Flatfeet Fail to Fend off Fate of Cleanies as Sailor Moran and Scot Demonstrate Mastery of Team Work

Policemen or no policemen Mickey McGuire and the Black Panther couldn't wreak gory revenge on Sailor Moran and Scotty McGough in last night's team wrestling shindig at the armory and, for the second time, trailed mournfully from the ring, vanquished.

Moran and McDougall, by separating the negro and the Irishman so that they could be persuaded separately and more effectively, won the last two sets of falls and were proclaimed winners by Referee Harry Elliott.

Panther Twice First
The Black Panther was the first to go both times. He was doused the first time while McGuire was temporarily hors de combat, having been gently deposited on his left ear on the outside of the ropes by the brae and bonny McDougall.

McGuire was absent again the second time and returned just a trifle too late to prevent the dark one from being engulfed in a mass of flesh and muscle belonging to Messrs. McDougall and Moran.

McGuire and the Panther took their first and only brace of falls by cracking smartly together the heads of their two opponents on whom they held headlocks. A few of these sufficed to lay McDougall and Moran out nicely, although they miraculously escaped the tender and loving treatment without concussions or skull fractures.

Freddy Knickals took two out of three falls from Bill Kennis in an opening one hour event. Kennis put an unrehearsed scene in the attraction when he swung on Referee Harry Elliott and opened a cut over the arbiter's eye requiring several stitches.

Experts Wary With Guesses

Question Joe's, Jimmy's Opposite Appearances; Irishman Is Calm

By PAUL MICKELSON
GRAND BEACH, Mich., June 15.—(AP)—Boxing experts, once proud and haughty fellows who used to call winners with monotonous regularity, are a confused and jittery lot as they approached the day when they must guess the winner between James J. Braddock and Joseph Barrow Louis. They've got the "screaming meemies."

Ever since they called the turn wrong on Max Schmeling against the Brown Bomber a year ago, the experts think a bit harder and use a combination of philosophy, psychology and sociology before climbing on a slippery limb and picking a winner.

Predictors Upset
But the approaching Louis-Braddock bout has them all in a dither. For two weeks they have been journeying to the Brown Bomber's camp at Kenosha, Wis., and to the champion's here.

The more they see, the less they know.

They can't believe Louis is as bad as he looks, or Braddock is as good as he seems.

The experts have found to their sorrow that betting against Braddock is like waging against war.

Over his up and down career, Braddock has lost 29 fights. But when the blue chips were down, James J. always has come through with an upset.

Jimmy Unconcerned
Braddock doesn't give a rap what the experts think.

"I've been an underdog so long, said the champion today, that I like it. If Barrow had taken me seriously I might not have been here today."

Here are the odds and results of Braddock's outstanding upset victories:

1928—Pete Latzo, 6 to 1, 10-round decision.
1928—Tuffy Griffith, 8 to 1, two-round knockout.

1929—Jimmy Slattery, 5 to 1, nine-round knockout.
1933—Martin Levandowski, 5 to 1, 10-round decision.

1935—Al Shillman, 4 to 1, 10-round knockout.
1934—Corn Griffin, 5 to 1, three-round knockout.

1934—John Henry Lewis, 6 to 1, 10-round decision.
1935—Art Lasky, 6 to 1, 15-round decision.

And this time, said Braddock, "I hope you fellows make me a 10 to 1 shot. I like those odds."

GRAND BEACH, Mich., June 15.—(AP)—Heavyweight Champion James J. Braddock looked none too impressive today as he boxed four rounds with as many sparring partners in preparation for his big battle with Brown Bomber Joe Louis.

Champ Covers Up
Braddock, apparently taking it easy, devoted most of the session to "covering up."

Braddock has three more sparring dates, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday. He weighed 193 1/2. He plans to weigh 196 when he meets Louis, June 22.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—(AP)—A four-run rally in the ninth inning gave St. Louis a 5 to 1 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics today as George Caster, former Portland Coast league hurler, weakened.

LONDON, June 15.—(AP)—Tommy Farr, British empire heavyweight boxing champion, knocked out Walter Neusel of Germany in the third round of their 12-round bout tonight.

It is expected Farr will be matched with Max Schmeling in Germany some time this summer.

Back with his teammates on the Cardinals bench, Dizzy Dean is shown being welcomed by Lon Warneke. Dizzy had just been reinstated by Ford Frick, president of the National League, who lifted the suspension without getting the signed apology he had asked from the Cardinals' pitcher. Dean made a formal denial before witnesses of the "insult charges."

Ruffing Pitches Second Shutout

Holds Indians to 4 Hits; Red Sox Aid Grove in Trimming Chicago

NEW YORK, June 15.—(AP)—Holding the Cleveland Indians to four singles, two by Earl Averill, Red Ruffing today hurled his second straight shutout as the Yankees opened a long home stand with a 3-0 triumph.

Collegiate Navy Workouts Started

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 15.—(AP)—The seven navies of the Hudson swung into battle order today and went through a long day's drill for the intercollegiate regatta, June 22.

Washington's three eights arrived this morning and went on the river, led by the varsity boat, intercollegiate and Olympic champions.

Buck Walsh, apparently unsatisfied with the condition and seamanship of his navy eights, sent his boats upstream. The varsity, clocked in 21 minutes, gave Walsh no cause for rejoicing. He blames the June-week layoff for the eight's loss of form, but plans to push the oarsmen in the next few days.

California, with the talented Larry Arpin at stroke, came down the river from near the starting line at a high beat. Coach Ky Ebnright will give his boats a time trial later.

Columbia had a light day practicing starts.

They Love It.
It looked like the clouds would burst open at any minute and deliver a deluge but 1250 softball fans risked wet feet and the possibility of a called game to see the softball opener. That is sufficient testimony that Salem people are still as enthusiastic over the game as they ever were.

They saw the kind of game that was their enthusiastic in the opening contest and, though many of them departed before the second fray reached its sorry end, they went home happy.

Young Firpo to Fight In Portland on June 22

PORTLAND, June 15.—(AP)—Young Firpo, once the favorite mitt performer of Portland fans, will return here June 22 to fight in the semi-windup on the card headed by Fred Apostoli and Tommy Jones.

The Idaho light-heavyweight wired his willingness to meet any opponent selected for him.

Bomber Fed up on Fighting, Admits

KENOSHA, Wis., June 15.—(AP)—About the only thing wrong with Joe Louis is that he is just fed up on fighting.

He admitted as much today as he continued to prepare for his heavyweight title shot with James J. Braddock in Chicago a week from tonight.

Two more fights and he'll be willing to call it quits. He wants to beat Braddock for the title, defend it in a return match with Max Schmeling and then hang up the gloves.

"I've got enough money," he said, "and I'm getting tired of all this training."

Louis weighed 199 today, just a quarter of a pound less than he scaled for the Schmeling bout a year ago. He expects to face the champion at around 197 or 198.

Industrial Loop Meet Is June 22

The Salem Industrial softball association, which last summer conducted a successful series, will meet Tuesday, June 22, at the city school administration building to form plans for getting the league under way for 1937. It was announced yesterday. If teams can be organized, play will start soon on Leslie and Olinger fields.

Last season, the association was split into two leagues, American and National. Teams of the American league were made up of players not employed by the sponsor, while teams of the National league were restricted to players in the sponsor's employ. American teams last year were U. S. Bank, McKay's, Tom Hill's, and Pade's; National league teams were paper mill office and machine shop teams, Hansen-Liljequist's, and Valley Motors.

It is expected that a similar setup will be made at Tuesday's meeting. Prospective sponsors of teams and any persons interested in industrial league softball for Salem are expected to attend.

Money for the project has been secured through $10 pledges. Those giving $10 will receive tickets good for two admissions to all games under the flood lights for the next few days.

Although a large number of pledges have already been received by the committee in charge, the full quota has not yet been reached.
