

Jefferson Pastor Goes to Conclave

Rev. Dayton at Jennings Lodge for Assembly, Others Attending

JEFFERSON, July 20 — Rev. and Mrs. A. P. Layton left Monday for Jennings Lodge. They will attend the summer assembly of the Oregon-Washington conference which convenes July 25 to August 1. Mrs. J. T. Jones, delegate from the local woman's missionary society will attend the missionary convention Thursday and Friday.

There will be no preaching services at the local church during the pastor's absence; however a gospel team will have charge of the Sunday morning services at 11 o'clock. A very interesting and helpful program will be presented.

Twenty-one members and friends of the Evangelical Christian Endeavor motored to Thomas creek last Thursday for their monthly business meeting and marshmallow roast. After swimming and visiting, the president, George Kihns conducted the business meeting. The meeting closed with prayer and the C. E. benediction. In the group were Rev. and Mrs. A. P. Layton, George and John Kihns, Virgil, Edith, Mary and Clarence Wilson, Bernice and Betty Myers, Alleen and Betty Chilton, Mrs. Nettie Reeves, Naomi Austin, Mildred McNeal, Gertrude, Anna Mae, Lawrence, Francis and Orval Rehfeld, and Miss Helen Hinz.

E. Clark, vice president of the Jefferson Sunday school district announces that the convention will be held at Talbot Sunday, beginning with a basket dinner, as soon after noon as Sunday school groups can gather after services at their various churches. The Talbot school will furnish coffee. The afternoon program begins at 2:30 o'clock.

A rare treat is in store as Miss Helen Cammack of Rosedale, a returned missionary from Bolivia will be guest speaker. A business meeting and awarding of banners will be featured. The schools in Jefferson, Marion and Talbot are included in the Jefferson district.

Miss Doris Sandifer of Vancouver, Wash., and Donald Stephenson of St. Johns, are guests at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Stephenson.

Willard Hornsbech of Lebbish was a guest Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jones. He was guest soloist at the Christian Endeavor meeting at the Evangelical church Sunday evening.

Bedford Smith of Yamhill is a guest at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Smith.

Mrs. Sidney Beck and daughter Miss Joan Beck and friend Jim Kizer of Portland, were Sunday guests of the J. H. and Guy Roland families.

A reception and pantry shower was given Rev. and Mrs. Jasper Haven last Thursday at the Christian church. A short program of music and readings was presented, followed by a social hour. At the close of the evening refreshments were served. About 50 were present for the occasion.

Lebanon People at Family Reunions

Several Gatherings From Entire State Attract Many Residents

LEBANON, July 20—Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Blackburn and family of Lebanon with their two sons of Eugene; Mrs. Jennie Nichols with her son Elmer and his daughter Pollyanna of Lebanon; Mr. and Mrs. John Blackburn, Mr. and Mrs. George Ransom, Burl and Ralph Nichols and their families, and Mr. and Mrs. John Gorman of Rock Hill joined relatives from different places in the state in a family reunion at Bryant's park at Albany Sunday.

Following a dinner and informal talks by W. L. Jackson and other members of the clan, organization of the Blackburn-Jackson group was effected with Mrs. Jennie Nichols of Lebanon, president and Mrs. Idell Gorman of Rock Hill, secretary. Next year's meet will be held at the home of Willie Blackburn of Monroe.

Mr. and Mrs. John Turnidge and Mrs. Docia Hardin of Lacombe and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Turnidge of the Albany road attended the annual reunion of the Turnidge clan at Dallas Sunday, when 43, the smallest group in many years, assembled for a picnic dinner.

A pair of futra, fur bearing animals native to South America, where they are known as swamp hoppers, were taken to the gathering by W. J. Turnidge and created much interest. Mr. Turnidge who bought his first pair in Portland has been very successful in raising them and has sold several pairs. Mr. Turnidge is also raising mink for the fur market.

John Turnidge of Lacombe is president of the clan and Mrs. Rhoda Syron of Estacada, secretary. Plans are started for a large group gathering next year. Complimenting Miss June Calahan of Los Angeles, guest of her mother Mrs. J. M. Ogden, a family reunion was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Daley of Scio.

Present from Lebanon were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ogden; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Calahan and children, Florene, Lynn and Kyle; Wilda Calahan and son Billy, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Smith and family of the Albany road; Fred Van Loh, June Calahan, and Mart Burkholder, a guest from Burr Oak, Kans. They were joined by former neighbors Will, Frank and Glenn Schumaker and their families of Scio.
