Music Week Endorsed By Governor

In a letter from Governor Charles H. Martin to Mrs. Walter Denton, state and local chairman of National Music week being held in Salem the first week in May, he gives his pledge of cooperation in this worthy movement to increase appreciation of music.

He says: "It is again my pleasure as Governor of Oregon to call to the attention of the people of Oregon National Music week, May 2 to 8. Every community realizes the significance and importance that music plays in the daily lives of our citizens and our appreciation for the classics—old and modern—grows apace. During this week special musical programs will be held throughout the state and Oregon may well be proud of its part in the observance of National Music week."

Mr. and Mrs. Junior Eckley had as their house guests at the Wm. E. Smith and Mrs. Lew Smith of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Reed of Yakima, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Pike and Mr. and Mrs. Serrell Covatt. After the dance the hosts entertained at supper.

Miss Krebs Tells Betrothal At Luncheon

ADDING to the numerous spring engagements is the betrothal of Miss Constance Krebs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Krebs, to Lynn Heise, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Heise, which was made known at a luncheon on Tuesday for which the bride-elect's sister, Miss Dorothy Krebs, was hostess at the Marion hotel. Miss Krebs has chosen May 8 as the date for her marriage which will be solemnized at the Krebs home.

Both Miss Krebs and her fiance are graduates of Salem high school and popular members of the younger set. Miss Krebs is a member of Beta Sigma Phi. Mr. Heise attended Oregon State college where he was affiliated with Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. He is now connected with the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company.

Individual nosegays with cards revealing the news marked places for the guests. The luncheon table was centered with an attractive bouquet of pink carnations, daffodils and narcissus guarded by tall pink tapers.

Covers were placed for the honor guest, Miss Krebs, Mrs. John A. Krebs, Mrs. W. C. Heise, Mrs. W. A. Johnson, Mrs. Kenneth Bell, Mrs. Harry H. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Yocom will entertain members of their contract club tonight at their home on E street. A dessert dinner will be served by the hostess followed by an evening of cards.

Style-Smiles --- by Gretchen

"You'd better not help me tonight, Mrs. Baldwin—I'm in a hurry!" If cook dashes ice water on your culinary efforts, return to your guests. Their admiration of the delectable concoction you are wearing in a "don't dress" dinner will warm your heart. The nautical touch and tailored revers of this fallie frock imbue it with informal charm, while the ankle length skirt (arched higher in the center front panel) makes it decidedly "evening."—Copyright 1937, Esquire Features, Inc.

Meyers-Wachter Vows Are Said

AT MT. ANGEL an attractive wedding was solemnized at St. Mary's church at 8:15 o'clock Tuesday morning when Miss Olive A. Meyers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Meyers and Thomas A. Wachter, son of Mrs. Helen Wachter, pledged their troth before an altar banked with daffodils, jonquils, narcissus and greens.

Rev. Alvin Heibel read the ceremony and celebrated the nuptial high mass. St. Mary's choir sang the mass and at the offertory Miss Clara Keber sang "Ave Maria." Rev. Placidus Fuerst presided at the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a fitted gown of heavy white satin, floor-length and with long sleeves. Her long tulle veil had deep inserts of lace and was held in place with a lace halo. She carried a bridal bouquet of sweetpeas and pink rosebuds.

Miss Ethel Redding of Woodburn, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a royal blue taffeta of floor-length and with puffed sleeves and wore a band of flowers in her hair. Steve Sprauer was best man.

A wedding breakfast was served to the bridal party at the home of Mrs. Helen Wachter. Thirty guests were present at the wedding dinner, served at noon at the home of the bride's parents. A reception for relatives and friends was held in the afternoon, and in the evening a wedding dance was given at the Monitor hall.

Silver Tea Given by Executive Board

The executive board of the Women's Relief corps entertained at tea in the home of Mrs. Louise Koon on Marion street on Tuesday afternoon. Assisting at the tea hour were Mrs. Gladys Kyle, Mrs. Jennie Martin, and Miss Ina Koon.

Others attending the affair were Mesdames Rose Voris, Mary Ackerman, Bertha Loveland, Cordelia La Bore, Maria Robertson, Bertha Ray, Helen Southwick, Maude Chittenden and Jennie F. B. Jones.

The Past Matrons' association are meeting on Friday night at 7:30 at Godfrey's for its annual election of officers. The retiring president is Mrs. Rose Babcock, the secretary is Mrs. Charles Wilson. Hostesses for the affair are Mrs. Babcock, Mrs. Leon Barrick, Mrs. Paul H. Hauser, Mrs. Charles F. Pratt and Mrs. Lee Pettys.

To refit slip covers after they are washed it's a good idea to iron only the pleats and edges. Place the slightly damp covers over the furniture and let them dry in shape.

Rice Appears For Any Course In Many Meals

SOUTHERN cooks know the value of rice as an addition to daily meals, but many of us need reminders to use it as a frequent menu member.

Rice appears as a breakfast food to be served hot with sugar and cream, or with fresh fruits. Hotcakes and waffles frequently include rice as an ingredient.

Rice muffins, rice omelet or eggs scrambled with rice make delightful breakfast dishes. Luncheon sees this food frequently appearing in rice-tomato soup, oyster chowder, creamed shrimp, shrimp creole and many others. Here is a dish especially suitable for luncheon.

MEATLESS LOAF 1 cup cooked rice 1 egg 2 tablespoons chopped onion 1 teaspoon salt 1 cup crushed peanuts or walnuts 1 cup cottage cheese 1 tablespoon fat 1/2 teaspoon pepper

Combine and bake in a loaf pan. Serves about 6. There are many excellent desserts that use rice, and because it has a bland flavor, this versatile food extends more expensive ingredients.

CHOCOLATE RICE PUDDING 2 cups cooked rice 1/2 cup sugar 2 cups milk 4 tablespoons cocoa 1/2 teaspoon salt 1/2 teaspoon vanilla Wash rice thoroughly, heat milk in the double boiler, add rice and cook 10 minutes with sugar and salt. Cook until thick, add vanilla. Makes about 6 servings.

Pottery Shades New This Season

Pottery is appearing in several new shades and styles this season with apricot as one of the attractive colors. Covers that boast polished wood handles are to cover the cheese or put over the breakfast toast to keep it hot.

THE MARCH MEETING of the Past Matrons club of Jefferson was held in the lodge rooms of the Masonic hall. The president, Mrs. Guy Roland, had charge of the business meeting, after which the group did fancy work and enjoyed a social time. Mrs. Lee Farlow and Mrs. Tim Kelly will be hostesses for the next meeting.

THE AUBURN WOMAN'S club met at the home of Mrs. M. Anderson on the Fruitland road with Mrs. J. C. Galbraith assisting hostess. Election of officers for the next year resulted Mrs. W. E. Milburn, president; Mrs. C. L. Marcy, vice president; Mrs. Ben Hawkins, secretary; and Mrs. Carl Krehbiel, treasurer.

WEDDING DATE for Miss Bertha Hattberg, only daughter of Mrs. J. L. Hattberg of Silverton, to Edward Julius Ostegaard has been set for April 16. Mrs. Albert Nerelson will be matron of honor and Mr. Nerelson, best man.

In the Valley Social Realm

IN THE PRESENCE of a large group of relatives and friends, last Wednesday morning at 9 Charles Frommers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Frommers of North Lebanon, and Miss Alice Mercenish of Sublimity were united in marriage at St. Edward's Catholic church at Lebanon, Rev. Williams officiating.

Today's Menu

Curried lamb is a favorite main dish in many families so let's include it in today's dinner menu. Molded fruit salad. Curried lamb with rice. Currant jelly. Carrot fingers. Danish toast cake.

DANISH TOAST CAKE 3 cups applesauce 1 1/2 cups very dry breadcrumbs 1/2 cup butter 1/2 cup sugar 1/2 cup vanilla 1/2 cup lemon juice and cinnamon. Melt butter in a saucepan, add crumbs and stir until all butter is taken up by the crumbs. Butter a casserole or pudding dish and put in a layer of crumbs, then an inch layer of applesauce that has been sweetened to taste and seasoned with cinnamon, vanilla and lemon juice. Alternate layers of the applesauce and crumbs finishing off with crumbs. Put in a cool place to stand overnight or for several hours. Turn out on a tray and serve frosted with whipped cream.

Russian Recipe Uses Cubed Beef

Diners at Russian restaurants are frequently served with a very delicious meat dish called "Beef a la Stroganoff." The flavor is good, with a rich gravy that is pleasing.

BEEF A LA STROGANOFF 1 1/2 pounds lean beef 3 tablespoons butter 1/2 pound mushrooms 1 tablespoon flour 1 cup sour cream salt and paprika. Cut meat in cubes, melt 2 tablespoon of the butter, and add meat, cover and cook for about 15 minutes. Add sliced mushrooms and continue for 10 minutes. Remove to a double boiler, put remaining butter in a skillet, and when melted add the flour and stir until blended, add the sour cream and cook until the mixture becomes thick. Season, pour over meat in the double boiler and cook for about 10 minutes.

Mixed Fruit, Vegetable Is Favored Dish

Vegetables and fruits often appear in foreign menus, and beets with apples are a favorite combination in Holland. Here is a recipe for BEETS WITH APPLES 6 medium-cooked beets, sliced 4 tablespoons butter 1 chopped onion 4 tart chopped apples salt 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg

Hand Blocked Patterns On Handkerchiefs

Handkerchiefs now more than ever are suitable for gifts since they've come to be so well designed. There are hand blocked prints that are all-over designs, in paisley patterns, florals and scenes. Other handkerchiefs are lace edged, plain with lace insets or bordered by hand blocked floral designs in dainty colors.
