announcements later from Walker and Howell funeral home (formerly Salem mortuary).

«FLOWERS»
OLSON, Florist
Court & High Phone 7166

ASK US ABOUT INSURANCE!
If you have an insurance question, if you want an insurance policy explained, a rate checked, or any other insurance service—just contact our service department.
SERVICE IS YOURS FOR THE ASKING
Insurance Department
Hawkins & Roberts, Inc.
Insurance in All Its Branches, Including Life
Guardian Bldg. Phone 4108

Club Invited Out—The West Salem Townsend club, instead of holding its regular meeting this week, has accepted an invitation to visit the Independence club and put on the program there. J. R. Brown, president of the West Salem club, says a delegation of 50 to 75 persons is hoped for and asks those wishing to go to get in touch with him by 10 o'clock Friday morning. Arrangements have been made to make the trip by bus at low cost, each person paying his or her own fare.

Show Events Listed—The three main events of the county 4-H club spring show on the closing day, April 24, at the state fairgrounds will be a home economics judging contest at 1:30 p.m., a style review at 3:30 and awarding of health scholarships given by the Marion county public health association at the conclusion of the revue, due at about 4:15 p.m., County Club Leader Wayne Harding announced yesterday.

Prompt del. Dry wood. Tel. 5000.

Three Join Army—Floyd Miller, Monmouth, enlisted in the United States army air corps, for service at Hamilton field, California. Sergeant Joseph Scarpa of the Salem recruiting office said yesterday. Other recent inductees were Otto Gravert, plaintiff claims she was injured to the extent of $5200 in a fall downstairs.

To Name Fair Group—The committee authorized by the last legislature to arrange exhibits at the New York and San Francisco world fairs will be announced by Governor Martin later this week, he said Wednesday. Appropriations for both of these exhibits were authorized by the legislature.

Sign Bridge Agreement—Members of the Clackamas county court have signed an agreement with the Marion county court whereby a new inter-county bridge at Morris crossing below Monitor, Marion county will pay one-half the cost of the project.

Dance Fri., Sat. Mellow Moon.

Fo'th to Speak—Dr. Joseph Fo'th, traveler and author of "Portland," will address groups of Salem high school students Tuesday morning at 10 and 11 o'clock on "Depressions and Business Cycles." Dr. Fo'th is one of the Portland public forum speakers who appear at Salem high regularly.

Popcorn Club Meets—The entertainment Friday night for the Popcorn community club meeting will be furnished by the Bethel community club and will be a play, "Wild Ginger." School children will be admitted free. Refreshments will follow the program.

Administrator's furniture auction Friday, 1:30. 1693 So. Liberty.

Mail Routes Inspected—This week at the postoffice, every piece of mail assigned to each carrier is being counted and weighed. The purpose of this is to ascertain if city routes are well balanced. This procedure is gone through twice each year.

Extradition Granted—Governor Charles H. Martin yesterday authorized the extradition of Andrew Jones who is wanted in Arkansas on a charge of forgery and grand larceny. Jones is under arrest in Portland.

Hughes Better—Jack H Hughes professor of the Blue Bird conference passed a motion picture, "The Story of the Deaf," at Salem Deafness hospital yesterday. It was reported last night. He was taken ill suddenly Tuesday noon.

Booked by Police—Delbert Haener, Independence, was charged with violation of basic speed rule by city police yesterday. Joe H. Brox, 531 North High, was booked for failing to observe a stop sign.

Club No. 4 Tonight—Township Club No. 4 will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the Highland school building. There will be a musical entertainment and other features.

Ex-Resident Succumbs—U. K. Miller, once a Salem resident, died in Bremerton, Wash. Sunday, said a letter received here by a sister, Mrs. Ada Newton.

Dean Dubach Discusses Japan-China Situation Before Dallas Students
DALLAS, April 14—Dr. U. G. Dubach, dean of men at O. S. C., gave an address before the Dallas high school student body Monday afternoon.
He spoke on China and Japan, stressing especially the dangerous military situation existing in those countries. Dr. Dubach spent about five months in the Orient the past spring and summer.

Dr. Chan Lam
CHINESE MEDICINE CO.
Natural remedies for disorders of liver, stomach, glands, skin, and urinary system of men and women. Remedies for constipation, asthma, arthritis, sugar diabetes and rheumatism.
20 years in business. Naturopathic physicians. 308 1/2 Court St. Corner Liberty. Office open Saturdays and Tuesdays only, 10 A. M. to 1 P. M. 6 P. M. to 7. Consultation—Blood pressure and urine tests are free of charge.

Drunk Driving Case Admitted

Alpha Hughes Fined $100, Loses License; Court Docket Dwindling

Reversing her plea, Alpha Hughes admitted a charge of drunken driving at the first trial in justice court. On the motion of her attorney, the court dismissed a disorderly conduct charge which she also had faced. On the other count she was fined $100, her operator's license was suspended for one year and she was placed on one year's probation with a 30-day jail sentence suspended.

In circuit court yesterday a dismissal and a continuance brought the law department down to the last case on the docket, that of Ethna Watson against Karl G. Baker. With Judge Lewelling presiding in the absence of Judge McMahan, the jury before being dismissed until Monday morning inspected the apartment house owned by Becke at 660 Henry street in which the plaintiff claims she was injured to the extent of $5200 in a fall downstairs.

The court continued the case of Harding vs. Moynihan for one year upon motion of the plaintiff and orally dismissed the Morgenson vs. Owens action upon stipulation.

Circuit Court—A. H. Averill vs. Rufus C. Holman; order sustaining motion of Portland Wire & Iron Works and James B. Jones, claimants, citing defendant to show cause by May 4 why he should not be committed to a court order issued November 19, 1935.

Mary E. McClary vs. W. E. McClary; suit for divorce, restoration of previous name. Mary Allen complaint states couple married at Albany April 5, 1936, and charges defendant with cruel and inhuman treatment.

George L. Blakelee vs. Arthur Hime; amended complaint for $1815 damages arising from auto accident at Commercial and Rural avenues June 27, 1936.

Bank liquidation orders; Bank of Woodburn, order authorizing sale of McCutcheon house in Woodburn to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Becker for $50; State Bank of Hubbard, order setting aside claim on note against G. T. and Frances Molisan for $50; Bank of Stayton, order settling $149.50 claim on note against John A. Rohwein for $50 and order to pay George R. Duncan $98 in attorney fees.

Federal Lank bank of Spokane vs. P. E. Thomason et al; return on sheriff's sale under foreclosure showing $15,000 realized.

Probate Court—John W. Jory estate; order admitting will which leaves entire $2500 estate to two sisters, L. May Jory and Martha E. Myers, the latter now deceased; order appointing Ed A. Jory administrator with will annexed on request of L. May Jory, executrix under the will.

Arthur Boran estate; order approving second final account and authorizing executor to pay himself $100 and his attorney $100 additional fees and deposit $970.72 with county treasurer.

Ida Schwab estate; order discharging executor.

Lloyd T. Reynolds estate; order approving 11th semi-annual account of Ladd & Bush Trust company, executor, showing $15,679.24 received, $14,567.93 paid out.

Lenta Westcott estate; order approving supplemental final account showing $7000 invested for benefit of Anna and Lute Westcott with Willard C. Marshall as trustee and releasing W. T. Stoif as executor.

John Peter Schafer guardianship; appraisal, $3000, by Joseph J. Keber, J. D. Haut and Alois Keber.

Gunder B. Ostrem estate; petition for appointment of J. D. Thomas, Gunder Alick and Erling Telgen as new appraisers.

Eva Schafer estate; order

Club No. 6 Meets—Central Townsend club No. 6 will meet Friday night at 7:30 o'clock at the courthouse.

Coming Events
April 16-17—Oregon high school extempore speaking and interpretation contests at Willamette university.
April 22-24—Salem sub-district Methodist ladies aid rally at Woodburn.
April 22-24—Annual 4-H spring show at fairgrounds.
April 29—Concert by Portland Ad Club Glee-masters sponsored by Salem Ad club, Salem armory.
May 2-8—National music week.
May 18—Twenty-Third club sponsors Richard Haliburton, noted world traveler and writer, in lecture at Leslie auditorium.

glosing estate and releasing administrator.
Nicholas Schmalz, Sr., estate; order for hearing May 1 on final account of Lucy Schmalz, executrix, showing $2275.26 received, $69.62 paid out.

Eugene Roy estate; petition for admission of will and naming of Eliza Taylor and Albert Roy as executors; order appointing Charles D. Staylor, Everett Downing and George H. Bell as appraisers.

Lawrence R. Murphy estate; appraisal, $6286.17, by P. H. Bell, J. C. Evans and F. Harlan.

Sophia Louise Aufranc estate; order for hearing May 15 on final account of Emilie Aufranc, executrix, showing $1875 received, $1875 paid out.

Elmira A. Scott estate; order authorizing William B. Mott, executor, to give a mortgage for $1000 to raise money with which to pay additional expenses.

Ida May Spaetig estate; return of citation to J. F. Ulrich to show cause why last will should not be canceled upon application of Adolph Spaetig and Irene Davis.

Julia Pardo estate; appraisal, $2800, by T. L. Harris, James Henderson and David Nickel.

Stafford Barber estate; semi-annual account of Keith O'Hair, administrator, showing $501.94 received $427.60 paid out.

Marriage Licenses—W. C. Tucker, legal clerk, 1530 Nebraska street, and Marjorie Maguire, legal clerk, 436 Water street, both of Salem.

Justice Court—Ray Morrow, $1 fine, failing to stop.
Rhe Rowland, charge of giving check with insufficient funds dismissed upon district attorney's motion after amount of check and court costs paid.

Municipal Court—Herbert A. Miller, falling to stop, fined $2.50.
George Stanley, left turn into alley, fined $1.
Chester C. DeLisle, falling to stop, fined $5.

Roy Doan, drunkenness and vagrancy, ten day jail sentence suspended on condition he leave town.
W. C. Moore, drunkenness and vagrancy, ten day jail sentence suspended on condition he leave town.

Gaiser Is Speaker At P-T Convention

Superintendent Silas Gaiser of the Salem public schools will address the state Parent-Teachers association convention at Portland today on "Philosophy of the Activity Schools."
Gaiser last night was a witness testifying on recreation as part of the development of a community in a trial of "Youth vs. Society" conducted according to correct legal procedure.

Testimony had to be authenticated and Gaiser was called to testify as to the organization of Salem's recreation commission and to show how the city and the school district work together to provide recreational facilities. Salem is considered a model town in the provision of recreational activities.

Call for "Mrs. Moonlight"

BUY YOUR NEXT CAR on the... Cash Buy Plan
NEW OR USED
Lowest Financing Costs
Smaller Monthly Payments
Insurance Placed Locally (with your own agent or broker)
Be a cash buyer for your next car. This new, lowest cost financing plan is available to any one having a satisfactory credit record and a steady income. You select any new automobile or a used car less than three years old, and supply one-third the purchase price either in cash or by the trade-in value of another automobile. This bank then supplies the balance needed to make a cash deal. Before buying a new car or refinancing your present one, investigate what this plan will save you!
★ SALEM BRANCH ★
THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF PORTLAND
FIRST NATIONAL BANK WEST OF THE ROCKIES
MEMBER FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION

Young Democrats Choose Delegates

McLeod, Elise Schroeder to Represent at State Meeting; 50 Going

George McLeod and Elise Schroeder of Salem were elected as delegates to the young democratic state convention at North Bend April 16, 17 and 18 at a spirited meeting of "more than 100 members of the Marion county Young Democratic club last night at the city library. McLeod is president of the club and Miss Schroeder is assistant private secretary to Governor Martin. Both will support Allan D. Greenwood of Clackamas county for state president of the organization. It was stated.

About 50 members of the local club will attend the convention. It was indicated last night. Stanley A. Price, chairman of the local transportation committee, has asked that all who have room in their cars for extra passengers get in touch with him at once.

500 Are Expected
More than 500 Young Democrats from all parts of Oregon will participate in the convention, highlight of which will be the banquet to be held Saturday night at Currier's Village. Speakers and honored guests at the dinner include: Governor and Mrs. Charles H. Martin; Clifford C. Anglin, of San Francisco, chairman of the democratic state central committee of California; Phil H. Gallagher, state treasurer of Washington; and president of the Young Democratic clubs of Washington; D. Elwood Caples, of Vancouver, chairman of the democratic state central committee of Washington; Carl C. Donagh, United States district attorney for Oregon; W. L. Gosselin, secretary to the governor and first president of the Young Democratic clubs of Oregon; Mrs. Emily Edson and Howard Latourrette, national committee woman and committee man for Oregon. C. C. Carlson, state president, will preside at the banquet.

Delegates at the convention will be entertained by the host club, the Young Democratic club of Coos county, at an informal party Friday night at the convention. The main business will be transacted on Saturday, including the annual election of officers. Sunday members of the various clubs

LIONEL BARRYMORE RELIEVED FROM PAIN
The famous star, relieved by RO-MARI from a crippling attack of Sciatica, says: "Nothing in my experience has been so helpful."
RO-MARI is the discovery of a physician in Berlin, Ireland, and has been used with great success in Great Britain and America.
RO-MARI is compounded to strike at the cause of the condition, offering desirable hope of real relief.
RO-MARI is available in native language: ENGLISH, SPANISH, and FRENCH.
Grossman's RO-MARI
For Sale Here EXCLUSIVELY by Fred Meyer, Inc.

DOUBLE YOUR MONEY BACK... and more

When You Use the Ads in the Statesman as a Guide to Your Buying
Mr. M., a farmer of Brooks, Ore., found his $1.25 3-month Statesman subscription saved him $7.05 on household expenses!
Mr. M. has PROVED it pays to keep a careful eye out for buying opportunities in Statesman advertising columns... he kept a record of savings on essential items that Statesman advertisers tell everyone of! He finds he saved $2.35 per month over a 3 month period! His paper cost him $1.25... yet he saved himself the cost of the paper and realized a net profit of $5.80 besides.
Dial 9101 and Order a Start!
The Oregon Statesman

White to Attend Summer Session

Dr. Lyman C. White, head of the Willamette university history department, has accepted an invitation to attend the international law summer session at the University of Michigan from June 28 to July 30.

The session is sponsored by the Carnegie endowment for international peace which selects the 60 outstanding international law professors in the country for its month-long discussions. Dr. White is a member of the American Association of International Law.

Speech Contests Will Open Friday

Over 50 Students to Take Part in Events; Three Divisions Listed

Over fifty high school students representing schools from Gresham, Salem, Dundee, Corvallis, Independence, West Linn, Franklin, St. Helena, Sheridan, Dallas, Parkrose, Beaverton and Eugene will arrive on the Willamette campus tomorrow to participate in the annual Oregon high school extempore speaking and interpretation contests. These contests are sponsored by Herbert E. Rahe, professor of the speech department of Willamette university, Tau Kappa Alpha, national forensic honorary, and Theta Alpha Phi, national dramatic honorary.

The tournament is divided into three sections: Extempore speaking, serious interpretations and humorous interpretations. Registration will be held Friday afternoon and preliminary contests will be held Friday afternoon and evening. Semi-final speeches will be given Saturday morning and the finals will be held Saturday afternoon. Trophies will be given to the winners of each contest and cups and medals will be awarded for second place. Each school will have but one representative in a each contest. One person may represent a school in both contests with the exception of schools having an attendance of over five hundred students.

Winners in the 1936 contests were: Serious interpretation, Marjorie Waters, Dallas; humorous interpretation, Sheldon Baker, Franklin high, Portland; extempore speaking, Bill Thomas, Salem.

WALTER CLINE'S FOOD SHOP
Is Now Ready
To Serve Customers
With an ALL NEW MODERN ELECTRIC KITCHEN
WE INVITE YOUR INSPECTION!
New Beer Equipment Wine Served With Meals
IN SENATOR HOTEL