

Pioneer W.C.T.U. At Polk Institute

PIONEER, April 15—Members of the W. C. T. U. from this community attended the Polk county institute held at Monmouth Monday. Mrs. M. A. Conlee, county president, was in charge. Mrs. Yarnell of Monmouth had charge of the morning devotions. Mrs. Ruth Tooze, state vice-president, told of the work which is being done as a result of the educational fund which is being raised. The radio work has been quite helpful. Every Sunday from 1:30 to 1:45 the National broadcast, "Americans to the Rescue," comes over KEX, Portland. Every Friday at 1 p. m. the state broadcast is heard over KWJJ. At noon covers were placed in the dining room of the Christian church for 50 guests. Talks were enjoyed around the table with Mrs. Artie Mack, Monmouth president, presiding. Those having a part in the program were County School Superintendent Josiah Willis of Dallas; Mrs. Tooze, who gave a short talk on the slogan, "Buy Dry, and Tell 'Em Why"; Rev. Elkins and Rev. Dunn. Mrs. Tooze gave the inspirational address of the afternoon. Mrs. Joy Robbins gave a report of the alcohol education school conducted in Priland last month. The group voted money to put a few books on alcohol education in each of the three unions to be used in the libraries or other helpful ways.
