Woodburn Beats Dallas Juniors In Easy Victory

DALLAS, July 14.—Woodburn's American Legion junior nine eliminated the local juniors from any title hopes by chalking up an easy 7 to 2 win here yesterday afternoon. It was Dallas' third defeat of the season.

Moundsman Wilke a son for Woodburn hurled two-hit ball, allowing a pair of runs on some shaky fielding by his mates. The two clubs chalked up five errors apiece. Lou Nicol, midday catcher, collected both of Dallas' hits. The locals will meet Hillsboro in their final game of the regular district series.

Gold Mining Aids Many, Claim Here

O. D. Adams, state vocational director, yesterday declared unfair a recent statement of Harry L. Hopkins, federal relief administrator, aiming to "debunk" the belief that many persons had been kept off relief by gold mining during the depression.

Hopkins said such miners in Oregon earned $1.50 a day for an average of 45 days worked.

"That is not bad wages when you consider the character of the work and that many of the men had no previous mining experience," Adams countered.

Adams said some of the amateur miners earned as high as $5 a day which was sufficient for the support of themselves and families.

Grant or Parker Choice Difficult

LONDON, July 14.—(AP)—The problem of choosing between Bryan Grant of Atlanta or Frankie Parker of Milwaukee to play the second singles match for America against Germany in the interzone finals starting Saturday, is putting wrinkles in Capt. Walter Tate's usually placid brow.

After watching the American team practice nearly two hours under a blistering sun today, he admitted he hadn't been able to make up his mind. Don Budge will play No. 1.

Cousins Together For Initial Visit

ST. LOUIS, July 14.—Mr. and Mrs. Alex Manning and family were pleasantly surprised recently when Mr. and Mrs. Harry Marchant and children of Green Bay, Wis., visited them. Marchant is a cousin whom Mrs. Manning had never seen. This is the first time she had seen any Wisconsin relatives since coming here from there in 1891.

Marchant's parents died when he was quite young so all trace of him was lost by relatives here. He knew his aunt and uncle, the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dubois, spent their last years near Woodburn, so he inquired at that post-office for their children's location.

The Marchants are on a five-week vacation trip. He is employed at the Green Bay paper mill. After traveling en route through Nebraska, California and other states, they like Oregon the best of all for its moderate climate.
