Fallin Expected to Take Mound Assignment in League Contest

Table showing STATE LEAGUE record with columns W, L, Pct. for Bend, Toledo, Silverton, Woodburn, Hills Creek, Eugene, Sweet Home, and Reedsport.

Bend's high-powered Elks, leading the Oregon State league with five straight wins, will invade the upper reaches of the Willamette valley Sunday when they meet the Woodburn Townies at the Legion park field at Woodburn.

It will be the first meeting this season between the Elks and the Townies, currently reposing in fourth place after defeating Silverton last Sunday.

Bend came the closest to a loss this season when it edged out Toledo 10 to 9 in an extra-inning affair at Bend last week.

Fallin Likely Starter Eec Fallin, youthful chucker from Salem high, will probably again be on the mound for the Townies.

Last Sunday Fallin, pitching his second game of the season, set the powerful Silverton nine down with five blows.

Fred Roberts, Bend's veteran state league hurler, will probably start for the Elks.

Silverton will be fighting for a tie for second place when it meets the Toledo Mudhens at Toledo Sunday.

Strengthened by the addition of a shortstop, Sheldon, who came from California the Silver Falls outfit will be improved defensively.

Don Burch will probably get the starting assignment for Silverton. A lumber of Silverton fans will accompany the team to the coast town.

Other state league games Sunday pit Reedsport against Eugene at Eugene and Hills Creek vs. Sweet Home at Sweet Home.

WOODBURN, June 18.—A doubleheader baseball game will be played in Woodburn Sunday afternoon at Legion park.

Juniors Also Play The Legion Juniors will play the Silverton team in the first game and the Woodburn town team will meet the team from Bend in the nightcap.

The first game is to be started at 1 p. m. and will be followed immediately by the second game.

Budge and Austin To Compete Today

LONDON, June 18.—(AP)—Sorrall-topped Don Budge and stylish Henry Wilfred "Bunny" Austin will offer British tennis fans a possible Davis cup preview tomorrow.

These two net ace, carrying the Davis cup hopes to the United States and Great Britain, qualified for the final round of the Queen's club tournament today but youthful Wayne Sabin of Hollywood provided most of the thrills.

Budge had a virtual walkover into the championship round, yielding only two games to the Japanese, Fumitero Nakano, in winning 6-0, 6-2, but yet he found himself in a real dog-fight before he could subdue Sabin, 6-4, 3-6, 6-3.

Sabin, a reserve on the American Davis cup team, played some of the best tennis of his career and for a time had the clever Austin on the run.

Rains Dim Hopes For Good Fishing

PORTLAND, June 18.—(AP)—Rampant rivers and roly waters resulting from rains during the past week dampened the outlook for the weekend of anglers over the state.

Empty creels have outnumbered the full ones, particularly in the area around Portland, the weekly bulletin of the state game commission says.

Lake fishing, however, has shown improvement, with prospects for even better fishing in view.

Al Picks Varsity For Rowing Race

V's Keep up With Juniors in Time Trial; Other Crews Work Out

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 18.—(AP)—Washington's varsity row, Poughkeepsie and Olympic champion, was chosen as the Huskies entry in the varsity race Tuesday after it rowed a 20-minute dead heat time trial with the junior varsity crew this afternoon.

Al Ubricksky, the Huskies coach, said after the race that there was no longer any question in his mind as to the relative strength of the two crews.

"Until today I rated both boats on a par," he said. "Had the junior varsity won decisively I would have sent them into the varsity race. But I have definitely decided on the varsity as Tuesday's entry."

The Cornell varsity came down the course under fine conditions but just over 21 minutes at a low stroke. The Ithacans have a big powerful boat which was swinging well.

California, scheduled to row a time trial, went out on the river at about 5 o'clock, but the boats were forced to halt after a little over a mile because of adverse weather conditions. The Bears boat was extremely ragged in the waist of the boat and Coach Ky Ebright admitted the shell was "still too green to kick up much dust."

Navy, eastern hope in all three races, confined itself to a brief row at dusk. The river was choppy and the eights had all they could do to paddle and keep an even keel.

Columbia came down the course but no time was announced. Syracuse and Wisconsin were out in the afternoon.

Helen Hicks Gets In Finals Today

CHICAGO, June 18.—(AP)—Helen Hicks, New York's "business woman" golfer, will make the big try tomorrow for the only title within her reach—the western women's open—against sturdy Bea Barrett of Minneapolis.

The husky, smiling New Yorker reached the semi-final of the open championship two years ago. Today she got into the final of the event, only tournament for which cash and carry feminine golfers are eligible, by a smart 5 and 4 triumph over Betty Botterill of Salt Lake City.

Miss Barrett, young, but a seasoned campaigner, won the other bracket final position by smothering courageous Dorothy Foster of Springfield, Ill., who yesterday eliminated the second "business woman" in the tournament, Texas Babe Didrikson, 7 and 6.

Southern California Leads in Early Rounds of N. C. A. A. With Stanford's Team Second; Cougars Tied at Third

EDWARDS, FIELD, Berkeley, Calif., June 18.—(AP)—Forecasting terrific battles in the finals, athletic stars of the country charged through preliminaries of the national collegiate track and field championships today in a series of outstanding times and distances.

World's records proved elusive objects as the army of thin-clads was materially reduced through eliminations but the main object today was to qualify for the big wind-up tomorrow.

One harsh note crept into an otherwise smooth program. It was the withdrawal of Eulace Peacock, negro star of Temple university, from the 220-yard dash due to a leg cramp suffered in the broad jump.

Peacock wins easily. Peacock, one of the favorites to capture individual point scoring laurels, easily won his 100-yard dash heat in 9.7 seconds and qualified for the broad jump well over 24 feet.

The world's greatest high hurdler, record-holder Forrest Towne of Georgia, won his specialty in a ridiculously easy fashion. He was clocked in 14.5 seconds for the 120-yard event but was eliminated in the 200-yard barrier trial.

The outstanding individual achievement of the day was contributed by Allan Toimich, wiry little star from Wayne university, Detroit.

He qualified in three events, winning the 220-yard low-hurdles in 23.4 seconds; fastest of the three heats and placed in the 120-yard hurdles and third in the 100-yard dash.

Holland of Oregon, placed ninth in discus, 144 ft. 3/8 in. Far westerners showed the way in three of the four field events in which trials were held. Stanford's Jim Reynolds took the shotput with 57.75 feet; Pete Zagar won the discus throw with 156 feet 3 inches, and Lowell Todd, of San Jose State college headed the javelin throwers with 214 feet, 9 3/8 inches.

Southern California, favorite to retain its team championship, led in qualifiers with 11. Stanford for the protection of the unusual, by large number of contestants entered, many of whom wore in their teens and unused to long swims in cold water. He predicted warmer weather next week.

Princeton Meet Draws Big Stars

PRINCETON, N. J., June 18.—(AP)—College track and field stars, who have played dominating roles in each of the previous Princeton invitation meets, promise to do so again tomorrow.

Archie San Romani, chunky Kansas flyer, and Don Lash, the Indian who can run all day, make up the college delegation in the mile. Favorite, of course, is Glenn Cunningham, winner of the first invitation in world record time of 4:06.7. The other starters will be Gene Venke, who won last June, and Luigi Becall of Italy.

Sharing the featured spot with the mile is the 440, with collegiate representation by the Texas twins, Elmer and Delmer Brown of north Texas teachers; Jim Herbert, New York U., and Robert Young of University of California at Los Angeles.

Going into the ninth the Phillies led 7 to 5. Harnett singled to right and Marty Walker, Jurgens beat out a hit to Lou Master to fill the bases. Froy struck out. Galan then tripled.

Morris Arnovich hit his sixth home run and Dolph Camilli his tenth. Philadelphia 7 13 5 Chicago 8 15 3 Johnson, Passeau, Melchaly, La Mastor and Atwood, Lee, Farmelle, Shoun and Hartnett.

Pirates Win 6-4

PITTSBURGH, June 18.—(AP)—The Pirates and Dodgers conspired against Van Lingle Mungo today and the Bucs, with the aid of four Brooklyn errors came through with a 6 to 4 victory.

Although he fanned eight, Mungo never had a chance once his Dodger teammates started booing the ball. The defeat ended Mungo's personal winning streak at four straight.

Cincy Reds Victors

CINCINNATI, June 18.—(AP)—For the sixth straight time Carl Hubbell was belted out of the box today as the Reds defeated him and the New York Giants 5 to 3.

A four-run rally in the third drove Hubbell to the showers with his fourth consecutive defeat and put the game on ice. Lefty Lee Grissom, surviving the Giants' three-run spree in the first inning, pitched hitless ball from the end of the second until the seventh.

New York 3 5 1 Cincinnati 5 7 1 Hubbell, Guntert, Cofman, and Mancuso Grissom and V. Davis.

Cleveland 020 001 100-4 9 9 Boston 000 300 02x-5 9 4 Allen, Andrews and Pritch; Ostermueller, Wilson and Berg.

Mars Shield one Of Derby Favored

CHICAGO, June 18.—(AP)—A pair of fleet fillies, Mars Shield and Dawn Play, ranked among the favorites tonight for tomorrow's 28th running of the American derby, $25,000 added blue ribbon event at Washington park.

With War Admiral and Pompoon out of the picture, the rich event for three year olds over the mile and a quarter route figured to be a wide open affair.

However, sticking with the racing luck that has followed Mrs. Ethel V. Mars' Milky Way farm, the wagering public made her country, including Mars Shield, the choice at 8 to 5. Dawn Play, the King ranch's big filly, shaded second choice ranking with the Valдина-farm's Eagle Pass, at 3 to 1.

Garden Loses Appeal for Injunction; German May Get Go-By

By ALAN GOULD

CHICAGO, June 18.—(AP)—Removal of the last threat of a legal blockade for the Jim Braddock-Joe Louis heavyweight title fight, set for Tuesday night at Comiskey park, coincided today with the disclosure of Co-Promoter Mike Jacobs' plans to conduct two more championship matches this year, in London and New York.

Having apparently wrestled virtually complete control of the heavyweight situation from Madison Square Garden, for the first time since Tex Rickard passed out of the picture, Jacobs plans to solidify his position on "all fronts," at home and abroad.

London Offer Noted He confirmed overtures for the Braddock-Louis winner to fight Tommy Farr, British empire heavyweight champion, in a world title match in London.

This forecast the further sidetrack of Max Schmeling, German challenger and conqueror of Louis. Schmeling is home, after his "phantom fight" in New York.

Jacobs has been advised a championship match in London, the first ever held in the British capital, will draw around $1,000,000.

Jacobs already has Louis under long-term contract.

Now it is understood Jacobs also has a tentative agreement with Braddock, binding the champion to continue fighting under the New York promoter's auspices.

Kenosha, Wis., June 18.—(AP)—Well satisfied that he is reaching top form exactly as ordered for his big chance against James J. Braddock Tuesday night in Chicago, Joe Louis restricted his workout today to a six mile run.

Louis Takes It Easy The bomber arose at 5 a. m., and jogged the distance with ease. He spent the rest of the day loafing, playing table tennis and talking with newspaper men.

Louis weighed in at 159 pounds.

Grand Haven, Mich., June 18.—(AP)—James J. Braddock reached that somewhat belated "edge" with a loud and resounding bang today.

Braddock Shows Peave Tapering off a gruelling five week training grind for his little bout with Joe Louis in Chicago Tuesday night, the usually complacent, good natured heavyweight champion cheered his handlers by suddenly getting a aboard one of the finest peaves you ever saw.

The sudden change of disposition all but caused a victory celebration in camp. Trainer Doc Robb said "if he can stay that way until Tuesday night Joe Louis is in for a tough evening."

Scot Wants Taboo On Japanese Arts

Higama to Meet McDougall at Armory on Tuesday Night's Mat Card

Professor Tetsuro Higama, said to be the best Japanese wrestler ever to appear in the United States, will make his debut on the armory wrestling programs when he meets Scotty McDougall, Scottish grappler, in the main event of Tuesday night's card.

Higama is reported to be an expert in jiu-jitsu, the Japanese art of equalization. He prefers to wrestle when both combatants wear the prescribed jiu-jitsu jacket but most of his opponent talk at that plan.

Higama has asked that McDon Douglas wear the jacket but the Scot has so far rejected the idea and has also asked that jiu-jitsu holds be barred on arms and legs.

Salior Moran will meet Danny Ross in a 45-minute event while Jimmy Madell tangles with Mickey McGuire in the 30-minute opener.
