Festival, Flax Talked at Meet

Mt. Angel Business Club Hears Reports Upon Coming Fete

MT. ANGEL-Further arrangements for the second annual Flax Festival to be held at Mt. Angel August 13 and 14 were completed at meeting of the Business Men's club Monday noon at the hotel. Flax was the chief topic of discussion.

Joseph Bernt reported regarding an outlet for surplus flax through a Minnesota flax plant. Rev. Alcuin Heibel, who has been instrumental in working for the cause of the Oregon flax industry, is now in the east in the interests of the flax growers.

O. J. Oswald of the local post of the American Legion stated in his report that the Legion will take a caravan of cars together with a flax float to Albany August 12, during the American Legion convention there to advertise the Mt. Angel festival. Sprays of flax will be worn by all members of the Legion.

Four in Queen Race Four candidates at present have entered the queen's contest for the honor of ruling over the twoday festival. Miss Margaret Welton is being sponsored by the Benedictine Press, and Miss Louann Hassing by the American Legion. Miss Lois Coomler is being supported by the North Howell district, and Miss Dorothy Lee Wilkins by the Woodburn can-

Chairman of the dance committee, T. B. Endres, announced that the queen candidates' ball would be held Thursday, August 5. Candidates will be special guests and will be introduced to the crowd. Bill Fisher and his dance band will furnish the music. Under the direction of Anton

Bigler, chairman, the business men will decorate the streets Wednesday. Mark Hungate is in charge of arranging for a painter to make banners for parade floats.

A committee was appointed to contact the business men for the purpose of organizing the Flaxarians and to buy linen suits for the parade. Orders have already been made for 25 uniforms. The finance committee, with O. L. Withers as chairman, will solicit business houses for funds.
