

Walls Takes First
SCIO, June 10.—Scio and vicinity, as usual, were largely represented at the 28th annual strawberry festival at Lebanon.

First prize on Marshall strawberries went to J. E. Walls, who lives a short distance northeast of Scio. Walls has a large acreage of berries and this will be increased, he states.

Linn and Benton Nurses Organize

ALBANY, June 10.—At a meeting of registered nurses of Linn and Benton counties, held in Corvallis this week, the group formed district No. 6 and named officers. Mrs. Linnie Laid, R.N., Portland, and executive secretary of the Oregon State Nurses' association, spoke. Miss Juanita Johnston, Albany school nurse, was named president; Erna Plageman, Oregon State college health service supervising nurse, vice president; Marie Richardson, Benton county nurse, secretary; and Cora E. Stewart, Corvallis private duty nurse, treasurer.

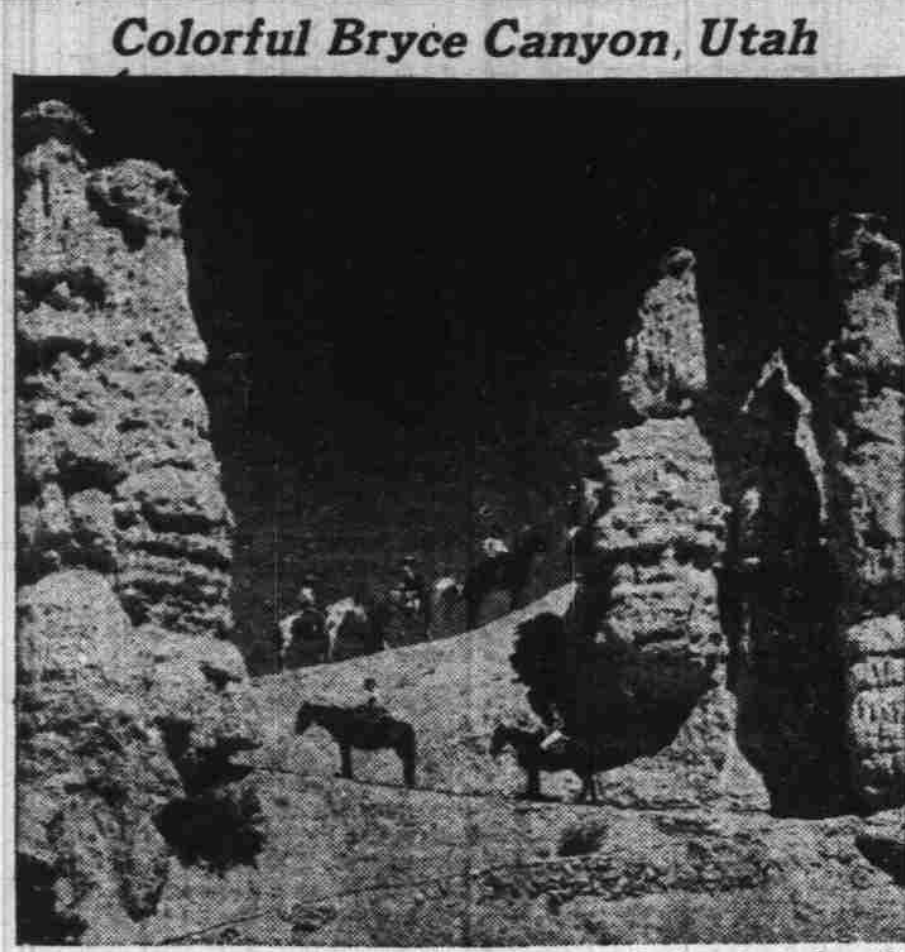

Two of the directors will be Clara Fell, superintendent of the Albany general, and Mrs. Blossom Craig Shaw, superintendent of the Corvallis general hospital. The third director will be selected from among the Lebanon nurses.

The next meeting will be held Monday night at the Albany general hospital.

Norma Sletton Elected Silvertown Junior Legion Auxiliary's President

SILVERTOWN, June 10.—The junior auxiliary of the American Legion closed its season's work this week in the armory club room.

Officers for next year were elected: President, Norma Sletton; vice president, Evelyn Hagston; secretary, Clara Cotter; treasurer, Evelyn Hall; chaplain, Margaret Scott; sergeant-at-arms, Vala Elliott; historian, Juanita Hastings; executive members, Evelyn Hemmingsen, Joan Cooper and Almira Haugen.

Colorful Bryce Canyon, Utah
Weird and wonderful. A fairyland in vivid colorings best describes the spectacle of Bryce Canyon National Park in southern Utah. Bryce is a huge bowl-shaped canyon filled with countless rock formations tinted in every shade of the rainbow. This is one of the most unusual of our national parks.—Union Pacific Railroad Photo.

Heavy Loss of Trucks And Farm Machinery Is Suffered in Asher Fire

GRAND ISLAND, June 10.—The large barn on the George Asher farm burned completely down shortly after 6 o'clock Friday night. Whipped by a high north wind the fire had gotten such a start before it was discovered that it was impossible to save any of the contents. There was an extremely heavy loss of trucks, farm machinery, tools and other equipment but no stock.

Origin of the fire is undetermined. Asher and son, Orville, are among the leading market gardeners in the district. The loss was partially covered by insurance.

A large crowd attended the ice cream social which was sponsored by the Improvement club Saturday night. Proceeds amounted to $41.50 and will be used to aid Mrs. Helen Rorabaugh and family during the serious illness of her son, Peter Jensen.

Scotts Mills Folks Are Located at 'Green Park'

HAZEL GREEN, June 10.—Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Rosveldt, (Eileen Clemens) of Scotts Mills have moved to the log lodge at the Hazel Green park for the summer. Arthur Clemens, a junior at O.S.C., returned here Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Clemens took their guests, Misses Ruth and Helen Reynolds of Hull, Iowa, and Miss Marval Winkler of Tabor, Alberta, to Newport for the week-end and will take them to the Rose festival and Columbia highway. Miss Ruth will leave for Iowa Monday. Miss Helen Reynolds and Miss Winkler will spend the summer here.

Alfalfa Hay Gets Worst of Shower

CENTRAL HOWELL, June 10.—Mrs. Loren Gower who came home from Portland Saturday is rapidly recovering from a goitre operation performed over two weeks ago.

The condition of Max Simmons, who underwent a major operation at the Silvertown hospital over two weeks ago is satisfactory. He hopes to go to his home soon.

These farmers who have alfalfa hay down do not welcome the rain but a rain is a boon to the spring grain which was of necessity sown so late.

Mrs. Thomas Wetheral and twin daughters, Misses Bess and Helen, have come from Denver, Colorado, to visit Mrs. Wetheral's daughter, Mrs. Bert Bye, and other relatives.
