

Caroline DePew Passes Friday

Lebanon Woman Was Wife of Publisher; 9 Years City Librarian

LEBANON, July 17.—Mrs. Caroline DePew, wife of the veteran publisher, W. C. DePew, and for nearly nine years city librarian, passed away at her home July 16 following a brief illness. Funeral arrangements and obituary notes await the arrival of relatives.

Mrs. J. C. Booth who has been seriously ill for nearly six months was returned to the St. Vincent's hospital Friday for special treatment.

A doctor was called Friday for Mrs. Achsa Chess who is ill of heart trouble with complications. Her niece, Mrs. Mark Gayther of Portland, has come to care for her.

Mrs. George Johnson has been under the care of a physician the past week.

Election notices are posted for the voting August 17 to decide for or against the new court house; the question is freely discussed with the pros and antis equally plain in opinion as to the prospect of victory or defeat.

E. B. Edes, manager of the Lebanon nut plant, says the crop of both walnuts and filberts this year promises large production. Mr. Edes has added new equipment to the Lebanon plant including a shelling plant and plans for a blanching plant.

Tasker Store to Open
Tucker Brothers who lost their store equipment by fire some time ago will re-open their confectionery in the new Bach business block under construction on the former site of their store and will serve light lunches as a feature of their new business.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Sturges of Washington, D. C., with their two children arrived Thursday for a vacation visit with Mrs. Sturges' parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Oldham.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Mackey have sold their home on East Grant street to Mr. and Mrs. Earle McKinney and will move to Salem within a few weeks.

Mrs. Uzzell Preston and children have returned from a month's visit in Nevada and Utah.

Billy and Joan Sikes have arrived from San Diego, Cal., to spend the summer with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Sikes.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Olds and family are taking a month's vacation in various places in the northwest.

Mr. and Mrs. Ford Return
Claire Ford, lumberman of Lacomb, returned from Portland Sunday, with his bride formerly Mrs. Irene Savelly to whom he was married July 6. They were dinner guests of Mr. Ford's daughter Edith Ford at Ford's mill Sunday and in the afternoon received the mill employees who came to tender good wishes.

Three transformers to be placed in the new substation for the 66,000 volt line under construction between Lebanon and Albany have arrived at the S. F. depot, but will not be moved to the substation located on the Jim Dart property north of the city limits until beginning of construction which is yet undecided. Each transformer weighs 12 tons and will be moved one at a time on flat wagons. A 12 foot fence will surround the new substation. Delay of the shipment of material is holding up the construction work.

Mrs. Mary Nehl, 54 Passes at Mt. Angel

MT. ANGEL, July 17.—Mrs. Mary Nehl, 54, died at her home here Friday afternoon after a lingering illness.

The deceased was born Sept. 15, 1883, at Oberatten, Germany, the daughter of Matt and Catharine Endres. She came to the United States at the age of 6 and settled at Wadena, Minn. In 1907 she was married to F. H. Nehl and in the fall of 1929 they came to make their home at Mt. Angel.

Besides her widower she leaves eight children, Leo, Portland; Peter and Ralph, Ukiah, Ore.; Ambrose, Pauline, Irene, Catherine, and Marjorie, all of Mt. Angel; one grandchild and two nephews, John Endres of Wadena, Minn., and Matt Endres of Mt. Angel.

There will be recitation of the rosary at the Unger Funeral parlors at 8 o'clock Saturday and Sunday evenings. The funeral will take place Monday morning from St. Mary's Catholic church.

Grand Island Mothers Hold Annual Outing
GRAND ISLAND, July 17.—The Mother's Circle club held its annual picnic Wednesday along the Willamette river on the E. A. Letley farm. Fifteen members, several children and three guests, Mrs. Cynthia Turpin, Mrs. George Antrim and Josephine Gardner, attended.

Swimming was enjoyed during the afternoon. The club presented to its president, Mrs. Morton Tompkins, a beautiful bed spread in appreciation for her work. The club also gave Mrs. Charles A. Ferguson a bathroom set for their new home.

Members of the club are now making plans for an evening picnic to be held later on in the summer.

Mrs. Cynthia Turpin returned Thursday to her home in Yoncalla terminating a two months visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Adams of Spokane were guests recently in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Will and family.

Bucket Brigade Saves Landmark

When lightning struck the steeple of historic Hopewell Presbyterian church at New Bedford, Pa., behind which are huddled the parents of William and Alexander McGuffey, authors of the famous McGuffey readers, quick action by a bucket brigade of volunteer firemen saved the landmark.

Search Continues For Third Bandit

PENDLETON, Ore., July 16.—(AP)—Pat Bushman, 38, Umatilla Indian, and Lloyd D. Russell, 22, Newport, waived preliminary hearing before United States Commissioner B. D. Isaminger tonight when arraigned on charges of robbing the Grant County bank at John Day July 12.

They were bound over to the next term of the federal district court in Portland, and ordered held under bond of $25,000 each.

The complaint charged the pair with taking $2500 from the John Day bank by force of violence, and assaulting Oscar Heverson, assistant cashier, with a dangerous weapon. Deposits of the bank were covered by federal deposit insurance.

Search continued meanwhile for a third alleged participant in the robbery, one Jack Davis, who had been seen in Portland and abandoned, dead or severely injured, after their car was wrecked near John Day after the hold-up.

Polk Jerseys Are Sent to Colorado

Mattison Sells Three Head of Excellent Stock at Fancy Figure

DALLAS, July 16.—More Polk county bred Jerseys recently went traveling. This time three cows went by truck from Independence to their new home at Pueblo, Colorado.

Bred by H. N. Mattison of Independence they are daughters of Lilac's Romulus silver midad sire, famous as one of the famous pair of twins sired by Fauvie Trouville and out of The Lion's Lilac, present world record cow in 305 days both as a senior yearling and for all ages. The other twin is the well-known Lilac's Remus which is soon to be made a gold medal sire.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom King, who have been guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Dahl for the past month, have gone to California for a visit. The Kings formerly lived in Texas, but are on the coast in search of a new home.
