Informal Party Arranged for Bride-Elect

MISS Ruth Chapman, popular bride-elect of Edward Frantz, will be the honor guest at a smartly arranged party tonight for which Mrs. Gus Moore will be hostess at her home in Kingwood Heights. The evening will be spent informally and a crystal shower will honor the bride-to-be. At a late hour supper will be served by the hostess.

The table will be centered with the crystal wrapped in pastel shades and a wedding bell over the middle of the table with pink streamers coming down to a miniature bride and groom. Rosebuds and pink tapers will flank either side of the arrangement and roses will also be used about the room. Miss Bertha Babcock will assist the hostess.

Those bidden to honor Miss Chapman are Miss Edith Mae Jenks, Miss Grace Elizabeth Holman, Miss Lillian Scott, Miss Esther Black, Miss Esther Gibbard, Miss Jermye Upton, Miss Virginia Pugh, Miss Bertha Babcock, Miss Rachael Pemberton, Miss Elva Sehon, Miss Jean Eastridge, Miss Winifred Gardner, Miss Doris Unruh, Miss Marian Bretz, Miss Jeannette Scott, Miss Frances Laws, Miss Gwen Gallaher, Miss Anna Mae Unrath, Miss Cynthia Delano, Miss Gwendolyn Hunt, Miss Mary Jeannette Sargent, Miss Dorothy Dingle, Miss Frances Stewart, Mrs. LeRoy Rudin, Mrs. Dwight Adams of Dallas, Mrs. Delvin Durham, Mrs. Robert Eyre, Mrs. Samuel Bowe of Cut Bank, Mont., Mrs. E. E. Gilbert and Mrs. A. M. Chapman.

Credentials for the convention being held in Albany the middle of this month will be presented to delegates at the meeting of the Woman's Relief corps in Miller's hall Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.
