Mrs. Ralph Cooley Honor Guest at Luncheons

MRS. Ralph H. Cooley is the honor guest at a number of affairs prior to her departure Thursday with Mr. Cooley and Miss Margaret Cooley for an extended trip in the east. They will stop at Chicago and visit with their son, Richard, and from there will go to the eastern coast and points in Canada. The return trip home will be made by the southern route.

Mrs. James H. Nicholson has invited a group of matrons to her home on North Summer street today for luncheon for the pleasure of Mrs. Cooley. An afternoon of cards will follow the luncheon. Intimate friends of the honor guest have been bidden to the affair.

Yesterday Mrs. Ervin F. Smith presided at luncheon at Godfrey's in honor of Mrs. Cooley. Bridge was in play during the afternoon at the Smith home on North Summer street.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Cooley, Mrs. James H. Nicholson, Mrs. George Arbuckle, Mrs. Homer H. Smith, Sr., Mrs. Margaret LeFurgy, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Mrs. Robert Shinn, Mrs. E. J. Scollars, Mrs. C. B. McCullough, Mrs. Frank G. Myers, Mrs. Jack Currie, Mrs. Tom Galloway and Mrs. Ervin Smith.

Medical Auxiliary to Meet Today

Officers of the local Medical auxiliary will lunch at 1:30 today at the Golden Pheasant with Mrs. E. D. Lamb, president of the State Medical auxiliary. Mrs. Lamb is in Salem in the interest of the state meeting of the auxiliary which was scheduled in Salem next fall.

At 8:30 tonight, the Tri-county Medical auxiliary will have its regular no-host dinner meeting at the home of Dr. Hugh Dowd on Tillman avenue.

Bridge Luncheon Today at McMechan Home

Mrs. E. V. McMechan will honor members of her contract club at luncheon today at her home on East Lincoln street. Tables for bridge will be in play during the afternoon.

Guests bidden are Mrs. H. G. Mason, Mrs. Ronald Jones, Mrs. Karl Becke, Mrs. F. W. Poorman, Mrs. William Mott, Mrs. John J. Elliott, Mrs. Walter Kirk and Mrs. Edgar T. Pierce.

Under the direction of Cameron Marshall, the Williamette university Songmen sang several numbers at the Centenary-Wilbur Methodist church in Portland on Sunday night.

Members of Silver Bell circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft, are to meet at the Rigdon chapel today at 4:30 to participate in the funeral services of Mrs. Rosa Brown.

In the Valley Social Realm

MT. ANGELS—One of the loveliest weddings of the season was held at St. Mary's church Saturday morning at 8 o'clock when Miss Charlotte Kruse, daughter of Mrs. Katherine Kruse, became the bride of Joseph Ficker, son of Mrs. Mary Ficker.

Tall sprays of white dogwood and lilac were arranged at either side of the approach to the sanctuary and large baskets of the flowers were arranged within the sanctuary where the pretieux of the bride and groom were placed.

The ceremony was performed and the nuptial mass read by Rev. Father Alcun. Rev. Father Placidus played the wedding march and accompanied St. Mary's choir. At the offertory Miss Agnes Walker sang the Ave Maria.

The bride approached the altar on the arm of her brother, George Kruse who gave her in marriage. Her gown was a model of white satin with long train. Satin roses outlined the neckline and a row of small satin-covered buttons were arranged down the back from neck to waist.

Her three-quarter length veil was lace edged and arranged in cap effect with a coronet of tiny seed pearls and held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of pink Tallman roses, white sweet peas and lilacs of the valley.

Miss Laura Mae Kruse was her sister's bridesmaid. She wore a floor-length dress of aqua blue tulle with fitted waist and puff sleeves. She wore peach flowers in her hair and carried a colonial bouquet of similar flowers.

Tiny Charlotte Van Dyke, niece of the bride, acted as flower girl. Leonard Ficker, brother of the groom, was best man.

After the ceremony the bridal party went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schwab for breakfast. Mrs. Bill Prosser and Miss Irene Zollner assisted in serving.

At noon a wedding dinner was served at the Mt. Angel hotel with covers placed for 30 guests. A wedding cake, flanked by white tapers served as centerpiece. Assisting in serving were Miss Helen Plonnetta and Miss Irene Zollner. During the dinner Miss Agnes Walker sang.

After the reception, held at the home of the bride's mother from 2 to 4 p.m., the couple left for a trip to southern Oregon and California. For traveling the bride wore a tailored suit of pink sharkskin with shrimp-colored topper coat and white accessories.

With Salem Folk at O.S.C.

BY JEAN McELHINNEY Every Alma Mater Welcomes Every Mother. This ran the motto for Oregon State's 14th annual Women's week-end. And truly they were welcomed by students and professors alike.

After registration Saturday morning the first big event of the week-end was the Convention which is held every year for the awarding of honors, announcing of pledging to honor societies and the installation of new Y. W. C. A. officers for the coming year. Among those receiving honors was Dorothy Butte who was given the Omicron Nu freshman award. Janice Higgins was one of the three presented the insignia of the Orange O, letter club for women. Shirley Cronemiller and Dorothy Butte had the narcissus pinned upon them as a symbol of their pledging to Alpha Lambda Delta, national scholastic honor society for freshman women. Jean McElhinney received a Tallman award as recognition of her pledging to Futerpe, honor society for women in music.

The annual Oregon State mother-daughter banquet held in the Memorial Union ballroom was an outstanding event of the week-end. "A symphony of women" was the general theme of the banquet. Ann Van Scoy helped to make this affair a success by her work on the ticket committee. Among the many Salem mothers attending with their daughters were Mrs. W. R. Dallas with Catherine, Mrs. Roy H. Dobell with Alice, Mrs. O. P. Driggs with Mary Lols, Mrs. H. A. Rowe with Kathryn, Mrs. M. J. Johnson with Margaret and Mrs. Lora B. Eaton with Cathryn.

Following the mother-daughter banquet honors were divided between the dance recital presented by students in creative dance under the direction of Betty Lund Thompson and the play, "Ladies of the Jury," presented by the Mask and Dagger club. In the dance recital Ruth Shepard and Bonnie Ballock participated in the dance, "Loyalty," presented by the intermediate classes. In the crowd were seen Mrs. Roy H. Dobell and Alice, Mrs. G. S. Higgins and Janice, and Mrs. R. M. Reddy and Blanche.

In "Ladies of the Jury" Bud Mercer, as Tony Theodophilus, furnished part of the romance in the courtroom. Kathryn Rowe impersonated Evelyn Snow, the attractive housemaid who was the star witness of the trial. We saw Mrs. Maurice Mercer, Mrs. H. A. Rowe, Mrs. W. A. Langille with Jean, Mrs. Paul Clifford with Enid, Mrs. Foster Cronemiller with Shirley and Mrs. William Speck with Norman.

The final triumph was the presentation of the Oregon State band under the direction of Captain H. L. Beard. We saw Oliver Glenn and Jimmy Cole doing their part in Captain Beard's famous arrangement of the Star Spangled Banner.

Graduating seniors in military were honored with a banquet Wednesday evening in the Memorial Union. After the banquet Scabard and Blade, honor society in military science, held section in charge of local news, Miss Sally Holtzman national, and Miss Bernice Nelson international.

Rev. and Mrs. Irving A. Fox will be the honor guests at a reception Wednesday night given by members of the First Baptist church. Rev. Fox has recently come to Salem from Illinois to assume the pastorate of the First Baptist church. The affair will be given at eight o'clock with Salem ministers, members of the church and friends invited. A program has been arranged and refreshments will be served.

Mrs. F. C. Talkington and Miss Cora Talkington, have as their houseguest Albert Talkington, of Grangeville, Idaho.

Style - Smiles - - - by Gretchen

"He's quite a literary lion—his latest book weighs over four and a half pounds!"

Material in quantity has been the literary mode—and the evening mode, too, at least in one much favored category of dancing frocks. That is, large amounts of fabric go into the skirt, bodices are either pretty brief or, like the one on the right, incongruously tailored of lace, shirtwaist style. White lace on black net. Left, lacing on the printed taffeta suggests gypsy fashions. And both ten inches from the floor!

Mrs. Hauser Is Hostess to Mothers

MRS. DAVID PUGH was chosen president of the Delta Phi Mothers club at a meeting yesterday at the home of Mrs. Paul H. Hauser Mrs. Don Upjohn was chosen vice president and Mrs. James McGilchrist will serve her third consecutive year as secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. L. L. Laws and Mrs. H. S. Boshard assisted Mrs. Hauser as hostesses. Plans were made for the annual picnic to be held at the Delta Phi house and announcement was made of a tea to be given to which the Salem group is invited.

Special guests were Mrs. Bruce Baxter and Mrs. C. P. Bishop. Members attending were: MRS. M. W. Emmons J. P. Hunt A. M. Chapman W. R. Speck C. A. Kells A. C. Perry G. J. Jones Don Upjohn Fred Alban West James McGilchrist Paul H. Hauser L. L. Laws

Eduard Hurlimann Is Director

Salem music lovers listened with special interest to the Standard Symphony broadcast last Thursday night because the performing orchestra was the Portland Symphony, conducted by Eduard Hurlimann, who has been engaged to conduct Salem's Philharmonic orchestra next year. The Thursday concert proved delightful, quite up to the high quality of the Standard broadcasts. Hurlimann, as assistant conductor, had charge in the absence of Willem van Hoogstraten, who left for the east at the end of the winter series of concerts.

Several Salem Folk Visiting Seattle

Mrs. James J. Pantan left yesterday for Seattle to attend a meeting of the Synod of the Province of the Pacific of the Episcopal church, which includes the states west of the Rocky mountains, Philippine and Hawaiian Islands. Mrs. Pantan is province president of the women's auxiliary.

Rev. and Mrs. George B. Swift will leave this morning for the Synod and will be accompanied from Portland to Seattle by Bishop Irvine P. Johnson of Colorado.

Beta Sigma Delphian is planning a meeting for Thursday night at 7:30 in the public library with Mrs. Ethel Lau as acting supervisor. Taking topics are Miss Nellie Schwab, Mrs. Ruth Potter, Mrs. Esther Hagedorn, Miss Elizabeth Stockhausen, Mrs. Blanche Allen, Miss Lillian McDonald, and Mrs. Winnie Pettyjohn. Current events will be discussed with Miss Beasie McCleod in charge of local news, Miss Sally Holtzman national, and Miss Bernice Nelson international.

Rev. and Mrs. Irving A. Fox will be the honor guests at a reception Wednesday night given by members of the First Baptist church. Rev. Fox has recently come to Salem from Illinois to assume the pastorate of the First Baptist church. The affair will be given at eight o'clock with Salem ministers, members of the church and friends invited. A program has been arranged and refreshments will be served.

Mrs. F. C. Talkington and Miss Cora Talkington, have as their houseguest Albert Talkington, of Grangeville, Idaho.

Cleansing Skin First Aid to Appearance

ONE of the major tragedies of adolescence is the development of oily skin, which although often seen in adults, usually develops during the 'teen ages.

If the victim is a girl, she may be very unhappy about a mere shine on her nose, caused by excess oil in the skin, but the condition may take on more noticeable evidences which cause real heartbreak even for boys.

There is usually conceded to be little one can do about the regulating of the output of the oil glands of the skin, but the products can be removed by use of soap and water. The prevention of an appearance of oil, and a great deal of the ill effects, may be associated with the proper and frequent cleansing of the skin.

In an article recently published in a magazine for the beauty shop operators there is a suggestion of the proper cleansing of a skin, where excess oiliness is present. The article is by Dr. Herman Goodman, B. S., and says of soap as a cleansing agent:

"Proper use of soap and water is the best of all preventatives for oily skin. Use moderately warm water for face and proper and frequent cleansing of the skin. In an article recently published in a magazine for the beauty shop operators there is a suggestion of the proper cleansing of a skin, where excess oiliness is present. The article is by Dr. Herman Goodman, B. S., and says of soap as a cleansing agent:

"Gentle massage of the face is recommended. One rubs the face with soap lather worked up on the wash cloth. The massage is to get the contents of the oil glands out on the surface so that they can be washed away. The spaces about the tiny hairs are emptied by the massage so that infection is less likely to occur."

Dr. Goodman emphasizes that external care is only part of the treatment for oily skin; careful diet, concerning which he believes that there should be no faddism; and proper medical attention are others.

"Oily skin is associated with some general body change," he points out. "In the young, it is associated with adolescence. Among those slightly older, oily skin is found with changes in some organ or organ system. A general check-up is required to determine what particular phase of your internal mechanism is involved. The external care of the oily skin and the condition of the soap associated with oily skin includes the hygiene of soap and water."

Guests who have been bidden to wish Jean a happy birthday are Nan Mishler, Tommy Olson, Wally Carson, Wesley Allan Cook, Stanley Crawford, Jack Fenton, Shirley Blair, Jay and George Headrick, Frances Sidway, Judy Hitt of Oswego, Jack Fortmiller, Diane Emigh, Plum Brown, Jimmy and Johnny Humphreys, Peter Paulus.

Tri-Y Girls Planning Dinner Wednesday

The Tri-Y girls of the high school are planning a no-host dinner at the Y. W. C. A. Wednesday night at 5:30 o'clock for all Girl Reserves in the high school. At the meeting held yesterday the president, Mary Elizabeth Ross, appointed several committees to complete the work for the rest of the year. They include Carol Clarke, senior farewell; Margaret Chadwick, rings; Virginia Steed, summer camp registration; Louise Hayes, Seabeck delegation; Jeanette Hulst, membership. At the meeting Mrs. H. Elbert, faculty adviser and Mrs. Elizabeth Gallagher were present.

Mrs. Snedecor Will Fete Bridge Club

Mrs. Frank Snedecor has invited members of her contract club to a one o'clock luncheon at her apartment at the Hazeldorf this afternoon. Cards will be in play during the afternoon.

Covers will be placed for Mrs. Milton Meyers, an additional guest, Mrs. Frederick B. Lampert, Mrs. Lina C. Smith, Mrs. Henry W. Meyers, Mrs. George F. Rodgers, Mrs. Oliver C. Locke, Mrs. Clarence Keene of Silverton and Mrs. Louis Lachmund.

Today's Menu

Swiss steak with vegetables and rice will be today's meat. The menu includes: Cottage cheese-peach salad, Swiss steak with rice, Artichokes, Lemon cake pudding.

SWISS STEAK WITH RICE One cup rice, 1 cup flour, 2 teaspoons salt, 1 bay leaf, 1 pint tomato juice, 1 pint cooked green string beans, 3 pounds round steak cut two inches thick, dash of pepper, 6 onions, 1 clove garlic.

Rub the seasoning into the meat. Dredge with flour and pound thoroughly. Turn the meat and flour and pound until all the flour is used. Brown the sliced onions in butter. Remove from pan. Brown the meat in the same pan. Place the meat in a roasting pan. Cover with the onions. Add the seasonings, add water to cover the meat.

Add Pickled Fruit To Supplies

Pickled pineapple makes a good accompaniment for meat and takes the place of a depleted contents pickle cupboard which so frequently occurs during late spring months.

Either use the pickle off the peaches, or plums, or use 1 cup vinegar, 1 cup light brown sugar, 2 sticks cinnamon, and 20 whole cloves. Let simmer about 10 minutes then use the contents of a number 2 1/2 can of sliced pineapple, cut. Cook about 10 minutes until pineapple is clear in appearance.

A tidy mother suggests that her way of making children pick up their belongings is a successful method. She uses a large chest for a "pound" and any garment or plaything found in the wrong place is impounded. A penny retrieves the belongings from the "pound" and money is used for some special family treat. However she says the house is now very tidy, and the special treasury very low.

For spring housecleaning, or any other time, use a soft clean paint brush for getting into corners. Window sills may be cleaned away down in the corners, wicker furniture and corners of skin is found with changes in some organ or organ system. A general check-up is required to determine what particular phase of your internal mechanism is involved. The external care of the oily skin and the condition of the soap associated with oily skin includes the hygiene of soap and water."

When roasting meat, make nicely flavored bread dressing. Form into balls about the size of small oranges, put with the roast and bake. May add oranges, onions and apples too, to make a main course in the one dish.

To make popcorn balls, even more thrilling for youngsters, form the popped corn over regular lollypops. When the popcorn is gone, there's still the candy to enjoy.

Prepared Meats Make Meals in Record Time

MORE and more canned food is an accepted commodity in even the best managed homes, and a well stocked cupboard, ready for emergency meals, must contain some of the many kinds of canned meat, fish and vegetables offered by commercial canners.

For interesting and pleasing unexpected meals, have the makings for Italian dishes, Mexican chili or tamales or good old American corned beef hash.

Make these prepared foods serve your needs in time and effort saving, and surround them with a few well chosen food accessories and contrasts for a perfect meal ready in record time. Green onions, a green salad, and ripe olives accent corned beef, spaghetti, chili or tamales, and together they furnish all the essential elements of a balanced menu.

Whole ripe olives are particularly appropriate with spaghetti or macaroni casseroles. Mexican chili and tamales. Toss the whole fruit in a tablespoon or two of olive oil salad oil to which a small piece of cut clove or garlic has been added. Chill in a covered bowl and serve them crisp and irresistible with these examples of foreign cookery which have become part of the American "foodscape."

Prepared Fudge Icing, Sauce

These new wrinkles in foods save a great deal of time, one of the newest is prepared fudge, that is a sort of all-around candy, changing personality from sweet to ice cream sauce to cake frosting.

To make candy, you add water, a dash of butter and presto! there's fudge. To make icing, you add perhaps a bit of hot coffee, some nuts or fruit and you have a brown topping for a home made or bakery-made cake.

Then there's the ice cream or dessert sauce; merely mix cream or top milk, butter and heat to pour over the dessert, top with whipped cream and nuts and serve like a "down-town" sundae.

To make popcorn balls, even more thrilling for youngsters, form the popped corn over regular lollypops. When the popcorn is gone, there's still the candy to enjoy.
