

Eighth Grade Exercise Held

4-H Club Awarded Book as Outstanding in Social Progress

BETHEL, May 31. — Eighth grade graduation took place Friday night. Mrs. Mary Polkerson presented the diplomas to Werna Froehlich, Jean Hain and Ida Mee Creech.

The 4-H club members held a model meeting with Werna Froehlich presiding. Mrs. Carmelita Weddle, teacher and club leader, presented the many ribbons and awards won by those who exhibited work at the county 4-H club fair, and to the judging and demonstration teams.

Awards Are Presented
Wayne Harding, 4-H club county agent, gave a talk and on behalf of the Electrolux refrigerator contest presented a gold medal to Wanda Froehlich as winner in Marion county in food preparation.

Harding also presented the book which this 4-H club won as the outstanding club in Marion county for 1936 in the social progress contest sponsored by the Radio Corporation of America. Mrs. Weddle received the gold medal presented by the corporation to the leader of the winning club.

Members on Program
The following program was given: Song and tap dance, Marcia Wolfer with Freda Bucurencu at the piano; song by the club with Jean Hain accompanying; vocal duets, Mary and Lois Hamrick with Mrs. T. C. Bentley of Marquam at the piano; talk by W. R. Baker, chairman of the board of directors; piano solo, Leola Darr; violin solo, Freda Bucurencu with Mrs. Norma Givens at the piano; one-act comedy, "Corn Fed Baby," Meara and Gertrude Froehlich, Mary and Lois Hamrick.

All call of Bethel graduates 1927-1937 found many present. A fine achievement day exhibit of 4-H club work was on display. Simpson Hamrick, Jr., presided at a brief business meeting of the community club, which was host to the school and the 4-H club for the evening. The annual ice cream feast sponsored by the club was enjoyed.

Exercises Held For Eighth Grade

DAYTON, May 31. — A large attendance of relatives and friends attended the Dayton eighth grade graduation exercises held Thursday night in the school auditorium. Rev. S. J. Osborne, pastor of Christian church of McMinnville, gave the address.

The program: Processional. Mrs. Ozonia Ruh; Invocation, Rev. C. C. Rarick; girls' sextet; class will, Glenn Freeman; girls' sextet; address, Rev. Osborne; presentation of diplomas, Mrs. O. C. Goodrich, president of the school board; recessional, Mrs. Ruh.

Twelve students were in the class: Donald Willard, Helen Jeanette Dower, Elton Cook, Gloria Dobish, Margaret Edwards, Glenn Freeman, Barbara Garrett, Elwood Hadley, George Leckband, Mary Vivian Muhs, Frances Pettit and Ardath Remme.

Cromwell Gives Seniors' Sermon

DALLAS, May 31. — The annual baccalaureate services for the graduating class of Dallas high school was held Sunday with a large crowd present for the affair.

Rev. Alfred B. Cromwell, pastor of the Christian church, gave the address, "Putting Meaning Into Life." Musical numbers included a vocal solo by Mrs. Ivan E. Walters, "Mountains," and an anthem by the members of the Christian church choir, "Morning Light."

Rev. F. F. Wall, pastor of the Mennonite Brethren church; Rev. Dean Vermillion, pastor of the Evangelical church; Rev. J. A. Linn, pastor of the Methodist church; Rev. H. E. Widdmer, pastor of the Grace Mennonite church and Rev. J. H. Quiring, pastor of the Bruderthal church, also assisted in the service.

Ben Bunn Winner Of Pettit Award

DAYTON, May 31. — The Dayton union high school graduating class exercises were held at the high school auditorium Friday night as follows:

Processional, Gertrude Londerhausen; Invocation, Rev. F. E. Fisher; salutatorian, Violet Fulsham; song, girls' quartet; valedictorian, Ben Bunn; song, girls' quartet; presentation of Pettit award, Prof. Maurice Pettit; address, "That Something," Prof. Frank Bennett of Tillamook; presentation of class; awarding of diplomas, C. S. Lewis, chairman of high school board; recessional, Gertrude Londerhausen.

Ben Bunn won the Pettit award; Edgar Hole won the general activities award.

Another Old Dime Is Reward for Gardening

LYONS, May 31. — Mrs. Albert Julian of Lyons route one found an 1871 dime while digging in her flower beds at the Julian farm about three miles east of Lyons.

Mrs. Clair Humphreys and two children of Ashland have been visiting here the past two weeks. Mrs. Humphreys' parents plan to go to Ashland for a visit when Mrs. Humphreys returns home.

Sir Harry Back in United States

Sir Harry Lauder, world-famous Scotch singing comedian is shown as he arrived with his niece, Greta Lauder, at Los Angeles, from Australia. The singer, who has retired from concert and stage, plans no appearances on this round-the-world trip.

Graduation Slated June 8, Mill City

Stocker Will Deliver Class Sermon Next Sunday at 8 o'clock

MILL CITY, May 31. — The Mill City high school and grade school will close June 8. The baccalaureate services will be held in the First Presbyterian church June 6 at 8 p. m., Rev. M. M. Stocker of the First Presbyterian church of Albany speaking.

The commencement exercises will be held June 8 at 8 p. m. in the school gymnasium.

The program will be: Processional, Miss Pauline Clippell, Miss Constance Bodiker; invocation, Rev. Ernest Ralston; solo, Miss Kathryn Smullen; address, Dr. Karl W. Onthank; solo, Miss Smullen; presentation of awards and diplomas by J. P. Smith; song, "The Violet Laidy," by eighth grade quartet; award of certificates; benediction by Rev. James McAuley.

Hoenig Takes Bride

A. R. Hoenig and Mrs. Vivian Albert were married in Salem Friday night at the home of Mrs. Albert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Schumaker. They will make their home in Mill City where Hoenig is interested in the Mill City Processing and Manufacturing company. Mrs. Hoenig has taught in the grade school several years.

Hayesville Youths Get Health Award

HAYESVILLE, May 31. — The Heralds of Health, filling health requirements including vaccination for smallpox, toxoid for diphtheria, dental correction, at Hayesville are: Robert Saucy, Charles Saucy, Paul Fuhrer, Ray Carrow, Bobby Carrow, Joy Ann Klatt, Jerry Benson, Stanley Clark, Luellen Paulson, Stanley Bacon, Jean Doolittle, Elsie Stettler, Lloyd Cooley, Billy Willis, Gloria Parker, Dolores Martin, Rosemary Byer and Joe Teisl.

Children here who joined the Oregon Children's Book League which requires the reading of at least one book a month as recommended by the Oregon state library, are: Second grade, Rosemary Byer, Evelyn Beyer, Ray Carrow, Mary Ann Fisher, Robert Saucy, Billy Willis, George Zurinden, Kiyo Furuyama, Stanley Bacon, Robert Cooley. Third grade, Jean Doolittle, Lloyd Cooley, Joy Ann Klatt, Clyde Kunze, Laura Lou Newton, Charles Saucy and Elsie Stettler. This is the fourth consecutive year the primary room has joined the league and a gold star certificate signed by the governor and state superintendent has been the reward.

Death Is Probed

Mystery continued to shroud the death of pretty Virginia Dillon, 18-year-old divorcee and Ohio State university art school model, as authorities investigated. She was found shot to death in the bathroom of an apartment in Columbus, O., a revolver lying nearby.

All Veterans Are Honored

Dallas Turns out en Masse for Annual Tribute to Soldier Dead

DALLAS, May 31. — A large crowd of people was present for the Memorial day service of the Carl B. Fenton post of the American Legion held Monday morning on the court house lawn. Crosses for all veterans who are buried in the Dallas cemetery were placed on the lawn immediately in front of the court house. The name of each veteran buried in the cemetery was inscribed on a cross.

The program included two selections by the Dallas band under the direction of H. N. Stoudenmeyer; prayer by Legion Chaplain S. E. Whitworth; solo, "My Buddy," Hubert Springsteen; a reading, "Flinders Field," by Betty Smith; address, Rev. Alfred B. Cromwell, pastor of the First Christian church; salute by firing squad from Company L of the Oregon National Guard; taps by member of Company L.

Boy Scouts in uniform were stationed around the rows of crosses.

H. Mater Smith is commander of the local Legion post and Clarence T. Smith was chairman for the Memorial service.

At the conclusion of the service members of the Legion and auxiliary placed flowers on the graves of all veterans in the cemetery.

Ed Schoels Lose Home, Knox Butte

SUVER, May 31. — The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schoel of Knox Butte burned Sunday. They used to live in this neighborhood and also near Wells. The Wells Mayflower club will give them a kitchen shower Wednesday.

Carol and Elaine Smith and Joey Stetson attended a birthday party for the Smith girls' cousin, Gae Payne, at Independence Wednesday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Stetson of Montesano, Wash., visited at the Joe Smith home over the week-end and took their daughter, Joey, home with them. Miss Verle Harris and Miss Freda Wilkinson arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Harris Thursday morning from McDermott, Nevada, where Miss Harris has taught school the past two years. She expects to attend O.S.C. this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Countryman, who have lived here for 14 years and worked for W. J. Kerr, have moved to Countryman's old home at Clatskanie. He has been in ill health the past two years.

Grangers' News

SILVERTON HILLS, May 31. — The home economics club of the Silverton Hills grange will hold its regular meeting Thursday afternoon at the city hall. Special business is scheduled.

SILVERTON HILLS, May 31. — The home economics committee of the Silverton Hills grange will sponsor a benefit dance at the club hall June 5. Mrs. L. O. Hadley is chairman of the committee.

MONMOUTH, May 31. — Grange night, Saturday, was well attended with representation present from all Polk county granges. Musical numbers preceded a talk on opera by Thomas H. Gentle. He reviewed the opera Il Trovatore. This was one of a series of talks which he prepared and delivered in Portland last winter when the San Carlos opera company was there. A social hour concluded the visiting night.

Former Students Visitors at Gates

GATES, May 31. — Mrs. D. A. Blewer of Chehalis, Wash., is a guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Bock, for a two weeks visit. Mrs. Blewer, formerly Elizabeth Bock, is a graduate of Gates high school. Another former graduate of the local high school, Harold Shepherd, is a guest at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Shepherd of Gates. Harold has spent the past few weeks at Klamath Falls where he has employment. He will leave for Monmouth next week where he has a few weeks of work to finish at Oregon Normal school.

Grandma Carey, who makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. Lenn Young, fell Wednesday night and injured a hip. She is much improved and although quite frail will be able to be up again soon as it is thought no bones were injured. Muriel Horner, former Gates high school graduate and sophomore at the University of Oregon, will spend the summer in Eugene, where she will have employment with the Oregon Mutual Insurance company.

Howard Rockhill Wins Lafky Prize

GRAND ISLAND, May 31. — Howard Rockhill, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rockhill, won the state championship in the Farmers Union oratorical contest held at Clatskanie. His original oration was on "Cooperative Farming." The $35 prize was presented by Herman E. Lafky of Salem, sponsor of the contest. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rockhill were in Clatskanie Tuesday.

Charles E. Nelson returned home late Thursday from Clatskanie where he had been attending the Farmers Union state convention as one of the delegates from the Webfoot Farmers Union local.

Louise Will, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Will, has received a half scholarship to the 4-H club summer school session held in June on the Oregon State college campus. She was awarded the scholarship for being one of the two healthiest girls in Yamhill county. Lola Compton of Fairview being the other.

Committees Completed For Installation Eagle Lodge Officers Tonight

SILVERTON, May 31. — George Manolis announces his final committees for the installation of officers at the Eagle lodge Tuesday night as: Master of ceremonies, George Custer; refreshment, R. A. Fish, H. R. Burk; entertainment, H. B. Anderson; reception, C. J. Tova, George Manolis; tickets, Robert Scott and Olaf Bolme; kitchen, Guy Morley and Ed Amo; dining room, R. D. Bowen, Curtis Lovett, Oscar Lewis and A. McKinley.

Sena Madson Is Reported Improving From Illness

BETHANY, May 31. — Mrs. Sena Madson, who has been critically ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Hubbs, is reported somewhat improved. Mrs. Madson, who is in her late seventies, has been in unusually good health for the past several years. She has made her home in the Silverton community for 40 years.

Tearing Down Hotel

GATES, May 31. — The old Gates hotel, which has been purchased by Ed Hammon of the Detroit stage line, is almost a thing of the past. It is being torn down and the lumber will be sold. Ed Griffo, who is assisting Hammon, will use some of the lumber in repairing the small house on the Gardner place and also will construct a garage on the property.

Tom Hewitts Move
SILVERTON, May 31. — Mr.

and Mrs. Tom Hewitt have moved from Jersey street to the Frank Naegeli home at 129 Center street on Liberty Hill. Hewitt is connected with the national park service.

GILMORE

WINS AGAIN

AT INDIANAPOLIS

WILBUR SHAW 1st
USING REGULAR STOCK
GILMORE
ETHYL
LION HEAD
MOTOR OIL
THE SAME YOU BUY FROM YOUR INDEPENDENT DEALER

For the third successive year, Gilmore has defeated other refiners' products in the hotly contested, gruelling Indianapolis race. It takes worlds of power . . . and perfect lubrication . . . to win America's speed classic of 500 merciless miles. That's why Wilbur Shaw chose Gilmore Ethyl gasoline and Lion Head motor oil. Gilmore develops and proves its products in such competitive events as the Indianapolis race. You, too, can get championship performance with these same record breakers. Ask your Gilmore Independent Dealer for the identical winning products Wilbur Shaw used . . . Gilmore Ethyl gasoline . . . and Lion Head motor oil!

USE THE GASOLINE CHAMPIONS USE

GILMORE

PATRONIZE Independent DEALERS

TUNE IN GREATER GILMORE CIRCUS, THE LAFF-HIT OF THE AIRWAYS. EVERY SATURDAY, 7:30 P.M. N.B.C. (RED) NETWORK

The true measure of a cigarette is the pleasure it gives you...

Measure Chesterfields for mildness... for taste... and for the way they're made... and this is what you'll find...

Chesterfields are MILD and BETTER-TASTING . . . because they are made of mild ripe aromatic home-grown and Turkish tobaccos . . . aged two years or more.

You notice the pleasant agreeable taste just as soon as you light a Chesterfield . . . because Chesterfield paper is PURE and has no taste or odor.

Chesterfields will give you MORE PLEASURE...
They Satisfy

Chesterfields are FIRMLY ROLLED and made full cigarette size for the best smoking . . . 2-3/4" long and 1-1/16" around . . . the Chesterfield standard.