Jury Holds With Industrial Body

DALLAS, April 20—The case of Alta Mae Loop of route one, Amity, against the state industrial accident commission, was heard yesterday in the circuit court. The jury returned a verdict in favor of the state accident commission. L. H. McBee was foreman of the jury.

Miss Loop alleged that she received serious back and internal injuries when she fell while helping the son of her employe, S. H. Barker, lift a bicycle from the porch of his home. Miss Loop was asking for four months' temporary total disability and the state industrial accident commission had twice rejected her complaint before it was taken into the circuit court.

Heavy Rain Shuts Down Cooper Mill

AIRLIE, April 20.—Because of the exceedingly heavy rain the Cooper Bros. had to shut down for a few days as it was impossible to get the logs in. Several of the roads leading to Dallas and Independence were closed. All are passable again, though the Luckimute between Lewisville and Airlie is still running bank full.

Mrs. Earl Brown, with the twins, Marlene and Marlin, recently visited her sister, Mrs. Harry Worthylake and family, near Aurora.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Sams and family are moving to the Thomlinson farm about three miles east of Airlie. The Thomlinson family has moved to Jefferson.

Tony's Place at Dallas Is Robbed

DALLAS, April 20—A robbery took place sometime last night in Tony's place, 611 Court street. The place is now run by Joe Violette. Entrance was gained through the back doors. Two dollars in cash were taken from the cash register and packages of cigarettes, cigars, and chewing gum were also taken.

The robbery was discovered this morning when Violette opened his place of business. The robbers have not yet been apprehended, but Deputy Sheriff Williams and City Marshal Petre are working on the case.

Merle Brown was arrested by City Marshal Petre Saturday night for taking automobile accessories. Brown appeared before the justice court yesterday and was fined $7.50 and given 30 days in jail. The jail sentence was suspended and Brown was put on one year's probation.

Two other boys were also apprehended in connection with the thefts and are scheduled to appear in the juvenile court soon.

Civil War Veteran Answers Summons

Zachariah T. Bryant, 90, Was Department Head of G. A. R.

LEBANON, April 20.—Zachariah T. Bryant, 90, a resident of Oregon for 60 years, department commander of the G. A. R., passed away at the Lebanon general hospital Monday following several months' illness. He was born in Indiana, December 25, 1846; he was orphaned at an early age and made his home with an uncle.

June 12, 1862, he enlisted in the 54th Indiana volunteer infantry; at the close of his term of service he re-enlisted in the third Indiana volunteer cavalry in August, 1863, serving until the close of the war; he was imprisoned at Salisbury, N. C., later sent to Danville, Va. and thence to Libby prison where he was the last prisoner paroled when the prison was thrown open March 20, 1865.

In 1876 he came to Oregon where he has since made his home. On December 25, 1880, he was united in marriage to Mary M. Ambler who died in 1904.

Active in G. A. R.

He was a charter member of John F. Miller G. A. R. post of Lebanon and served as commander and in other offices; when, a few years ago, the post was disbanded Mr. Bryant transferred his membership to Sumner post of Portland. He always attended the state conventions and was present at the national convention in all parts of the U. S. A. At the last department convention Mr. Bryant was elected senior-vice department commander; and on the death of J. C. Thomson, commander, became department commander by virtue of his office as senior vice.

He was a member of the Methodist church.

Surviving are a son Hugh Bryant of Caribou, B. C., a daughter, Miss Sylvia Bryant of Honolulu; a granddaughter in California and a great grandson. A daughter, Mrs. Edna Durfee, died many years ago.

Funeral in charge of the Harry C. Howe funeral home, awaits the arrival of his son; but probably will be held Saturday.

Operetta "Tom Sawyer," Presented By Younger Students, Is Success

DALLAS, April 20.—One of the largest crowds that has attended a school program in recent years was present Friday night at the senior high school auditorium to witness the students of the elementary building present the operetta, "Tom Sawyer," dramatized by Theodosia Paynter and arranged by G. A. Grant-Schaefer.

The parts of Tom Sawyer, taken by Richard Osuna, and Huck Finn by Harry Fisk were especially good. The settings for the operetta were effective and the musical numbers by the large chorus were well given.
