West Salem News

WEST SALEM, June 8.—The West Salem council met Monday night with all members present except Warren Baker and George LaMire.

The courtesy of the floor was granted to Messrs. Litwiller, Kring and Hagg who spoke in the interests of the recreational program for this summer, under the direction of W.F.A. Baker, Douglas and Mitchell were appointed on a committee to work on a recreational program with power to act. Don Kuhn reported that nothing had been done relative to the old barn on the Sloper premises. James Mitchell was appointed as chairman of the police and sanitary committees, which committees were to investigate barns and other like nuisances.

Roy Stevens spoke relative to an equal enforcement of the traffic laws regarding trucks and other vehicles. James Mitchell reported that he had investigated the street improvement assessment of W. D. Phillips and trouble settled.

Request More Oiling

Councilman Don Kuhn reported that some oil had been spread. A request for the oiling of Piedmont avenue was discussed and a petition was presented by residents of Ruge street, requesting that the street be oiled was also read. Oiling of new streets and re-oiling up to a cost of $100 was voted.

L. D. Nichols explained that he was allowing drinking on the premises, that the four walls of his place of business constituted his premises and that he had not authorized anyone to drink on any part of the property; that he was endeavoring to operate a respectable place of business.

W. L. LaDue was instructed to hire a man and team with mower to mow the weeds and grass in the streets.

Several applications for the position of night officer were read and discussed. A contract for the purchase of street lamps was tabled.

Pastors Lose Pinball Fight

Silvertown Council Orders Attorney Consulted About Ordinance

SILVERTOWN, June 8.—Pinball games occupied the floor for the major part of the session Monday night at the regular June meeting of the city council. After over an hour's discussion the two ministers present lost their fight against the dozen pinball operators who spoke for the machines.

The matter was finally left in the hands of the executive committee to consult the city attorney with a view of drawing up an ordinance to regulate the games. The committee consists of Otto Legard, W. L. McGinnis and C. B. Anderson.

The matter of a summer recreational program was also discussed. A letter from the WPA office at Salem gave the information that recreational workers would be supplied provided the city would supply a supervisor. M. J. Dolan, park supervisor, who was present at the meeting agreed to do this and the matter was left in the hands of the park committee with power to act.

Talk Airport Lease

The matter of renewing the federal lease on the Silvertown airport was discussed. Mayor W. H. Moffett explained that inasmuch as the port did not meet with new requirements, it might be possible to negotiate with the government to get out from under the option which the government has on the port until 1942. M. G. Gunderson was given authority to make the necessary negotiations to discontinue the port.

Percy Byers was granted a recommendation for class B license. Mr. Byers is not starting up a new place of business but is taking over the place he has been managing.

The dance license was voted refunded to the Silvertown boys' band which recently sponsored a benefit dance.

On city insurance the matter of renewals or taking up new policies was left in the hands of the finance committee, Hugh Range, chairman.

A special meeting will be held in the near future to consider proposed regulations of pinball operation within the city.
