Alpha Phi Alpha Mothers Meet At Anunson's

MRS. FRED ANUNSON was hostess to a large group of Alpha Phi Alpha mothers yesterday afternoon in her home on Leslie street. Miss Ruth Anunson assisted her mother during the afternoon.

At the business meeting, the club made plans for a bridge benefit to be sponsored in May, and for an apron sale to be held at the same time.

During the afternoon Mrs. George Roseman reviewed the book "Rose Deeprose" and Miss Maybelle Liburn, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Frank Liburn, sang several solos.

Two out of town mothers were in attendance, Mrs. M. E. Johnson and Mrs. Percy Engdahl of Great Falls, Montana. Both are visiting their daughters in Lausanne Hall. Members of the Alpha Phi Alpha mothers club present were:

- MESDAMES
Fred H. Thompson
T. C. Mason
John Foley
Fred Anunson
Ralph Kitzing
Edward Brown
George Peare
Arthur Selander
A. A. Taylor
J. W. Hansell

Several negro spirituals will be sung by a male quartet. Mrs. Fred Remington will give special music and Mrs. W. A. Barkus will give a dramatic interpretation of the new study book, "Preface to Racial Understanding."

A short program will precede the 8 o'clock business meeting of the Macabees tonight. Miss Beulah Graham will give several readings and Richard Taw, accompanied by Mrs. William Taw, will sing vocal numbers.

War Mothers Invited To Afternoon Tea

All war mothers, whether members of the organization or not, are invited to attend the tea given in their honor by members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary, Marion Post No. 561 on Friday afternoon. Transportation will be provided for those who call Mrs. Orpha Ezus at 3891.

White Shrine Has Installation of New Officers

Monday night at Masonic temple on Monday night to attend colorful installation ceremonies. The rooms were decorated with a bower of flowers in pastel shades, and many-hued gowns of both new and the retiring officers made an impressive sight.

Mrs. Miller Hayden was installed as worthy high priestess and William Neimeyer took office of watchman of shepherds. Mrs. Grace N. Babcock, past worthy high priestess, and Samuel E. Gillette, past watchman of shepherds, were installing officers.

During the ceremonies, several musical numbers were given by the men's quartet including Max Alford, Lyman McDonald, Leon Barrick and Howard Leach. They were accompanied by Mrs. McDonald. Miss Merle Stewart, accompanied by Mrs. Belle Nilas Brown, sang a vocal number.

Poster Winners Are Announced

Winners for the American Legion auxiliary's poster contest were announced on Monday night, at the auxiliary meeting by three judges, Miss Constance Fowler, Mrs. S. B. Laughlin and Miss Alexandria.

Bob Bushnell won first place in the high school division, and Pauline Heinke honorable mention; at Parrish, Herbert Hoffman received first prize and Ella Stalling honorable mention; and in the grade school division Bill Smith of Bush was first and Oscar Minneman received honorable mention. The posters are on display in the Tallman piano store.
