

Lebanon Band Takes Honor

Little Theatre to Present Three Short Plays On Wednesday

LEBANON, April 19.—The Lebanon high school band in competition with 11 bands in the state-wide contest at Eugene Saturday carried off first honors.

The Little Theatre under direction of Mrs. J. C. Kestner will present three plays, "Trifles," "Modesty" and "The First White Woman" at the high school auditorium Wednesday night.

Dr. O. C. Wright, member of the Baptist Home Mission board and Rev. T. H. Hagen, D. D., state director of the B. Y. P. U. of the northern convention, both of Portland met Friday night with the Lacombe congregation of the Baptist church and gave instructive lectures on work among the Indians and on the progress of young peoples' organizations.

Miss Ila Burrell of the telephone force has been seriously ill the past week with contact with poison oak while gathering wild flowers. Her hands, face, mouth and eyes were painfully injured and she still has to keep her bed.

Mrs. Maude Kirkpatrick and her cousin Mrs. Fred Fortmiller of Albany have returned from a week's visit with their cousins, Mrs. P. A. O'Hair and Mrs. Herb Shannon of Bremerton, Wash.

Mrs. C. E. DePew has received a telegram telling of the death of her niece, Carol Bearden, 20, of Charlton, Iowa. Her sister, Wilma Bearden, spent the winter here.

Lee Scott was in Portland Thursday to buy equipment for his new plumbing shop on Sherman street.

Snow Deep at Mine Bruce McDonald, with a friend went Thursday on an outing to Quartzville mine and viewed no scenery but snow which at the mine was four feet deep covering all machinery and mine equipment.

Lebanon commercial club and other Lebanon people put on the program at the Lacombe community Friday night.

Building New Home Spencer Griffith, builder and contractor of Albany, is building a modern 7-room home on North Second street for Jack Elliott, bookkeeper for the Fir Lumber company. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott expect to occupy their new home about the latter part of July.

George Harden is building a 7-room house on Second street for Ray Downing who will use it as rental property.

Postmaster and Mrs. W. J. Bird of Lacombe have as house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bird of Paneyville, Mo., who plan to locate here. Other guests at the Bird home were Mrs. Laura Wilson, sister of Mr. Bird, of Salem, with her son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stephens.

Yoran in Hospital George Yoran, 74, Spanish war veteran and prominent citizen of Lebanon, was admitted to the Lebanon general hospital Saturday, suffering from partial paralysis resulting from a stroke suffered Friday.

Mrs. C. C. Elliott of Triangle Lake is the hostess of her son, Jack and other Lebanon relatives and friends.

Exhibits of 244 Boys and Girls at Mt. Angel School Are Viewed When Annual 4-H Achievement Day Is Held

MT. ANGEL, April 19.—Achievement day, held at St. Mary's school Friday, proved that 4-H club work is being regarded with more and more interest here. Some of the exhibits of the boys and girls showed outstanding work. Exhibits of 244 club members were on display.

The style show which was part of the program went over big with the audience which filled the school auditorium. This was the first time the clubs had attempted a number of this type. All clothes shown in the style show were made by the girls who modeled them. Those taking part were: Florence Hassler, Bertha Hassler, Clelia Turin, Adeline Bochsler, Agnes Sailer, Mildred Predeek, Elaine Bourbonnais, Beatrice Hassler, Veronica Duda, Agnes Penka, Lorraine Meadip, Dorothy Weis, Lillian Diehl, Lorraine Koppes, Dolores Bigler, Rena Schaefer.

Program Given Too The complete program consisted of: Pledge to 4-H; 11th club; Oregon My Oregon; song; Results and Roses; recitation; Safety; play; sewing demonstration; Who is King; playlet; Pleading song; It's Achievement That Counts; recitation; Mary Had a Little Lamb; Billy Boy; style revue; club songs; judging contest; Simon and Pie Man; health play.

Prize Winners Told Prize winners in the different clubs are as follows: Forestry—first, Kenneth Stenger; second, Bob Diehl; third, Pat Ebner; clothing I—first, Evelyn Gilles; second, Myra Jane Kaiser; third, Jean Gillette; clothing II—first, Lorraine Koppes; second, Veronica Duda; third, Dorothy Weis; clothing III—first, Elaine Bourbonnais; second, Agnes Sailer; third, Beatrice Hassler; homemaking—first, Mary Jeanne Bauman; second, Adeline Bochsler; third, Georgiana Hauth; cooking I—first, Monica Skonetzni; second, Josephine Sprauer; third, Carmetta Andras.

Cooking II—First, Beatrice Hassler; second, Mary Jeanne Bauman; third, Loretta Sprauer.

Awards on Health Posters In the six health clubs prizes for the health posters were awarded to:

Third grade, first, Arlene Michels; second, Bernard Blom; third, Anella Bauman. Fourth grade, first, Joseph Bochsler; second, Richard Unger; third, Albert Schnider. Fifth grade, first, Ralph Wolf; second, Billy Unger; third, Theresa Johnson. Sixth grade, first, Arthur Michels; second, Marie Predeek; third, Rita Wellman. Seventh grade, first, Catherine Gores; second, Dolores Ebner; third, Carmetta Andras. Eighth grade, first, Dorothy Meissner; second, Beatrice Hassler; third, Mildred Predeek.

The following boys and girls were judged the healthiest in their respective clubs: Third grade, Virgil Diehl and Dorothy Schnider. Fourth grade, Clarence Savvatis and Maureen Wellman. Fifth grade, Edward Schiedler and Ellen Shepherd. Sixth grade, Warren Erwert and Rosemarie Hammer. Seventh grade, William Erwert and Katherine Gores. Eighth grade, Robert Diehl and Adeline Bochsler.

Members of the health club members will compete in the county health scholarship contest.

Scholarships Out Later The two local scholarships, donated by the American Legion post of Mt. Angel and the auxiliary unit, will not be awarded until after the 4-H county fair to be held at Salem, April 22, 23, and 24.

All the members of the cooking, clothing, and homemaking clubs took part in a judging contest but the highest scorer had not been announced yet.

Judges for the exhibits were: Forestry, Edward Geiger; clothing and homemaking, Miss Margaret Paul and Miss Margie Dehler; cooking, Miss Grace Smith and Miss Helen Keber; health posters, Miss Barbara Paul.

LEBANON, April 19.—James Sylvester, 76, last member of a family of 11, died April 17 at his home near Lacombe, following a long illness which culminated in paralysis.

He was born at Lacombe December 31, 1866, and lived all his life in the community where he was born. In 1889 he was united in marriage with Mary Bostwick, also of pioneer parentage. He spent his life in farming and accumulated a large acreage.

He is survived by his widow, Mary Sylvester of Lacombe; four sons, Riley at home, Roy and Joe at Lacombe, Henry at Mill City; three daughters, Mrs. Elva Gray of Lacombe, Mrs. Leola Corine of Wendling, Mrs. Clarice Dibble of Portland; also 22 grandchildren. Funeral arrangements, in charge of the Harry C. Howe funeral home, are incomplete.

ROSEBURG FOLKS VISIT AT BIELENBERG'S HOME; Good Times Club Meets

SCOTT'S MILLS, April 19.—Mr. and Mrs. Ed Girsham of Roseburg are visiting at the Matt Bielenberg home while enroute to Idaho where they will visit her mother. Girsham is connected with the veterans' hospital at Roseburg.

The Good Times club enjoyed a card party Sunday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Helvey. High score went to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kinser. The club will meet May 9 at the John Pias home.

An all day picnic the last day of school, May 25, will cope the club season.

UNIONVALE, April 19.—The last community club meeting of the season was held at the Unionvale school house Friday night with good attendance. Plans were voted for a full day picnic May 21, when a baseball game and other sports will be features. The program was as follows:

Numbers by the school rhythm band; recitation, Lois Hibbe; music, accordion, trumpet and piano by Mrs. Bernice Helms and children of Webfoot; reading, Mrs. Clark Noble; vocal solo, Dolores Dixon; piano duet, Delores and Leona Stoutenburg; vocal solo, Arnold Braat; violin solo, Mrs. Ivan Gubser.

A most interesting travelogue was given by Prof. John Paul Doughty of his vacation trip last summer to Pontiac, Mich., New York, Washington, D.C., and Niagara Falls.

Odd Fellows Give 10 25-Year Jewels

Deputy Grand Master Makes Presentation for Silverton Unit

SILVERTON, April 19.—Silver Lodge I.O.O.F. presented 10 veteran jewels to members of the lodge who have been members of the order for 25 years or more at the meeting Saturday night. The presentation address was made by Judge H. K. Zimmerman, deputy grand master of the grand lodge of Oregon.

Another event was the presentation of prizes for the winners of the recent card series. The prizes were presented as follows: Axel Olson, first prize; S. Tegland, second prize; S. A. Gay and Frank Thomas had a tie score for third.

Those receiving jewels were R. C. Fitzgerald, J. W. Merrifield, B. C. Bennett, Charles Amos, F. M. Evenson, Floyd Allen, W. S. Jack, and E. E. Taylor, all of Silverton, and J. Kloppstein of the Portland police force and G. E. Anderson, building contractor, also of Portland.

Other visitors from out of town were H. L. Shaner of Kernville and A. N. Bones of Ocean Lake, member of Ocean Lodge 258 which was recently instituted.

Zimmerman Spoke Deputy Grand Master Zimmerman spoke, telling of the Odd Fellows home in Portland and the annual visitation slated there May 2 of the Grand Lodge officers, at which time all Odd Fellows of the state are invited to be present.

After the meeting refreshments were served.

James Sylvester Called at Lacombe

LEBANON, April 19.—James Sylvester, 76, last member of a family of 11, died April 17 at his home near Lacombe, following a long illness which culminated in paralysis.

He was born at Lacombe December 31, 1866, and lived all his life in the community where he was born. In 1889 he was united in marriage with Mary Bostwick, also of pioneer parentage. He spent his life in farming and accumulated a large acreage.

He is survived by his widow, Mary Sylvester of Lacombe; four sons, Riley at home, Roy and Joe at Lacombe, Henry at Mill City; three daughters, Mrs. Elva Gray of Lacombe, Mrs. Leola Corine of Wendling, Mrs. Clarice Dibble of Portland; also 22 grandchildren. Funeral arrangements, in charge of the Harry C. Howe funeral home, are incomplete.

ROSEBURG FOLKS VISIT AT BIELENBERG'S HOME; Good Times Club Meets

SCOTT'S MILLS, April 19.—Mr. and Mrs. Ed Girsham of Roseburg are visiting at the Matt Bielenberg home while enroute to Idaho where they will visit her mother. Girsham is connected with the veterans' hospital at Roseburg.

The Good Times club enjoyed a card party Sunday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Helvey. High score went to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kinser. The club will meet May 9 at the John Pias home.

UNIONVALE, April 19.—The last community club meeting of the season was held at the Unionvale school house Friday night with good attendance. Plans were voted for a full day picnic May 21, when a baseball game and other sports will be features. The program was as follows:

Numbers by the school rhythm band; recitation, Lois Hibbe; music, accordion, trumpet and piano by Mrs. Bernice Helms and children of Webfoot; reading, Mrs. Clark Noble; vocal solo, Dolores Dixon; piano duet, Delores and Leona Stoutenburg; vocal solo, Arnold Braat; violin solo, Mrs. Ivan Gubser.

A most interesting travelogue was given by Prof. John Paul Doughty of his vacation trip last summer to Pontiac, Mich., New York, Washington, D.C., and Niagara Falls.

Past Matrons Club to Gather on Wednesday; Church Meeting Today

WOODBURN, April 19.—The Past Matrons club of Evergreen chapter, O.E.S., will hold its regular meeting in Masonic temple, Wednesday night, April 21. Hostesses will be Mrs. P. G. Vickers and Mrs. Ivan C. Beers.

The Federated Women of the Methodist Episcopal church will meet at the home of Mrs. Paul A. Pemberton Tuesday. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. J. Sidney Johnson, Mrs. Walter Miller and Mrs. Herman Stone. The program is in charge of the Home Missionary society and special music is being arranged.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

Frank Peabody Buried Thursday at Hopewell

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two sons and one daughter. Burial was in the Hopewell cemetery.

SILVERTON, April 19.—Mrs. Georgia Cochran of Phoenix, Arizona, has arrived at Silverton to make an extended visit with her son, Coach Wallace Cochran and family.

HOPEWELL, April 19.—Funeral services were held at the Hopewell Seventh Day Adventist church for Frank Peabody, a resident of this community since 1914. He died Monday after a brief illness. He was born in New York September 19, 1857. Surviving are his widow, two