National Amateur Qualifiers Chosen

14 Make Grade at Tacoma but Bud Ward Is Only One Smashing Par

TACOMA, Wash., July 23.—(AP)—Thirteen Washington golfers and one from British Columbia qualified today to enter the national amateur tournament to be held at Portland next month—but old man par, the gentleman hiding in the sand traps, was the hero of the day.

Only one player, young Marvin "Bud" Ward of Olympia, was able to give the old man a sound drubbing. Ward came home with two 70s, one under for each 18 of the 36-hole medal play qualifying round.

Ward, with top honors, and Carl Bowman of Yakima, whose ten foot putt in a playoff won him the 14th qualifying place, were the only two of the 40-odd entries who went home with any particular glory.

Albert "Scott" Campbell and Harry Givan, both of Seattle; Charles "Chuck" Hunter, Tacoma; Ken Bleck of Vancouver, B. C., and Leslie Leal of Bellingham, experts all, managed to lane in the favored 14, but their scores went on no record books.

Other qualifiers included Fred Lyman, Everett Weaver, Bill Burns, Bill Kinkella and Richard Haskell, all of Seattle, and Bob Van de Mark, Tacoma.

McNary Critical Of F.R. Attitude

WASHINGTON, July 23.—(AP)—After leading the fight in the senate which vetoed the president's veto of the 3 1/2 per cent interest bill for farm loans, Senator Charles L. McNary, Oregon, replied to administration defenders who asserted the bill would cost $40,000,000 and prevent balancing the budget, by stating:

"I think it rather unusual that the president, without ever making any substantial effort to balance the budget, should wait until this unfortunate time to take $40,000,000 from the pockets of farmers who cannot pay interest on their mortgages."

"I have said that I think it unfair to lend money for the acquisition of farms to tenants who heretofore have never shown a disposition to assume responsibility or desire to own a farm, and at the same time charge nearly twice that rate of interest to farmers who have made an effort to hold their farms, maintain their homes, educate their children and become the kind of citizens who have made this country great."

Gael School Sold To Bond Holders

OAKLAND, July 23.—(AP)—St. Mary's college, the little school made famous by Edward Patrick "Slip" Madigan and his football teams, was sold under the auctioneer's hammer today because it had not paid the interest on its $1,370,500 bond indebtedness since 1934.

Gerald Levin and Leland Grozinger, attorneys, made the only bid, $411,150, and Chairman F. F. Janney of the bondholders' committee said the lawyers acted for the security holders.

It appeared the net result would be to transfer the school property's ownership from the Catholic Order of Christian Brothers to the bondholders, and that the latter, receiving only about 30 cents on the dollar, would leave the college to the present management.

It was indicated Madigan would be retained as football coach.

Hubbell Fails To Stop Cubs

Also Gets Poor Support; Chicago Pulls to two Full Games Ahead

NEW YORK, July 23.—(AP)—Chicago's rampant Cubs punched Bill Terry's "meal ticket," Carl Hubbell, full of holes today as they routed the pursuing Giants, 11 to 5, to draw away to a full two-game lead in the hot national league pennant chase.

As a ladies' day throng of 25,559 looked on in astonishment, the Cubs pounded Hubbell from the mound with 15 hits, two of them homers by Ripper Collins and Frank Demaree and won as they pleased with the veteran Charlie Root starting in the relief role with a five-hit pitching job over eight innings.

Hubbell, in the midst of a new winning streak that had extended six games, was given a 3 to 1 lead after three innings but failed to support it, and was pounded 11 to 5 by a class 3 pitcher thereafter. He left after eight innings with the score 7 to 3 against him and his successor, Tom Baker, fared much worse.

Chicago 11 18 1 New York 5 7 3 C. Davis, Root and Hartnett; Hubbell, Baker and Madjeski.

Conibear Pulled Oars Says Stag

STOCKTON, Calif., July 23.—(AP)—Amos Alonzo Staggs, veteran coach of College of the Pacific, took exception today to the statement of Al Ulbricksen, rowing coach at University of Washington, in a national weekly that Hiram Conibear, known as the "father of Husky crew racing," never pulled an oar.

Staggs was an associate of Conibear at the University of Chicago more than 20 years ago. He remembered that the one-time lessons from Coach Al Sharp at Lake Chautauqua in 1903, 1904 and 1905.

This week Staggs said he received a letter from Coach Sharp confirming his contention that Conibear wrote that Conibear rowed bow for the Lake Chautauqua four-oared crews.

Staggs said his interest in the matter was "merely to establish historical accuracy."

BROOKLINE, Mass., July 23.—(AP)—The twisted ligaments in Whitmer Allison's aging right tennis arm appeared only a slight handicap Thursday as he cut loose with much of his old-time fire and gained a semi-final bracket in the Longwood Bowl tournament by blasting out of a Vernon Marcam of St. Petersburg, Fla., 6-1, 6-3.

White Sox Stop Winning Streak of Red Ruffing and Humble Yankees In Spite of Three Circuit Blows

CHICAGO, July 23.—(AP)—The White Sox were out-classed in the homer-hitting department but their safe blows were more timely today and they whipped the New York Yankees 9 to 6 in the opener of their current series.

Despite Joe DiMaggio's 26th home run, and four-base blows by Red Rolfe and Jake Powell, the Sox slugged Red Ruffing for six runs in the first three innings and coasted in to the win, although a three-run Yankee surge in the ninth caused several anxious moments.

The defeat ended Ruffing's personal six-game winning streak. The New Yorkers' American league lead was cut to six games over the Sox.

They Have Hopes. The few Salem tennis players, and you can count them on the fingers of both hands, are avid in their hopes that the novice tournament and city tourney being sponsored by the playgrounds will result in a demand for improved courts at the playgrounds.

The present playground courts, constructed in slipshod fashion by WPA, are not suitable for expert play as the surface is too slippery and there are wide cracks between the slabs of concrete used to make the playing surface.

Some of the slabs have slipped as much as an inch below center, causing a stubbed toe and more erratic bounces.

Tennis Democratic. Tennis is a democratic game which should have several devotees in a town of this size. Portland's playground courts have developed several outstanding players, including Cooke, Sablin and Elwood Cooke. Sablin, now in England with the Davis cup team, was a young sensation on the scene, a tennis circuits this season.

Sablin once had plenty of tennis fans but the clan seems to have died out. It is hoped that the remnants are able to rejuvenate the sport locally.

Woodburn Ready. Woodburn's energetic Legion post has things all ready for the final state Junior Legion baseball play this August 7 and 8. The post has gone to considerable expense in improving the Legion park at Woodburn and providing further accommodations for spectators. Marion county has always been a strong finisher in these play-offs and has been represented in each of the final series since 1929 except in one year, 1935. Woodburn, perennial Marion county representative, is still in this year's race and today and Sunday will play Estacada for the section championship. There are six other teams still in the running and all will play this weekend to decide which four enter the finals.

Develops Players. Legion junior baseball has been a great factor in developing young ball players. Nearly every member of the Willamette university club this past year played Legion ball and there are few college teams in the country without former Legion players. Many of the graduates of Legion ball have found their way into professional baseball and some have even attained major league rank. The program is one of the best ever undertaken by the Legion.

Cline, Fortmiller Beaten 2-up as Portlanders Move Into Finals

ASTORIA, July 23.—(AP)—Rosa City golfers cinched at least two of three titles at stake in the annual midsummer championship tournament here today, L. L. Sackett of Astoria being the only non-Portland entrant remaining after the semi-finals today.

Retaining a two up lead gained in the first nine holes, Bob Hofer of Inverness club eliminated Walter Cline, Jr., of Salem in the main-under-32 division.

He will meet Ben Hughes of Eastmoreland club, who defeated his Oregon University teammate, Earl Fortmiller of Albany, two up.

Among the men over 32, Sackett defeated Chester M. Girt, Rainier medalist, 3 and 2, and Scotty Wilson, Alderwood club, Portland, defeated Clint McGill, Riverside, 2 and 1.

Hornsby Settles On His Contract

ST. LOUIS, July 23.—(AP)—Rogers Hornsby, discharged manager of the St. Louis Browns, surrendered his contract, which did not expire until the end of the 1938 season, and settled his claim against the American league club tonight for a sum estimated at from $7500 to $10,000.

A peaceful ending to the "rajah's" differences with the team's owners was reached after an all-day conference in the offices of his attorney, Jacob M. Lashly.

In a statement, worded somewhat ambiguously, Hornsby disclosed he was dismissed because Donald L. Barnes, president of the Browns, and William O. DeWitt, vice president, objected to his betting on horse races.
