1937 Probate Law Utilized

Bentley Estate Contest Set for Circuit Court Trial on July 12

Among a list of cases set yesterday by Circuit Judge L. G. Lewelling for trial next month is the first case to come up in court here under the 1937 session law which provides for the transfer of contested probate matters from county court to circuit court on motion of any party of the suit.

The case involves the W. L. Bentley estate and the contest is over petition of R. M. Bentley for widow's allowance, to which petition objections have been entered by Frank Bentley and Fred J. Miller, executors. The trial has been set for Monday, July 12.

Franchise Case Set
 A second trial set for July 12 before Judge Lewelling is that of the city of Salem vs. Vernon D. Leek, a law case appealed from municipal court here and to be tried before Judge Lewelling without a jury.

Validity of the old city ordinance providing for franchise for public service vehicles, which city law Leek contends is invalid, is involved in the case. Leek operates the Liberty-Four Corners bus line and has sought a franchise from the city, but has received none. The Oregon Motor Stages has an exclusive franchise to operate on the Salem streets.

The case of Painter vs. Painter et al, a partition suit, will be heard Thursday, August 5.

Other cases set for trial yesterday will come before Judge Lewelling, sitting in the law department because affidavits of prejudice have been filed against Judge McMahan who presides over department one.

Other Trials Scheduled
 Trial dates and these cases are:

Tuesday, July 13, McElroy vs. Pimm, damage action.

Thursday, July 15, Swain vs. Oregon Motor Stages.

Monday, July 19, Girffin vs. McCaffrey.

Tuesday, July 20, Boles vs. Salem Sand and Gravel.

Wednesday, July 21, Poulin vs. Portland Gas & Coke company, personal injury.

Friday, July 23, Riggi vs. Lord.

Monday, July 26, Roseman vs. Patnam, libel action.

Menne Called in, Ashland Mystery

ASHLAND, June 15.—(AP)—Dr. Frank Menne, of the department of pathology of the University of Oregon medical school, will aid in an attempt to solve the mystery of the body of a baby found in the closet of a hospital room here, officers revealed today.

George W. Nielson, deputy district attorney who disclosed that the body would be sent to Portland for examination by Dr. Menne, said a dent in the skull might have been the result of natural decomposition rather than by external violence.

The prosecutor said the body was found in a room occupied until recently by Irene Simons, a nurse, who was believed to be visiting relatives in South Dakota. He added he was considering whether to ask her to return for questioning.

Officers declined to comment on a rumor that the body might have been "planted."

Bankers Oppose Branch Measures

BEND, Ore., June 15.—(AP)—Resolutions passed here today by both the Oregon Bankers' association and the Independent Bankers' association opposed provisions of the two proposed McAdoo banking bills.

One of the measures would permit branch banking across state lines and the second would eliminate the dual banking system.

The Oregon Bankers' association elected C. E. Williamson, Albany, president; O. A. Hougham, Eugene, and Hans C. Pfund, Portland, secretary.

The next convention city will be selected at a mid-year meeting of the executive committee.

The resolution adopted by the Oregon bankers, on the second day of their annual convention here, opposed senate bills 2347 and 2348 specifically, and such other legislation as would "impair and restrict."

To those, he has recently added 200 feet of 1937 snow scenes, Silver Creek falls through ice and snow and also in color, also tulip gardens in color.

These pictures have been shown in many communities throughout the county and have evoked much interest. The public is invited.

DeVries to Show Travel Pictures

Fred de Vries of Pratum, who attended the international Sunday school convention at Oslo, Norway, last summer, will show the moving pictures of his trip at the First Christian church tonight at 7:30 o'clock. The First Christian church is located at the corner of Center and High streets.

The series of films were taken in 12 countries, the United States, Mexico, Panama, Cuba, England, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Germany, Holland, Switzerland and France. There are 300 feet of color film of the Zurich Zoological garden, the famous Tuilleries gardens in Paris, the R. M. S. Queen Mary and some Oregon flowers. To these, he has recently added 200 feet of 1937 snow scenes, Silver Creek falls through ice and snow and also in color, also tulip gardens in color.

These pictures have been shown in many communities throughout the county and have evoked much interest. The public is invited.

There is no admission charge. However, an offering will be taken to defray the expenses.

Milt Miller Says Champeog History

PORTLAND, June 15.—(AP)—A congressional committee's decision that the historical significance of Champeog park was of state interest, only drew a reply today from Milton A. Miller, collector of customs and chairman of the Champeog park commission.

"Historical Champeog is history itself," he asserted. "It is the only great area now a part of the United States over which the flag of no other nation has flown."

"I am going to continue to fight for this memorial building and I have the support of a great number of persons who realize as I do that Champeog is truly a national shrine."

It is the site, he recalled, of an election in which 52 of 102 men, on May 2, 1843, voted to align the Oregon country with the United States.

Mary's Peak Goal Of Hikers Sunday

Salem Chemeketans will join the Eugene Obsidians, Portland Trails club and Mazamas for an overnight trip to Mary's peak this weekend. If the weather is clear, this trip will afford the hikers a wonderful view of the Cascade range and the whole valley. Walter McCune of the Chemeketans will lead the trip, with about 40 Salem persons expected to go, and membership from the other outdoor groups expected to bring the total caravan to about 125 persons.

All persons interested should register at the Senator hotel not later than 7:30 o'clock Friday, as the motor caravan will leave from that place Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The driving distance will be 125 miles and hiking distance about eight easy miles. Trail fee is 25 cents.

The group will leave the Newport highway beyond Blodgett to travel five miles of dirt road to the Saturday night camp.
