

Scio Entertains Summer Visitors

SCIO—Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Manuel and Keith Whewell arrived a few days ago from Colorado Springs, Colo., and are living in the Shelton cottage formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Leo Mars.

Delmer LaBonty and family and his brother, Eddie of Aberdeen, visited this week at the Fred Daley home. Lynn Daley of Portland accompanied the party to Scio for a short stay with his mother.

Mrs. Maggie Young returned this week to her home at Santa Cruz, Calif., following a visit with the family of her daughter, Mrs. Mylo Bartu.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kukacka plan to leave about August 1 on an auto trip across the continent with New York and New Jersey as principal objective points. Miss Jessie Cook and Mrs. Nellie Harley of Caldwell, Idaho, and Mrs. Lizzie Plowhead and her son and wife of Portland visited Sunday at the H. T. Scovel farm home near Scio. Mrs. Plowhead has been employed in the county assessor's office in Portland for several years.

Mrs. Stanley Peterson, secretary of the Linn county chapter of the Red Cross, and Mrs. Peris White, chairman of the first aid committee of the chapter, were in Scio on official business Monday. They were endeavoring to arrange for a life-saving and swim program at Scio for the remainder of the summer.

A. C. Eastburn and family of Albany visited relatives in the Scio area Sunday. They are planning a vacation for next week during which they will visit Crater lake, Portland and other Oregon points.

Esther McKnight, recent graduate of Albany college, will teach at Marcola, Ore., this year.

Pleads for "Escort Bureau"

Attorney Albert Newton (left) pleads for his client, Edward Cordery, alias Colonel William Harry Moore (right), held in Philadelphia, Pa., charged with attempting to obtain money under false pretenses. Police charge Cordery planned to open an escort bureau where lonely visiting business men could apply for companionship and sought funds from women prospects seeking jobs with the bureau.

Bean Harvest on At West Stayton

Pickers Working on big Blue Lake Crop in Several Yards

WEST STAYTON—West Stayton is a busy place these days as growers of the Blue Lake beans and the Bush beans have started harvest of their crops and pickers are moving in.

A demonstration of dust for the bean beetle will be given Thursday morning by airplane on the Fred Comstock farm.

About 4 acres of the bean yard of Charles Wise fell Wednesday caused by a guy wire's breaking. He now has a crew of men at work rebuilding the yard.

Mr. and Mrs. James Farrell, James Hayes of Brownsville and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hayes of Halsey were visitors at the Harry Stewart home Sunday.

Mrs. Eliza Royse, who has been visiting at the home of her son, W. O. Royse, returned to her home in Portland Tuesday.

Good Second-Year Youngberry Crop Grown, St. Louis

ST. LOUIS—Picking of youngberries has been completed by growers in this community. Most growers report a good yield for this year, the second season these berries have been grown here.

The fruit was sold to the Woodburn cannery. This week

Scio Receipts up

SCIO—Official records indicate an increase of 3 per cent in money order business at the Scio postoffice for the year ended June 30, as compared with the previous year. Total receipts of the office from all sources were $4,929.42. Postmaster Phillips states, a heavy increase in all classes of mail being noted in the past two years.

will probably end loganberry picking also. These berries were better than was expected at the beginning of the season, although many of the growers had some frozen vines.
