Simmons Praises Waterworks Aid

A letter received at Salem WPA headquarters by J. E. Smith, district supervisor, from A. W. Simmons, chairman of the Silvertown water commission, tells of that city's appreciation of its waterworks project. The letter states: "We wish to express our appreciation of the good work being done for the water commission by WPA workers.

"We are replacing small wood water mains with larger cast iron mains to increase pressure and take care of increased demands. This has enabled us to give residential sections much needed fire protection.

"The WPA workers are showing a great deal of interest in their work, and pedestrians of the city who like to see what is being done think it is remarkable the way the work has progressed and are pleased with the high degree of efficiency."

"The WPA water supply comes from Silver creek in the mountains.

Jail Population Lowest for Year

Population of the Marion county jail dropped to its lowest point in at least a year yesterday when two prisoners were released, leaving 14 behind the bars, Deputy Sheriff Kenneth Randall reported. Less than three months ago the jail roster varied between 30 and 35.

Prisoners freed yesterday were Marcelino Gonzales, who completed a 90-day sentence for vagrancy, and Earl William McPherson, who finished two days' time for a traffic law violation.

Education Aid in Liberating China

Japanese Claims of Need for Expansion False, Dr. Tao Declares

Education is the tool being used for the liberation of China, according to Dr. H. C. Tao, speaker at the Salem Rotary club Wednesday. Dr. Tao, whose home is in Shanghai, told of the methods used for spread of education in his country. "Relay" teachers are used, in which students in classes immediately become teachers of others. "Little teachers" is the term applied to children who go home from school and teach parents and grandparents and are especially valuable in reaching the illiterate women of China.

No money is being spent for school buildings, but classes are held in donated rooms or in the shade of trees. A great factor in the educational movement is the simplifying of the language. The Roman alphabet is now being introduced with phonetic script. This is a great revolution from the ideographs which have been in use in China.

Dr. Tao in discussing the liberation movement refuted pretexts given by Japan for invasion of China. As to overcrowding in Japan there remains 16 per cent of tillable land in Japan uncultivated. And the militarists there are a few families instead of smaller. Moreover the Japanese people refuse to migrate into Manchuria or Korea, instead many Koreans have migrated to Japan. Japan is an aggressor, seeking to acquire power on the mainland of Asia.
