

Dallas Legion Awards Prizes

Scholarship Awards Made; Nominations Made by Post, Auxiliary

DALLAS, June 18.—The Carl B. Fenton post of the American Legion and the auxiliary met Thursday in the armory for a covered dish dinner and business meeting. The dinner was to have been in the city park, but was moved to the armory on account of the unfavorable weather.

Special guests at the dinner were the winners of the legion and auxiliary school awards and their parents. The awards were given to the outstanding girl in the eighth grade class in the Dallas school, and to the outstanding boy in the eighth grade class in the Dallas Falls City, Perrydale, and Rickreall schools. Mrs. Alta Cerny introduced Miss Patricia Smith, the winner of the auxiliary award for this year. Miss Betty Smith, winner last year, and Miss Patricia Murray, winner two years ago.

Sidney Whitworth introduced the winners of the legion awards. They were Kenneth Steele of Dallas, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Steele; Wallace McKee of Perrydale, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. McKee; David Garrison of Falls City, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Garrison; Donald Lettekin, who passed away in the Dallas hospital this spring, was adjudged the outstanding eighth grade boy in the Rickreall school and the post decided to make the award in his memory and present it to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Lettekin.

Mrs. Jack Eakin introduced Johnnie Bengue who was awarded a five dollar prize by the national defense committee of the Dallas auxiliary for being the outstanding private in Company L, Oregon National Guard.

Nominations Made

Nominations of new officers for the year 1937-38 were made as follows: Commander, Albert Bennett; first vice-commander, Frank Willson; second vice-commander, Judge Herman Van Well; third vice-commander, William Domaschofsky; adjutant, John Cerny; finance officer, Laird Woods; chaplain, S. E. Whitworth; sergeant at arms, Ellis Miller; historian, Robert Kreson; two members for the executive committee, Earle Richardson, William Himes, Fred Stinnette, H. Mather Smith, E. M. Smith. Other nominations may be made on the night of the election, which will be held on July 1.

Delegates and alternates to the state legion convention were elected. Delegates: Albert Bennett, Frank Willson, John Cerny, Alternates: H. Mather Smith, William Himes, E. M. Smith. Funds were voted to provide a headquarters room for the Dallas post at the state convention.

Mrs. William Himes, president, presided at the auxiliary meeting. Election of officers took place with the following unanimously elected: President, Mrs. Jennie Domaschofsky; first vice-president, Mrs. Myrtle Bennett; second vice-president, Mrs. Lucille Stinnette; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Walter Waite; and three members of the executive committee, Mrs. Ruby Irvin, Jr., Mrs. Ruth Willson, and Mrs. Althea Smith.

Delegates to the state convention at Albany were also named. They are Mrs. Dorothy Himes, Mrs. Jennie Domaschofsky, and Mrs. Myrtle Bennett. Alternates were Mrs. E. W. Cruson, Mrs. Alta Cerny, and Mrs. H. M. Smith. The auxiliary voted to enter a car in the parade at the state convention, and also to make arrangements to enter a number stunt night.

Circuit Court to Open In Benton County Soon

CORVALLIS, June 18.—Judge Carl E. Wimberly will be on the bench Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock in the Benton county court house when a circuit court will again open in this city.

Boyd Carson and Leo Hardenberger, charged with stealing wool from the farm of H. C. Herron near Irish Bend have slated for jury action Monday and several other cases on the docket may be heard.

Numerous divorce cases besides at least two criminal cases and several civil cases are on the docket for the jury term.

Essay Winners Present At Meet Receive Prize

DALLAS, June 17.—The Veterans of Foreign Wars and the auxiliary met at the club rooms in the armory on Wednesday night.

The winners of the awards given for the best essays on the subject, "Permanent Peace in America," were present for the meeting. Miss Jeanne Hartman received first prize and Miss Jean Tharp, second. Mrs. Frank Willson presented Miss Hartman with a two dollar each prize and Miss Tharp with a one dollar cash award.

Pioneer Octogenarian

ZENA, June 18. — James B. Simpson, old Oregon pioneer and an uncle of Mrs. W. N. Crawford of Zena, celebrated his 80th birthday Wednesday at the home of his son, J. C. Simpson. Mr. Simpson was born in the Waldo Hills in 1857 and was a student at the Rocky Point and old Duck Shed schools.

School Meet at Green

HAZEL GREEN, June 18. — The annual school meeting will convene at the school house June 21 at 8 o'clock p.m. to elect one director and clerk and vote on the budget.

Mrs. Hauptmann Departs

Here is Mrs. Bruno Richard Hauptmann and her son Manfred in their third-class stateroom aboard the S. S. Bremen as they sailed from New York for Germany to visit Mrs. Hauptmann's parents and those of her husband. She plans to return to United States in the fall to renew her fight to prove her husband's innocence of the Lindbergh kidnaping.

Three Marion Clubbers Featured on 4-H Revue Over Corvallis Station

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Corvallis, June 18.—Three Marion county 4-H clubbers were featured here last night during the annual "Radio Revue" presented over KOAC by representatives of the 1300 club members gathered here for the annual two week summer session.

The three Marion county radio delegates ably represented their home county and did boys and girls from 19 other counties.

Carolyn Kaufman, a first year clubber from Silverton, offered a number on her mandolin harp. Other Marion students included on the program were Charles Beardsley who presented a whistling number and Donna Dunn who surprised the large assembled group with her deft tap dancing.

Salem Essayists Read Essays at Albany Club

ALBANY, June 18. — Five young people from Salem, Clara Furber, Mary Reiter, Myron Pogue, Edith Bradley and Virginia Libby led the devotional period, and the program was in charge of Mrs. J. G. Fontaine. The subject for the study period was "Present Trend in Missionary Enterprise." "Training Native Nurses in Africa" was given by Mrs. R. C. Thomas; and Mrs. E. B. Redmond told about the nursery school for Indian children.

Robert Wakefield, high school principal, left Tuesday for Seattle where he will attend summer school. He was accompanied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horn who make their home with him.

Mildred Eckman Departs For Omicron Nu Session

CORVALLIS, June 18.—With her destination Kansas City, Mo., and her objective the Omicron Nu convocation, Miss Mildred Eckman of Corvallis left here today to represent the Oregon State college chapter of the home economics honorary sorority at its national convention to be held next week.

Miss Eckman, who will be a senior in home economics at the Corvallis institution next fall, plans to be away about two weeks and will return to her home city over the southern route after brief stops in Texas and California.

Mrs. T. O. Kester Named Past Grand President

JEFFERSON, June 18.—The Past Noble Grand club of Mt. Jefferson Rebekah lodge was entertained Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. L. Shields, with Mrs. Maude Blackwell as joint hostess.

The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. T. O. Kester; vice president, Mrs. L. L. Shields; secretary, Mrs. Hugh Bilyeu. Other officers will be named by the president.

State President Visits Turner Rebekah's Lodge

TURNER, June 18. — Turner Rebekah lodge met Wednesday night with good attendance. Mrs. May Jonas of Prineville, president of the Rebekah assembly of Oregon, paid her annual official visit. Mrs. Lynch of Salem, who holds the office of outside guard, was also present, as were other Salem visitors. At the close of the business session, refreshments were served.

Kellogg new Assistant

CORVALLIS, June 18.—Wallace Kellogg, formerly of Portland, has been appointed assistant manager of the Corvallis Montgomery Ward branch store. It was learned here today, Manager R. E. Carter indicated that Charles Blair, employee of the Eugene store, would be transferred to Corvallis to take over the furniture department of the local store.

Women to Reciprocate Orchard Heights, June 18

Women of the church and Sunday school will sponsor a Father's day celebration Sunday at the Summit church in response to the same service performed by the fathers on Mother's day when they furnished and served the refreshments and assembled the program.

S. P. to Eliminate 6th Street Track

CORVALLIS, June 18.—Corvallis residents will soon be free of the dangers caused by a double track railroad located on Sixth street of this city. Southern Pacific officials, taking the first step to remove the menace that has hampered automobile traffic here for years, announced here today that a full crew of 15 men would begin tearing out the old track tomorrow.

Mc Cann stated that it would take the men until October to finish the work. The old racks which stood up very well for a period of ten years are expected to be hard to remove. They are imbedded in concrete.

Floors Being Renovated At Gates School House

GATES, June 18.—L. T. Henness, school janitor, is varnishing and renovating the floors at the Gates school buildings. Mary Edith Thomas is assisting Mr. Henness.

Bible Class Conducted

AURORA, June 18.—Rev. John Ford, pastor of the Presbyterian church, assisted by Miss Lois Manole is conducting a vacation bible class this week and if the attendance continues good, also through next week.

Mildred Eckman Departs For Omicron Nu Session

CORVALLIS, June 18.—With her destination Kansas City, Mo., and her objective the Omicron Nu convocation, Miss Mildred Eckman of Corvallis left here today to represent the Oregon State college chapter of the home economics honorary sorority at its national convention to be held next week.

Mrs. T. O. Kester Named Past Grand President

JEFFERSON, June 18.—The Past Noble Grand club of Mt. Jefferson Rebekah lodge was entertained Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. L. Shields, with Mrs. Maude Blackwell as joint hostess.

The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. T. O. Kester; vice president, Mrs. L. L. Shields; secretary, Mrs. Hugh Bilyeu. Other officers will be named by the president.

State President Visits Turner Rebekah's Lodge

TURNER, June 18. — Turner Rebekah lodge met Wednesday night with good attendance. Mrs. May Jonas of Prineville, president of the Rebekah assembly of Oregon, paid her annual official visit. Mrs. Lynch of Salem, who holds the office of outside guard, was also present, as were other Salem visitors. At the close of the business session, refreshments were served.

Kellogg new Assistant

CORVALLIS, June 18.—Wallace Kellogg, formerly of Portland, has been appointed assistant manager of the Corvallis Montgomery Ward branch store. It was learned here today, Manager R. E. Carter indicated that Charles Blair, employee of the Eugene store, would be transferred to Corvallis to take over the furniture department of the local store.

Women to Reciprocate Orchard Heights, June 18

Women of the church and Sunday school will sponsor a Father's day celebration Sunday at the Summit church in response to the same service performed by the fathers on Mother's day when they furnished and served the refreshments and assembled the program.

Ballots Are Ready For Queen Polling

Queen Candidates Named by Communities; Parade Plans Are Advancing

STATON, June 18. — Members of the committee on arrangements announced today that first ballots in the contest for the selection of a queen to rule the Sautiam Spree will be available at cooperating stores throughout the district today.

The ballots were distributed to the various cashiers handling the sale late Thursday. Ed Bell will handle ballots in Staton; in Mehama, Lyons and Aumsville, telephone operators will sell them; the Mill City state bank will have them in Mill City and in Turner they will be handled by the Turner Tribune.

Selections Made Various communities have made their selections for queen this week, according to the committee. The Mill City-Gates district will sponsor Phyllis Scott; with Lyons and Mehama boosting the candidacy of Jo Anne Crabtree. Catherine Brandt was selected as a candidate from the Kingston Community club. Other candidates include: Miss Lorraine Albus, Miss Barbara Waters, Miss Fern Lewis, Miss Emma Farr and Miss Esther Ruef. Miss Eunice Jordan, who was sponsored by the Paris Woolen Mill and the Staton Cannery, has withdrawn.

William Browning, president of the Browning Amusement company, reported today he had obtained considerable new equipment which would be erected at Staton for the spree this year. Browning staged a successful carnival here last year.

The parade committee for the spree is working for larger and more beautiful parades than last year. According to the early entries of floats of business houses, the march will compare favorably with parades staged in communities many times the size of Staton.

Two Marriage Licenses Issued by Benton Clerk

CORVALLIS, June 18.—Two marriage licenses were issued at the county clerk's office here yesterday. Adolph C. Leder, 24, and Bertha E. Dougherty, 21, both of this city were granted a license. Both parties have been married before.

Frank H. Kincaid of Portland and Margaret Lillian Hand of Corvallis were also issued a license. Kincaid is listed as an Oregon State student employed in the forest service, while Miss Hand, daughter of Mrs. R. D. Hand of this city, holds a stenographer's position in the soils department on the local campus.

Bible Class Conducted

AURORA, June 18.—Rev. John Ford, pastor of the Presbyterian church, assisted by Miss Lois Manole is conducting a vacation bible class this week and if the attendance continues good, also through next week.

Vigilantes Ready for Monroe Strikers

Mayor Daniel Knapp, of Monroe, Mich., whose call for volunteers to disperse the picket lines at the Newton Steel plant was answered by hundreds of local youths and Legionnaires, instructs some of them to be careful with their firearms, just before they conveyed the first batch of workers through the factory gates. A score of pickets were beaten and gassed when they attempted to repulse the convoy.

Minnie E. Currier Of Cloverdale Dies

CLOVERDALE, June 18. — Minnie E. Currier, member of a pioneer South Dakota family and who came to this area from that state a year ago, died at a Salem hospital Wednesday night. Funeral services will be set later but will be held at the Turner Methodist church, with burial in Twin Oaks cemetery.

She was born in Sully county, S. D., and on May 26, 1915, was married to Clarence C. Currier. Death was due to a heart attack.

Surviving besides the widower are four children, Arnold, Marvin, Myrtle and Leslie; her father, J. G. Weischedel and seven brothers and two sisters, all of South Dakota; a sister in Spokane. John McGuire of Turner is a cousin.

School Elections to Be Held Monday at Schools

VICTOR POINT, June 18.—The annual school meeting will be held at the Victor Point school house Monday. A director for a three year term and clerk for a one year term are to be elected. F. M. Miller, jr., is chairman of the board and Mrs. Paul Jaquet the district clerk.

The school meeting in the Elkhorn Cliff district will also be held Monday night. A director for three years and a clerk for one will be elected. J. H. Brewer is the director whose term expires and Mrs. McMulkey is the present clerk.

Grangers' News

WOODBURN, June 18.—Woodburn grange will hold its monthly social meeting at the grange hall Saturday at 8 o'clock. A good program has been arranged which will include movies, showing the advances of agriculture for decades back. These pictures are being shown by a Portland concern. There will also be special music and community singing.

The women of the grange will sell pies following the program and coffee will be served free of charge.

WOODBURN, June 18.—Plans for a larger and better Woodburn community-grange fair to be held this fall, are being made according to announcement made by members of the fair board. Butteville grange will enter the competition with Fairfield, Monitor and Woodburn granges this year making four instead of three granges uniting their efforts with the Woodburn community to make this event a success.

Larger prizes are to be offered this year and it is announced that everyone whether grange members or not may enter. The 1937 fair board consists of John F. Lacey, L. C. Buchner and J. Melvin Ringo, these members being held over from the management of the 1936 fair.

FALLS CITY, June 18.—The local grange was honored at its last meeting by a visit from the Polk county visiting committee and enjoyed a splendid program of special numbers from the various groups. Rickreall had the largest delegation present with 23 attending.

Chemeketans Join Mary's Peak Trip

CORVALLIS, June 18.—Approximately 125 members of the Salem Chemeketans, Portland Mazamas, Portland Trail club and Eugene Obsidians will climb Mary's Peak, the highest peak in the Coast range, Sunday according to word received here today. Weather permitting, the large caravan will drive up the road from Blodgett and make camp on the mountain side Saturday night. Early Sunday morning the mountain climbers will cover the necessary eight miles to reach the peak.

The Salem and two Portland organizations accepted the invitation of the Eugene mountain climbers to make the interesting climb.

About 40 members of both the Salem and Eugene clubs are expected to make the trip.

Corvallis Man Is Victim Of Hit and Run Driver

CORVALLIS, June 18.—W. C. Cowgill, well known local insurance man, suffered severe bruises as a result of being struck by an unknown car at the corner of Fifth and Madison streets Friday night. Apparently the accident victim did not see the car which struck him. Police have attempted to find other witnesses but have been unsuccessful to date. Passerby picked the injured man up and took him to his home.

Union Daughters Give Stone Bench

ALBANY, June 18.—At a public ceremony held in Takenah park yesterday morning a white marble bench was presented to the city of Albany by the state department of the Daughters of Union Veterans. The bench is similar to one presented each year by the state organization to the city in which the convention is being held.

The presentation was made by the department president, Miss Ora Cox. Mayor C. Rice Ashton accepted the gift on behalf of the city of Albany.

Another gift from this organization was a beautiful bouquet of flowers, presented to Mrs. Mary E. Watts, past president of the Corvallis Tent of Daughters of Union Veterans, for her mother, Mrs. Kryder. Mrs. Kryder will celebrate the 100th anniversary of her birth on July 20.

The Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic presented a framed picture of Abraham Lincoln to the Maple school of Albany. Department President Beale L. Roe introduced the state patriotic inspector, Marie Hayes of Dallas, who in turn made the presentation. Billy Morgan of the Maple school accepted the gift in behalf of the school.

Among those present for this ceremony was Comrade P. H. Jeffers of Eugene. Comrade Jeffers, who is a member of the Eugene post, G.A.R., will be 92 years old July 14.

Furloughed Missionary Speaks on Siam Women To Presbyterian Guild

LEBANON, June 18.—Mrs. Robert Chrisman, on furlough from a missionary station in Siam, was guest speaker on the theme, "Women of Siam," at the meeting of the Presbyterian Fellowship guild at the home of Mrs. Charles Green Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Chrisman is a guest of her sister, Mrs. George Harden, west of Lebanon, writes from Boston university, where she is a student, that she will go this summer to New Hampshire as a counselor at the intermediate youth conference and will return home after her graduation in August.

At the meeting Thursday of the Crowfoot Community club at the home of Mrs. Dale Curtis plans were made for a picnic at Sodaville July 18. A musical program was put on by Mrs. Jay Curtis, Mrs. Dale Curtis and the younger members of the club.

Hartman Is Suffering Critical Heart Attack

SILVERTON, June 18.—Charles Hartman is reported as critically ill suffering from a heart attack. Mr. Hartman has been ill for a week. Earl Hartman, owner of the Hartman garage, is a son of Charles Hartman and Mrs. Theodore Lorenzen is a daughter.

SPEND YOUR VACATION
Where You Will ... and How You Will BUT

Take Your Statesman with You

Phone or Write Us Your Forwarding Address ... or Tell the Carrier ... and We'll Do the Rest!

