Ad Club Gleemen Are Coming Soon

Set for Thursday, April 29, at the Salem armory is the concert of the Portland Ad Club Gleemen, a men's chorus of some 40 voices, famed all along the coast for their marvelous singing. Directed by William Robinson of Boone, the chorus has sung at Ad club conventions from British Columbia to Mexico. This year it will sing at Salt Lake City in July.

Besides excellent choruses work the Gleemen are praised for the solo work which individuals do. One of the new numbers will be William Mullen's arrangement of Kautcher's "When Day is Done." Mullen is a soloist with the Gleemen. The arrangement is dedicated to the organization.

Stirring choruses, rich solos, in a program varied in character will be offered at the concert here. It will be a new program, differing from the one the Gleemen presented last winter in Salem.

Surveying Crews Behind Schedule

County Surveyor Hugh Fisher's men were able to return to field work yesterday for the first time in a week as the weather cleared. He reported. The weather delay pushed his office further back under a pile of surveying orders which have been increasing steadily in number.

"We are a month, maybe two months, behind now," Fisher said. Asked if he planned to increase his staff in an effort to catch up on delayed surveying work, Fisher said he did not because he disliked putting on new men who do not understand the type of work required of his office.

Spring 4-H Show Starts Thursday

Record Number of Exhibits Promised; 10 Groups For Competition

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday will be bustling days for some 1800 boys and girls in Marion county, 4-H club members who will be preparing a record number of exhibits for the annual spring show to be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday in the club display building at the state fairgrounds.

"There is every indication that we will have more exhibits than ever before," Wayne D. Harding, county club leader, said last night. "I believe there will be close to 1000."

The show catalog calls for 10 kinds of exhibits: Cookery, clothing, homemaking, health, room improvement, health posters, handicraft, forestry, knitting and art. In addition there will be contests in health, serving of dollar dinners, home economics judging, demonstrations of club work and the county style revue.

To Select Entries
The county's representatives for state fair competition next fall will be selected from among the best 10 in each project exhibited at this week's show.

All exhibits must be entered by 10 p. m. Wednesday, Harding said. All judging of exhibits will be done Thursday, with the public not invited to inspect them until Friday. The arrangement of examinations to select the healthiest boy and girl in the county will be in progress at the health department.

Friday the exhibit building will be thrown open to the public and 16 club demonstrations will be presented. Seven demonstrations will be given Saturday morning and that afternoon the headline events of the show, the home economics judging contest, style revue and announcement of the Fair Marion county Public Health association scholarship winners.

Two Deals Made In Real Estate

Cost Fitting to Circumstances
WITHIN ONE'S MEANS

Circumstances should, and cap, govern the funeral expense. Our effort is to hold the ceremony's costs within the family means to the end that the occasion will meet every requirement of devotion without entailing a consequence of financial burden. Our conception of service is to be genuinely helpful.
