

Home Wedding Is Held at Silverton

Ruth Gordon Is Bride of Grant Montgomery Thursday Night

SILVERTON, April 15—At a charming wedding tonight at 7 o'clock, Miss Ruth Gordon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Winchell, became the bride of Grant Montgomery. The wedding ceremony was read by Rev. J. M. Jensen before the flower-banked fireplace at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stamey. Dafodils, spirea and forsythia were used as floral decorations with candles furnishing the light.

The bride wore a floor-length aquata tulle gown and carried a nosegay of mixed flowers. She was attended by Miss Eleanor Moen, gowned in pink chiffon. Miss Moen also carried a nosegay. Fred Moore was best man for Mr. Montgomery.

The bridal marches were played by Miss Joan Oeder, and Mrs. Carl Stamey sang "I Love You Truly."

Reception is Held Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Winchell home. Assisting Mrs. Winchell were Misses Muriel Stamey, Maxine Oeder and Jean Oeder.

Following a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery will be at home at Silverton.

Among the out-of-town guests were Dale Montgomery, a brother of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Arista Nendell of Woodburn, Crede Lincoln and daughter, Miss Thelma Lincoln of Vernonia. Seventy-five guests attended the reception.

As a going away costume, Mrs. Montgomery wore a grey suit with blue accessories.

Prince Disowned by His Family

Because of his marriage in 1931 to a commoner, Prince Nicholas of Romania, brother of King Carol II, has been stripped by the Crown Council of all royal rights and has been declared "no longer a member of the royal family." A feud between the royal brothers has been brewing for years, springing from the morganatic marriage and culminating in political intrigues. Prince Nicholas is pictured above with his wife, formerly Miss. Jana Lucia Delet.

Consolidation Is Voted by 25 to 1

Parrish Gap Ballot Tied; to Be Merged With Jefferson

JEFFERSON, April 15—Little interest was shown in the election Monday which was held at the schoolhouse to vote on the consolidation of Parrish Gap district with the Jefferson district. Only 26 votes were cast; all but one in favor of consolidation. Voters did not know that only one hour would be allowed in which to vote, and some came to vote after the polls were closed.

In the Parrish Gap district the vote was tied.

Open house will be held Friday at 1:30 p. m. at the high school building in Albany, when all adult education classes in the district will display work done. A fine display of baskets and other articles made of reed, and knitted clothing will be on display by the classes in Jefferson.

Mr. and Mrs. Dallis Harris are the parents of a 6 pound daughter, Paula Jean, born Sunday, April 11, at the Albany general hospital. This is their second child, and she has a brother.

Wrights in California

Mr. and Mrs. John Wright and son Harold left Saturday morning for California where they expect to spend about three months visiting relatives in San Francisco and Los Angeles. Harold Wright, employed in Portland, will return to his work in a few days.

Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Emery were Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Ramsdell of Woodburn, their son Delmer of Rogue River, and Mrs. Harold Wright, employed in Portland, will return to his work in a few days.

A chicken supper was served at 6 o'clock in the banquet room of the Odd Fellows hall by members of the Rebekah lodge.

The evening session convened at 8 o'clock, and the regular lodge work of the Jefferson lodge was exemplified.

Grangers' Column

Big Class Initiated LYONS, Apr. 15—At the regular meeting of the Santiam Valley grange held here Tuesday night, 53 members were given the first and second degree obligation. Fourteen more were unable to be present. It is planned to have them ready to take the third and fourth degree with the ones initiated.

A special meeting will be arranged in order to have the whole class of 67 finish the work at the next regular meeting in this month.

The Union Hill grange degree team put on the floor work with 53 Union Hill members present. Three Stayton members and three visitors and 39 local members attended. The class initiated here ranks next to the highest ever initiated into the grange in the state.

LIBERTY, April 15—Arden Reed of the Oregon State department of agriculture was guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Red Hills grange Tuesday night, telling of the functions of the various branches of that department.

Ralph Morgan and his class of Future Farmers of the Salem

Musical Show Is Given at Stayton

STAYTON, April 15—Members of the Home Economics classes and the Girls' Glee club of the high school presented a musical show Thursday afternoon as a feature of the Women's Community club program. The show, under the direction of Miss Mary McMahon and Miss Clare Stewart included the following numbers:

"Here Comes the Sun," Velma Yeoman, Loretta Ditter, Ruby Hughes, Helen Hughes; "Is It True What They Say About Dixie," Home Economics I class; "On the Beach at Ball Ball," Mary Lucas, Barbara Waters, Velma Yeoman with tap dance by Leona Burmester; "Empty Saddles," Betty Goode; "Gypsy Tea Room," Marian Follis, Edna Hendricks, Alice Neymeyer, Lucille Thomas, Barbara Waters; "School Days," Shirley Freese, Betty Goode, Ruth Butts, Marian Follis; "Beautiful Lady in Blue," Velma Yeoman, Verla Carter, Louene Sandner, Helen Hughes; "The Way You Look Tonight," Velma Yeoman, Shirley Freese; "Goodnight, My Love," (evening wraps).

Baby dresses were displayed by the sophomore girls who made them. Members of the Glee club: Ruby Hughes, Helen Hughes, Loretta Ditter, Virginia Shelton, Georgia Malsel, Zelpha Carter, Velma Yeoman, Irene Poole, Margaret Lucas, Louene Sandner, Rosella Bell, Elinor Shinkle, Roberta Rabens, Maxine Minten, Rita Lindeman, Leona Burmester, Maxine Logan, Dorothy Tate, Betty Goode, Verla Carter, Frances Rider, Paddy M o c h e n, Myrtle Shoemaker, Marian Follis, Alma Slegmund, Helen Porter, Lorraine Albus, Gertrude Murphy, Evelyn Keyes, Josephine Thorp, Laura Tate, Esther Nightengale.

Motor Trips to Coast Popular Weekend Events For Residents of Suver

SUVER, April 15—Mrs. Blanche Rust, who has been elected to teach the primary room at Buena Vista next year, visited her cousin, Mrs. Steve Benedict, Saturday afternoon.

Motor trips to the coast are proving popular. Every weekend finds a group of local residents there. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Haight and children, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Allen and son, Mr. and Mrs. O. Allen and June formed a party, spending Sunday there.

Odd Fellows Give Veterans' Jewels

JEFFERSON, April 15—The I. O. O. F. district convention of Marion and Linn counties, which was held in Jefferson was well attended. About 150 delegates and grand officers were present. Among grand officers present were Grand Master Roy N. Gibbs of Portland and the grand warden of Portland.

During the afternoon session three of the oldest members of Santiam lodge were presented with veterans' jewels by Gibbs. Harry Roland received the 50-year jewel; John Slegmund a 40-year jewel; and John Christopher a 30-year jewel.

Girl Scouts Are Presented Awards

LIBERTY, April 15—At Investiture ceremonies held for the Owl troop of girl scouts of this district at a tea given by the Liberty Woman's club, Mrs. Helen Gibbs, troop captain, presented awards to Margaret Browning, Patsy Dauch, Muriel Baker, Rowena Westenhof, Jane Lansing, Lucille Behrens, Gladys Behrens, Margaret Crowley, Jacqueline Judd. Mary Sargeant was unable to attend.

Mrs. I. G. Behrens, troop director and the Scouts assisted her in serving. Mrs. Geneva Selander of Salem, a troop lieutenant, assisted for the affair. Attendance was good.

Sewing Circle at Sublimity Meets

SUBLIMITY, April 15.—The Mes Christine and Rose Scherbring, sisters of Mrs. Frank Wolf, have returned to their home at Petersburg, Iowa after having visited here the past two months.

Joseph Wolf and family moved Wednesday to Mill City where Mr. Wolf is employed at the Frank Etzel Lumber company as truck driver.

The Sewing Circle of section two of St. Ann's Altar society met at the home of Mrs. Frank Rauscher for sewing. Those present were: Mrs. John Halfman, Mrs. Geo. Lambrecht, Mrs. Guy Butler, Mrs. William Schmid, Mrs. John Albus, Mrs. August Albus, Mrs. Alois Wolf, Mrs. Lee Highbarger, Mrs. Mary Fisher, Mrs. Mary Hendricks, Mrs. Henry Rauscher and the hostess, Mrs. Rauscher.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Rauscher and daughter Pauline and Mrs. Carrie Rauscher of Goldendale, Wash., visited at the Frank and Henry Rauscher homes the past week.

Heads Air Force

Combat units of the U. S. Army Air Force are scheduled to test their organization and strength in California in May. Major General F. M. Andrews, pictured above, is to command the operations.

Advertisement for Schreder-Berg Grocery featuring a cartoon titled 'RHYMES of REASON' with three panels. The first panel shows a man saying 'BECAUSE THE QUALITY IS BETTER'. The second panel shows a man saying 'BECAUSE I AM A VALUE GETTER'. The third panel shows a man saying 'I FIND MY DEAR, RIGHT TO THE LETTER'. To the right is a box for 'IT PAYS TO DEAL AT SCHREDER-BERG GROCERY'.

Advertisement for Schreder-Berg Grocery listing various products and prices. Items include Salad Dressing (29c), Bonneville Flour (1.59), Folger's Coffee (27c), Pineapple Bars (15c), Asparagus (19c), Graham Crackers (29c), Golden Bantam Corn (2 for 25c), Fancy Tuna Fish (2 cans 29c), Crisco (57c), Sorghum Molasses (63c), Horseradish Mustard (9c), Garlic Sauce (17c), Black Pepper (15c), Kipper Salmon (7 1/2c), Instant Postum (39c), Amour's Milk (3 cans 23c), Sugar (7 lb. 42c), Wag Dog Food (5c), Pantry Wax (23c), Ivory Flakes (23c), Oxydol (59c), Gingham Tissue (3 rolls 10c).

Large advertisement for Rexall Drug Store. It features a 'SAVE with SAFETY' banner and 'CUT PRICES at your Rexall DRUG STORE'. A section titled 'Letter Writing made easy!' shows a hand writing on a letter. Below is a list of dental needs, hair aids, and remedies. At the bottom, it advertises 'Rex-Rub Athlete's Rub 75c 6 ozs.' and 'Perry's Drug Store THE Rexall DRUG STORE' at 115 S. COMMERCIAL ST.

Advertisement for 'TODAYS SPECIAL' featuring a large illustration of a grocery basket filled with various food items. The text says 'Save on Your Foods', 'READ the ADS In This Paper!', and 'Let The Statesman Be Your Guide for Better Values'. It also includes the phone number 6606 and the address 'CORNER STATE & COMMERCIAL'.