JOHNSTOWN, Pa., June 15.—(AP)—Seven men were injured, two critically, shortly after midnight today when a crowd of men and boys rushed police at a gate of the Bethlehem Steel corporation's Cambria works here. The police hurled tear gas bombs into the crowd, as it surged forward after police had opened the gate to permit entry into the plant of two men in an automobile.

Unidentified Man Suffers Skull Fractures
The two seriously injured men were Tony Mandas and an unidentified man whose skull was fractured.

One of those injured was Charles Krise, Johnstown policeman.

It was the second flare of violence of the night at the Cambria plant, now involved with a C. I. O.-called strike. Pickets and state police clashed last night at another entrance to the huge works.

Last night's melee broke amid heightening tension over the public statement of strike defiance issued by Bethlehem steel officials and the strategic move of John L. Lewis, C. I. O. chairman, in calling out 10,331 coal miners in Pennsylvania and West Virginia mines owned by three independent steel companies—Bethlehem, Republic and Youngstown Sheet & Tube. Five persons, including a girl and an 18-year-old boy, were injured.

Publicizing Tax Dodgers Favored

Solons Discuss Probe at White House, Suggest Airing of Names
WASHINGTON, June 14.—(AP)—Congressional leaders emerged tonight from a white house conference with word they favor full publicity for wealthy persons alleged to have dodged taxes.
Senator Harrison (D-Miss) and Representative Doughton (D-N.C.) talked with the president about the congressional investigation scheduled to start Wednesday into charges of tax evasions and avoidances.
Afterward, both told reporters they would favor making public the names of persons declared by the investigators to be evaders or avoiders.
"Why not let the country know?" Harrison demanded.
He added the committee will hear testimony from the persons named, if they wish to appear, but that "there probably will be some who will not want to appear."

The senator, who is chairman of the senate finance committee and a member of the joint investigating committee, said there will be legislation at this session to plug loopholes in the tax laws. He explained the committee has until next February 28 to make a final report but expects a partial report before then.
Harrison said the president only wanted to tell him and Doughton that government departments would assist the investigators if needed.

Long Filibuster Threatened as Stall to High Court Bill

WASHINGTON, June 14.—(AP)—The senate's grim conflict over the Roosevelt court reorganization bill entered its last and possibly bitter phase tonight.
The final preliminary to action on the senate floor was cleared away with the submission of an adverse report in which the judiciary committee said the measure would destroy the independence of the judiciary.
Relief, Nuisance Bills
First on Calendar
Administration leaders were uncertain, however, when they would call the measure for the long-awaited "great debate." It was expected the relief bill, two appropriations bills and the extension of "nuisance" taxes would be disposed of first.
The administration stood ready to compromise, but one group of opponents said no compromise was possible. Led by Senators Burke (D-Neb) and Wheeler (D-Mont) this group was frankly ready to PORTLAND, Ore., June 14.—(AP)—The Maritime Federation of the Pacific, in convention here, recommended without a dissenting vote that all affiliated unions join the C. I. O. and ordered a referendum among the 40,000 west coast waterfront and maritime workers.

The convention ordered that the balloting, to determine whether the federation leaders have the backing of the rank and file on the C. I. O. issue, be launched as soon as possible, under the rules of the respective organizations involved.
Eight unions are included in poll
Unions affected include the American Radio Telegraphists' association, Marine Boilermakers, Inland Boatmen, Marine Machinists, Marine Cooks and Stewards, Marine Engineers, Marine Firemen and the Masters, Mates and Pilots.
Two other federation affiliates, the International Longshoremen's association and the Sailors union of the Pacific, had previously ordered independent referendums of their membership. The convention press committee said the sailors have completed a referendum endorsing C. I. O. affiliation, and that ballots went today to 26,000 members of longshore union members.
Predicting an "almost solid" ballot for bolting the A. F. O. L. convention spokesmen asserted the rank and file "would have voted C. I. O. six months ago."

QUITMAN, Tex., June 14.—(AP)—Federal officers came here today to question a man arrested Saturday at Mineola and held as a suspect in the kidnap-slaying of 10-year-old Charles Mattson at Tacoma, Wash., last December.
County Atty. B. E. Gist said "it looks like the net is tightening about the man."
Photographs of the suspect will be sent by plane to Tacoma, he said, for the Mattson family to view. Gist said the man also might be taken to Tacoma.

CHICAGO, June 14.—(AP)—Police Sergeant George Wragg said tonight a prisoner held at Burnside police station was described by a department of justice agent as "bearing an unusually close resemblance" to the suspect sought for the kidnaping and murder of 10-year-old Charles Mattson, son of a wealthy Tacoma, Wash., physician, last December.
The government agent questioned him and said he thinks "we've got the right man," Wragg said.

Franco's Guns Blast Closer To Sieged City

Insurgents Pound Away at Bilbao on North and South Positions

Defense Charges Arrival of new Troops From Germany, Italy

WITH INSURGENTS AT SANTA MARINA HILL OVER BILBAO June 14.—(AP)—Insurgent Gen. Francisco Franco's big guns and war planes blasted a path closer to Bilbao tonight while his troops pushed ahead in a drive to encircle the Basque capital before occupying it.
To the north and south of Bilbao, insurgents pounded at Basque positions, while on the western side of the capital they already had advanced as far as they could without descending precipitous slopes into the streets of the city.
Insurgents, smashing through Bilbao's "iron ring" of defense on the east, flew their red and yellow flag from Santo Domingo hill.
Franco's troops were in complete control of the hills to the right of the western bank of the Nervion river over Bilbao. On the opposite side of the city was another great ridge of pine-covered hills from which the Basques could offer stiff resistance for troops attempting to occupy their capital.
The insurgents' big job was to clean out these hills—a job which could be done only by crossing the valley of the Nervion river, there by getting at hills on Bilbao's western side.
Insurgent planes bombed Basque positions in the Galdacano area in the shadow of Mount Jata. Troops moved up behind the air attack so swiftly that in many places whole companies of Basques were taken prisoner.

28 Saboteurs in Siberia Executed

Victims now Russian Firing Squads total 151; Rail Plot Alleged
MOSCOW, June 14.—(AP)—The execution of 28 more convicted saboteurs in Siberia, this time for wrecking the new and strategic Amur railway, was made known today. (This made a total of 151 shot for sabotage, for conspiracy and treason the past year.)
The latest executions in the far east were carried out June 4, according to a terse communique published by the Khabarovsk newspaper, Pacific Star, which reached here today.
Those shot were convicted of conspiring at the direction of Japanese espionage agents. They were charged, also, with affiliation with the exiled revolutionary Leon Trotsky.
Similar Siberian trials resulted in 66 previous executions.
The Amur railroad with which the latest "wreckers" allegedly were connected is a spur line which strikes north from the Trans-Siberian railroad to the new town of Komsomolsk, on the Amur river.
The newest announcement of executions came hard upon the conviction and shooting of eight red army generals for treason. There was no apparent connection between the incidents, except that they marked again the Soviet government's determination to eradicate opposition at every front.

Kidnap Dragnet Yields no Clues

STONY BROOK, N. Y., June 14.—(AP)—A human dragnet—federal agents, state troopers, fire warden and boy scouts—combed the tangled countryside of this North Shore Long Island region in vain today for some clue to Mrs. William Parsons, missing since last Wednesday.
The only clue thus far has been the $25,000 ransom note, found tucked in the seat of the Parsons automobile hours after Mrs. Parsons vanished from the chicken and snub farm that was the Parsons' rural retreat.
With a growing belief that Mrs. Parsons had met a violent end, Earl J. Connelley, head of the federal bureau of investigation detail here, ordered the new hunt today, describing it as "for observation purposes."

Wait's Best Papermakers in Extra-Inning Go; Hogg Bros. Win
By PAUL HAUSER
Wait's softball club were hitless wonders last night as they opened the summer softball season by defeating the Papermakers 4 to 3 in an extra-inning game. Wait's got only five hits to the Papermakers' ten but were never behind, although the Papermakers twice tied them.
An ill-timed error by Papermaker Shortstop Bob Dunn broke up the ball game as Marv Ritchie crossed the plate with the winner in the tenth frame. There were two out when Dunn dropped Foreman's pop fly after grabbing it with a one handed stab.
Ritchie doubled to center to get on and went to third when Kitchen was out at first.
While an estimated 1350 customers saw last night's game of games and opening ceremonies, league officials said the crowd was much smaller than usual for opening night. Threatening weather, which did deliver a small shower before the first game was completed, kept the crowd down. Ritchie, Salstrom
Hit Opportunist
Marv Ritchie and Phil Salstrom could take bows after Wait's win last night. Ritchie, while touched for hits in all but one frame, let things get out of hand only once when he loaded the bases and walked in a run. He made up for it by socking out a home run to deep right field in the next inning to put Wait's in the lead again.
Salstrom's single to center in the opening inning scored Wait's first two runs and gave them an advantage that kept them abreast all the way.
Bob Dunn got one of two doubles in the second inning and came home on Kelly's single for the Papermaker's first run. When (Turn to Page 2, Col. 5.)

Mexican Suspect's House at Wendling Scene of Shooting

Officers End Five-Hour Siege to Find Wanted Man Dead; Tear Gas Rushed South by Salem Policeman

Rollo Wicks, Lane Deputy Sheriff, Is Victim as He Seeks to Question Man About Neighbor Injury

EUGENE, Ore., June 14.—(AP)—Dionysius Crispo shot and killed himself tonight as officers who had besieged his home at Wendling for nearly five hours attempted to force an entrance with tear gas bombs, state police reported here tonight.
Crispo was sought on charges of fatally shooting Sheriff's Deputy Rollo Wicks, who attempted to arrest him earlier in the day following a neighborhood quarrel in which Darrell Stollberg was wounded.
Capt. Walter Lansing of the state police, who brought tear gas bombs from Salem while Sheriff's Deputies Burt Hulegaard and Mark Hathaway watched the house, said two shots were heard after the first bomb was thrown and Crispo's body was later found on the second floor.
Crispo said that Wicks was suddenly overpowered, unarmedly, by Stollberg, a Mexican, after he reported he had been wounded by Crispo in a quarrel over a refuse heap in the Meador yard.
Word of the occurrence spread rapidly over the surrounding country, spreading estimates that nearly 1000 persons gathered near the besieged house, cars being lined up for miles.

Bank Leader Hits New Deal Program

Brodie Swats Court Plan at Oregon Assembly; O'Connor Defends
BEND, Ore., June 14.—(AP)—national administration here, both praise and criticism, speakers at the Oregon State Bankers association convention here today.
George D. Brodie, president of the association, lambasted the administration's economic and judicial program and censured failure to balance the budget. He cited the "attempt to pack the supreme court" as a cause for great alarm and said that the apparent effort to override state's rights was a step in the wrong direction.
Brodie asked the resolution committee to introduce a resolution opposing enactment of proposed bills which he said threatened elimination of the dual banking system and would permit extension of branch banking beyond state borders.
J. F. T. O'Connor, controller of currency, justified the administration's financial program and cited accomplishments, declaring there was not occasion for nervousness regarding the nation's present or future. He said only one small bank had failed over a period of 20 months in the entire country, and that that failure was caused by embezzlement.
Wicks, witnesses said, was shot down when he attempted to arrest Crispo in connection with the wounding of Stollberg, a neighbor. According to the story told to the sheriff's force which arrived tonight, as Wicks walked toward Crispo, the Mexican raised a rifle and fired, the bullet entering Wicks' side. He was dead before aid could be given.
Neighbors said Crispo had been enraged over protests of health officers against a manure pile in his yard. For no apparent reason he fired at Stollberg, the latter said, in reporting the incident to Wicks.
Aft. Wicks had fallen, witnesses declared, Crispo stood by the officer's body, allowing no one to approach. He then went into the house where he barricaded himself against attack by the sheriff's posse.

Hearst Appeal Is Denied by Court

SAN FRANCISCO, June 14.—(AP)—The United States circuit court of appeals denied the petition of W. R. Hearst today for dismissal of the national relations board order for reinstatement of two employes discharged prior to the recent strike on Hearst's Post Intelligence of Seattle.
Hearst had sought dismissal of the order on the ground one of the men is dead, the other reinstated and conditions of the order filled. The court had sought to make an inquiry, but failing to receive information requested, dismissed the Hearst petition today.
"I hope," he added, "that the government will see fit to exclude hops from the list of commodities which will be the basis for negotiations of a trade agreement with Czechoslovakia."
He asserted American growers are able to "supply the demand for hops in this country" with "a quality of domestic hops as good or better than foreign hops."
Sen. Homer T. Bone, Washington, in a letter to Secretary of State Hull said:
"While I voted to authorize the president to make reciprocal trade treaties, it is difficult to understand why we should import vast quantities of any foreign product when an ample supply of that product is or can be produced by our own farmers if they are not put out of business by foreign competition."

Three Candidates Named as School Nominations Closed

The contest for the one vacancy in the school board which occurs this year will be a three-cornered affair, it was determined Monday night when the time for filing completed petitions closed. The election will be held June 21.
The candidates are Dr. L. E. Barrick, Francis E. Manley and Otto E. Hoppes. Dr. Barrick is a mortician and also holds the office of county coroner, and has been prominent in civic affairs in Salem for many years. Hoppes is an insurance agent and Manley is an employe of the Valley Motor company.
Opponents of one of the candidates were circulating reports last week that he had promised to support Frank Neer, who is the retiring board member, for the Leslie junior high school principalship.
Neer declared Monday that he was not an applicant for a position in the city schools and would not be an applicant, nor make any more toward seeking support for appointment, so long as he remained a member of the school board. He added that he had not approached any of the three candidates for the school board office, with any suggestion that he might seek the Leslie principalship or any other faculty position.
A number of years ago Neer engaged in educational work for a considerable period.
Dr. Barrick's completed petitions were filed on Monday and those of the other two candidates previously. The school election next Monday will be held in the administration building, on High street just south of the old senior high school building, and the polls will be open from 2 to 5 p.m. All legal voters living in the Salem school district are eligible to vote. Thirty days' residence is required.

BALLADE
OF TODAY
By R. O.

What's this nation coming to? The worried citizen may wonder: "for soon there'll be no work to do, with strikes we'll go completely under." It's true that labor discord's rife and hopes of peace are growing thinner, but always there's an end to strife or some day workers get no dinner.
