

C.H. Wheeler Buys Controlling Interest in Mill City's Mill

80 Per Cent Of Stock Sold

Business Will Be Enlarged and Same Force Kept on Plant Payroll

MILL CITY, July 7.—Sale of the Mill City Manufacturing company to Colman H. Wheeler, who has milling interests in Washington county also, was authorized Tuesday night at a stockholders' meeting. The new owner will purchase 80 per cent of the stock.

Under terms of the deal, Wheeler will purchase all preferred stock, about $5000 worth, in full for cash, and the stock will be called. The remaining stock will come under a deal in which Wheeler will pay 80 per cent cash and give 9 shares at $5 a share in the new concern, thus representing a return of $125 on each $100 of stock now held.

J. F. Potter, president presided at the meeting and J. F. Smith acted as secretary. Eighty-seven votes were cast.

Incorporates Business

Wheeler will change the name of the business, started nearly 18 months ago to bring lumber back into the picture here after the Hammond interests withdrew from the Mill City Manufacturing Co., Inc.

The new owner plans to enlarge the mill and will continue the same force now working. The plant has been sawing 50,000 feet daily.

The mill was organized with a capital stock of $50,000, of which $5000 was preferred stock, and was largely as a cooperative undertaking by Mill City residents who worked out a large part of their subscription when the mill was being constructed and established. It is located on the large lot owned a half mile east from Mill City, formerly owned by the Hammond Lumber company.

J. F. Potter, president of the company, stated that the company is in excellent financial condition and has met all its obligations and earned interest on preferred stock.

Philomath Town Marshal Is Knocked Out but Law Gains Final Innings

CORVALLIS, July 7.—Town Marshal Boots is nursing a sore head in Philomath today as a result of being struck by his own night stick wielded with force by T. M. Peacock, Albany logger. The blow, which knocked the Philomath officer out and landed Peacock and his companion, B. D. Fish, also of Albany, in the Benton county jail here, came when the law officer ordered the two men to leave town after they had created a disturbance. A battle royal ensued. Fish got into his car to comply but Peacock, having other ideas, grabbed the officer's night stick and landed his .0. punch with the weapon. However, no sooner had Peacock declared himself the winner than he also took the canvas for the count. The crowd assembled as a result of the brawl promptly let Peacock "have one" with a large two-by-four of lumber. Fish upon seeing his companion being maltreated by the crowd attempted to aid but no avail for no sooner had he stepped from the car than swift flying fists coming from the shoulders of irate Philomath citizens promptly dispatched him with two black eyes and other bruises. Deputy Sheriff Carl Scholeman brought the pair back to the Benton county jail and charged them with drunkenness and assault and battery.
