Port Angeles Youth Exonerated, Father's Death

Exonerated of the murder of his father by a coroner's jury, George Kearns, 12, of Port Angeles, Wash., is pictured as he was reunited with his mother, whose life he tried to protect. George's father allegedly attempted to hit Mrs. Kearns with a floor lamp when the boy warned him not to strike. Paying no attention to him, George told the jury, his father raised the lamp to strike and George shot him.—I. L. N. photo.

Peter Betzer Is Called by Death

ALBANY, July 5.—Peter Betzer, 81, a resident of Oregon for the past 24 years, died in Salem July 3, the result of infirmities incident to old age. Funeral services will be held from the Crabtree church at 1:30 Wednesday afternoon. Rev. P. V. Fendall of Crawfordsville will have charge of the services. Burial will be in Belcrest Memorial park at Salem. The Fisher funeral directors of Albany have charge of the arrangements.

Peter Betzer was born in Linn county, Iowa, August 12, 1855. In 1912 he came to Oregon from Iowa and located on a farm in the Crabtree community. In 1928 he

Funeral Held for Marie Snodgrass

AMITY, July 5.—Funeral services were held in the Macy Memorial chapel Friday afternoon for Florence Marie Snodgrass, 26, who died at the open air sanitarium near Salem June 29. She was the daughter of John R. Snodgrass of Amity and made her home here for a number of years. She was a graduate of the Amity high school.

Surviving are her father, her stepfather, a sister, Miss Effie Countryman of Milwaukie, Ore.; five step-sisters, Miss May Hart-

Property Changes Noted, Monmouth

Miss Kramer Sells Home; McBees Buy Farm From P. M. Schweizers

MONMOUTH, July 5.—Miss Emma Kramer, long time resident of Monmouth, has sold her home to Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Halbert, newcomers from Kansas. She will give possession on or before August 1. It was a cash sale. The property consists of one-half acre of land and a 7-room house.

Miss Kramer formerly taught in the Salem schools for 20 years. She does not intend to leave Monmouth, but will accompany her brothers, J. M. Kramer of Los Angeles, and George Kramer, Ashland, who with their wives are expected soon from Yellowstone park, on a short trip south.

The Halberts are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Jensen this month.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Schweizer have sold their farm tract of 12 1/2 acres between Monmouth and Independence, on the highway, to Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McBees of Independence. The Schweizers have occupied the place for almost 4 years, and have made many improvements to it, including a basement. The McBees will take possession September 1. Mrs. McBee is a supervisor in the training schools. Schweizer, a Monmouth rural mail carrier, plans to build a new home in town.

Archibald Parker who for the past year has been living in Eugene with his son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Victor P. Morris, has returned to Monmouth, and is making his home with Mr. and Mrs. Chris Nelson.

Electric Fence Tried Out on Looney Place

HAZEL GREEN, July 5.—An electric fence installed by Allen and Glen Looney is affording much interest and some amusement for the district. The fence has proven satisfactory.

The cost of operating is not so great as it is thought. Two barbed wire are sufficient for cows, horses and hogs.

Williams Quits Bank

SILVERTON, July 5.—Wesley Williams who has been employed in the Coolidge and McClain bank for the past few years, has accepted a position at the Silver Falls Timber company office. Ronald Vorseth will be at the bank.

Interment was in the Evergreen cemetery near McMinnville.

Surviving are the following children: Rev. Frank Betzer of Lebanon, Mrs. Bertha Ellis of University Park, Iowa, Ray Betzer of Salem, Ralph Betzer of Hamilton Field, Calif., and Lyle Betzer of Lebanon. One sister, Mrs. Angeline Reece of Iowa, also survives, and eight grandchildren and three great grandchildren.
