Wedding Ceremonies Are Planned Today in Salem Gardens

Several weddings have been planned for today in Salem, swelling even more the summer's list of bridal couples to take up their residence here.

Savage-Beckner Plans

Gladiolii, larkspur and baby breath will form the background for the wedding this afternoon at 3 o'clock of Miss Evelyn Beckner, daught of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Beckner, and Ernest Savage, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Savage, at the First Christian church with Rev. Guy Drill officiating.

Robert Henderson of Eugene will sing "Oh Promise Me" and "Because" before the wedding and Donald Allison, cousin of the bride, will play the accompaniments and the wedding marches.

The bride, who will enter on the arm of her father, will wear a gown of white lace fashioned on pricess lines with long sleeves and court train. Her full tulle veil will be edged in lace matching the dress and she will carry a shower bouquet of pink rose buds and lilies-of-the-valley.

Mrs. Elsie Bosten, sister of the bride, will be the honor attendant and will wear a gown of rose lace and carry an arm bouquet of Briar Clift roses. The bridesmaids will wear gowns of organdy in the pastel shades and matching hats, and carry colonial nosegays. The attendants are Mrs. William Judson who will wear lavender, Miss Mina Mae Beckner, cousin of the bride, peach, Mrs. Paul Clark, blue, and Mrs. Adrian Eichelberger, green.

Willard Savage of Kelso, Wash., will act as best man for his brother. Ushers include William Judson, Glen Savage, Gilbert Savage and Jack Barnett.

A reception in the gardens of the country home of the bride's parents will follow the wedding where members of the bridal party will receive. Mrs. Howard Morris will cut the ices and Miss Eula Beckner will preside at the urns. Mrs. Lyle Beckner, sister-in-law of the bride, will cut the cake. Assisting in the serving will be Mrs. Glen Savage, Mrs. Willard Savage, Mrs. Gilbert Savage and Mrs. Orville Malm. Miss Helen Ralph will sing several numbers during the reception.

Mrs. Beckner will wear a gown of blue printed chiffon and white accessories and corsage of roses and sweet peas for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Savage will wear a blue model and corsage of roses and sweet peas.

For traveling Miss Beckner will wear a British tan print silk suit with matching accessories. The couple will be at home in Salem after a short wedding trip.

Both are popular members of the younger set and Miss Beckner is a graduate of Salem schools. Mr. Savage is a graduate of the University of Oregon and connected with Montgomery and Ward company.

DePew-Varley Vows

The lovely garden of Mrs. R. H. Varley will be the scene of an impressive service this afternoon at 4 o'clock when her daughter, Miss Loreta Varley, will become the bride of William DePew, son of Mrs. Charles L. DePew. The Reverend Gordon of Portland who married the bride's parents will perform the ceremony. Ronald Craven will sing "At Dawning" and "Song of Love" preceding the wedding. A string trio will play the accompaniments and the wedding marches.

The improvised altar at one end of the garden will be banked with bouquets of pink and white zinnias and orchid gladioli. Two baskets of summer flowers will be placed at the end of the garden where the bridal party enters and a ribbon aisle will lead to the altar.

The bride will wear a wedding gown of white embroidered organdy over an Alice blue taffeta slip made redingote style and short puffed sleeves. Ruching will outline the neck of the dress and extend to the hem. She will wear a matching halo hat with Cecil Brunner roses arranged in her hair. She will carry a cascade cluster of pink rubrum lilies.

Mrs. Norval Edwards (Roberta Varley) will be her sister's only attendant. Her dress is made similar to the bride's and is flowered marquisette with yellow blackground over a attend. Paris purple taffeta slip. She will wear a matching hat and carry a basket of talisman roses. Ronald Hewitt of Portland will be best man for Mr. DePew.

A reception in the gardens will follow the wedding with members of the wedding party receiving informally. The serving table will be centered with the bride's cake and surrounded by bouquets of pink roses and white sweet peas. Miss Daisy Varley will preside at the serving table. Assisting in the serving will be Mrs. Ronald Craven, Miss Erma Meeks, Miss Anna Peters, Mrs. Harmon Garrett, Mrs. Ronald Hewitt of Portland, Miss Thora Miller and Miss Dorothy Schupp of Klamath Falls, Miss Myrtle Smith of Eugene and Mrs. Alfred Mingling with the guests about the gardens will be Mrs. George Orey, Mrs. L. M. Wilkerson, Mrs. George Van Natta of St. Helens, Miss Helen Breithaupt, and Miss Varley's three supper table. aunts, Mrs. C. W. O'Fling of Fullerton, Calif., Mrs. R. L. Landon of Portland and Mrs. William Moss.

Mrs. Varley, mother of the bride, will wear a gown of black and white crepe de chine and corsage of roses and gar-

The couple will leave for a short wedding trip and for list of those opened for the tour. traveling the bride has chosen a print sheer with yellow background, white sharskin coat and leghorn hat. She will Miss Varley and Mr. DePew are well known in the capi-tal and attended Salem schools. She is a graduate of Willamette university and a member of Alpha Phi Alpha sorority. garden tour. Later she attended the University of Oregon. Mr. DePew also attended Willamette university and is now connected with Breithaupt's florist.

Hoffman-Hinz Wedding

Miss Genevieve Hinz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Hinz, will become the bride of Alfred E. Hoffman, son of the week from Portland after vis-Mr. and Mrs. Emil Hoffman, at a lovely wedding in the gar- iting with Mrs. Thornton Ladd. dens of the Emil Hoffmans tonight at 7:30 o'clock. The Reverend H. W. Gross will read the service in the presence of relatives and friends of the couple. Mrs. William Fisher will sing "Where Thou Does Go" preceding the ceremony and will be accompanied by Mr. Fischer who will play the wedding

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will wear a wedding gown of white silk lace over a satin slip made redingote style with short puffed sleeves. Summer blossoms will be arranged in her hair and she will carry a cascade bouquet of white gladioli, pale pink Butterfly roses and sweet

Miss Maxine Hill, the honor attendant, will wear a pink organdy frock made with wull skirt and puffed sleeves. She will carry an arm bouquet of white snapdragons and pastel at one end of the garden. Low bouquets of hydrangeas will form the path to the altar.

at the urns and Mrs. Percy Blundell will cut the ices. Friends of Miss Hinz who will serve are Miss Judith Jensen, Miss Dorothy Ruecker, Miss Dorothy Hinz and Miss Eileen Blun- navy blue. Her accessories will be of navy and her corsage dell. The table will be centered with the wedding cake and will be of coral rose buds. low bowls of rosebuds and sweet peas will be arranged at

Mrs. Hinz has chosen a grown of blue organza and corsage of roses and sweet peas for her daughter's wedding, mony for a southern wedding trip which will take them to are being congratulated on the

Scheduled Sunday

Another garden tour has been planned by the Salem Garden club and this time the affair is scheduled for Sunday, August 8, so it is possible for the many men interested in gardening to

The gardens of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Scott at 1625 Court street will be included on the list. Mrs. Scott will arrange a mantle piece in the living room.

Mr. and Mrs. Joel E. Roman will open their attractive garat 1155 North Summer street, and Mrs. Roman will arrange an al fresco supper table. The W. J. Busick gardens at 755 North Summer are listed among those to be visited during the tour.

Major-General and Mrs. George A. White will open their gardens at 255 West Lefelle street to the visitors, Mrs. White will arrange an outdoor

At the John Brophy gardens on the Salem-Dallas road, Mrs. Brophy will arrange a Mexican luncheon table, in keeping with her attractive gardens. The George Putnam gardens The tuberous begonias are especially showy at this season and will be much appreciated by those visiting the gardens.

Hours are from 4 until o'clock and outdoor fireplaces will be the special feature of the

as her house guests this week, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Erb of Butte, Montana, and Mrs. Richard Mc-Conkey of Seattle. Mrs. Schmidt returned to her home the first of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Faulkner have had as their recent house Beach, California, Mrs. Mabel day honoring Miss Barbara Prael, grounds . . . A number of the Miss Nan Irvine of Portland.

spend a week at their beach rooms . . . Fitting right into

IN THE SWIM-are members of the high school set. Miss Garden Tour Mrs. Walter Spaulding. Center is Miss Nancy Stricklin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Stricklin; and right is Miss Helen Ostrin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Ostrin. In the water are, left, Miss Josephine Morse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Morse and Mary Ross Holts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Holts. (Photo by Kennell-Ellis.)

Seen and Heard

THE SIX YEAR OLDS take

the limelight this week . . . with and bright blue figures celebrating their sixth birthdays didn't come and go but stayed . On Wednesday Sharon Claire a while and chatted. which her mother was hostess host of friends here . had a grand time playing games on's name on it and six candles . . were given the children Sharon as she begins school in they will purchase a car . . about her first school days.

Young Billy Paulson, son of will be again included on the ferent . . . the party was in the . . .

are Mr. and Mrs. Sydney H. Kro- they went across to Norway and mer and tiny daughter, Sydney Sweden and then down to Ger-. They are the guests many, France and Italy, of Mrs. Kromer's brother-in-law Mrs. O. E. Schmidt entertained and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Rich- lively place these last three in Portland. They will make their cessories for traveling. The couple will make their home in Salem where Mr. Hoffman is in business. Both are graduates of Salem schools and are well known here.

> A PRETTY PICTURE . . . gars over the weekend . .

Rench-Grace Ceremonu

The parsonage of the First Methodist Episcopal church Baskets of gladiolii and delphinium will grace the altar will be the scene of a simple ceremony this morning at 8 the girls dressed in white. o'clock when Miss Beryl Grace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Theodore Grace, becomes the bride of Marvin A. Rench, A reception will follow in the gardens immediately after son of Mrs. Kate Hunt. Dr. James Milligan will read the at Parrish junior high school has the ceremony. Miss Tillie Albert has been asked to preside service in the presence of the immediate families and a few returned home after attending intimate friends.

The bride will wear a tailleur of gray silk trimmed in

Miss Maxine Miller of Molalla will be the only attendant. She will wear a suit of old rose and white accessories. The couple will leave immediately following the cere-

Hoffman will wear peach silk and matching corsage.

Los Angeles and San Francisco. After August 15 they will birth of a little daughter, Mary leaving today to spend the companied return today from Pullman, on the fifth birthday of her siswill attend the vocational group land has left for a trip to Glatending the summer session of Mrs. Hoffman will wear peach silk and matching corsage. Los Angeles and San Francisco. After August 15 they will birth of a little daughter, Mary Hinz has chosen a turquoise ensemble of silk with white ac- and he is connected with the Eyerley Aircraf corporation.

wearing an unusually good-looking print with light background several of the very young set Everyone enjoyed the tea as they Hamiltons, was the guest of hon- gust will be Frances Jensen, a or at the birthday party for former Salem girl, who has a The affair was held in the has been visiting here this month C. S. Hamilton gardens and the dividing her time between Salem twenty-one youngsters bidden and Monmouth, the family home She graduated from Salem all afternoon . . . They all sat high school and later attended down to eat at a big table and the University of Oregon where the cake centered it with Shar- she was a Kappa Alpha Theta This June Frances gradu-Clever favors of soldiers ated from a girls' school in Los horses containing crayons Angeles where she specialized in . . art . . . She and her mother will couple became acquainted when birthday means a lot to take a plane to New York where September and is all excited then homeward bound after a leisurely tour of the states. TOURING EUROPE are Win-Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Paulson, was ifred Gardner of Salem and friends, all boys, honored him Montana, both Willamette graduon the occasion . . . Quite dif- ates and members of Delta Phi They are with Gus Andermorning with the guests asked son's party . . . In letters reto come at ten o'clock, and af- ceived here they told of seeing ter several hours of games and King George and Queen Elizafun a grand luncheon was served beth while in Edinburgh, Scotland . . . In London they stopped CRUISING on Puget Sound at the Savoy . . . From there

CAMP SANTALY has been a ard E. Wright, of Seattle, weeks for a number of Salem aboard their cruiser . . . They girls . . . ages ranging from ten are planning to be gone a fort- to cighteen including grade night and will go to Victoria and school and high school students . . It really is a grand place to be in the summer, right on deep blue hydrangeas arranged the Santiam, with good swimin a low blue bowl on the tea ming and the camp building is table at the very informal affair set amongst a beautiful grove in early June, now resides in for which Mrs. Donald McCar- of trees . . . One of the projects Portland. gar, one of Salem's charming the girls do during their stay is guests, Mrs. Grace Cosper of Long newcomers, was hostess on Mon- to beautify the trees, beds and Miller, Mrs. Edna O'Neill and popular Portland girl, who was girls have their beds outside and the house guest of the McCar- sleep under the stars . . . last week, thunder, lightning and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Crawford will Mcre hydrangeas were arranged rain brought them all in and leave Tuesday for Pacific City to in the dining room and guest caused quite a bit of excitement . . . There is always a hike or the picture was the hostess, two a day . . . twice they have been serenaded . Mrs. Bruce Spaulding singing "The Indian Love Call" across the river and last week by Flavia Downs . . . At the end of each week as the camp draws to a close for the group of girls an impressive ceremonial is held at night . . . all candlelight with the summer school at Oregon State college in Corvallis. While there she acted in the capacity of business manager and promotor for the summer session's presentation of the play "Mr.

Wedding Is Today

many friends in Salem, word has been received here of the marriage of Miss Charlotte Zieber to Dr. John Simpkin of Marshfield, which is to take place today.

The wedding ceremony will be read this morning in Los Angeles, and will be attended by Mrs. Earl Shafer (the former Eugenia Zieber), sister of the bride, Miss Rovena Eyre and Miss Dorothy Simpkin of Marshfield. The bride, who is well known here, attended Salem schools, St. Helens hall and Miss Burham's school in Northampton, Mass. Dr. Simpkin is a prominent physocian of Marshfield, and former city health officer. He is a graduate of Rush Medical school and a native of Salt Lake City. The Miss Zieber visited her aunt in Marshfield.

Following an extended trip, the couple will live in Marshfield.

Home in Portland

they are leaving this week-end to take up their residence in Portland. The Clarkes have a wide Grace were Mrs. Glen Morris, circle of friends here, having made Mrs. Harold Coheen, Mrs. Clartheir home in the capital for the

Mr. Clarke's headquarters with the national park service are now new home at 1431 N. E. 12th avenue. Their son, Robert, will remain in Salem and enter his junior year at Willamette university in the fall. He will reside at Sigma Tau fraternity. Their daughter, Mrs. Evans Hamilton (Doris Clarke), who was married

Miss Mattson Honored At Garden Party

Miss Alice Mattson was honor- afternoon was enjoyed. ed with a surprise dinner served in the garden of the M. C. Matt- Long, Mrs. Ray White, Mrs. Elmer bowl of mixed flowers formed an Bondell and Mrs. Johns. attractive center piece for the table. Miss Mattson was the recipient of many lovely gifts. Those society of the Calvary Baptist Alice Mattson, Peter Matson, Mr. of the Women's Missionary soand Mrs. Andrew Laudahl, Mr. clety of the First Baptist church Mrs. Melvin Elkins, Mr. and Mrs. afternoon. The affair will be son and Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Matt- der Knoll, on the Liberty road.

Several Brides Tell Plans for Coming August Weddings

A wedding to be solemnized in Portland today is that of Miss Lucille V. Rice of Portland and Chester C. Grove of Salem. They will be married this afternoon at a church ceremony. They will make their home in Salem after a wedding trip in the south. He is assistant manager at Woolworth's.

SUMMER COLONY

By MAXINE BUREN great part of Salem is transsummer to the shores of the Pacific, and no place is popular Eva Cochran will play the wedour with a greater umber of neighbors than Neskowin.

Many Salem families have cotthere, or rent beach places for the week or month, and others drop over for a few days stay. Husbands are lucky to take their vacations and weekends there, while wives and youngsters enjoy an uninterrupted holiday.

Salem grocery stores come to expect fresh peaches, lettuce and staples to go into coast-bound automobiles in large quantities when husbands start out for the weekend at the coast. Among those families who va-

Roy Keenes who took the Prince Wayne Barham and Mrs. Dale Byrd cottage for July and are Taylor will preside at the servreturning today.

since their trip east.

win beach.

Joan, has spent several weeks at ford.

at one of the Sandy cottages. Mrs. William H. Lytle, cupying their cottage. Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner Salem.

are among those who resided at their own beach places the past Miss Howe Married at Mrs. Arch Jerman and family Church Ceremony are among the vacationers.

Dr. and Mrs. F. K. Power and daughter, Marilyn, arrived yes-

Salem but now of The Dalles, Lieber-Simpkin left yesterday after a month at their beach place. Mrs. L. V. Benson and children, and Mrs. Karl Heinlein officiating.

and son were in the Thompson kowin and Dr. Buren vacationed the wedding marches. there last week.

ing at Neskowin for the past two by Mrs. Charles Robertson and Mrs. Breyman Boise and their

According to reports from the colonists, residents of Neskowin have been enjoying a pilchard run near the rocks just south of Proposal rock. An unusually interesting sight.

Miss Grace Honor Guest At Shower

riage to Marvin Rench will be Bryant wore a gray suit with an event of this morning was white accessories and corsage of the honor guest at a kitchen gardenias for travelling. Mr. and shower for which Mrs. Ed Mor- Mrs. Bryant will make their home ris was hostess at her home on in Pendleton where he is connect-Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Paulson, was lived Gardner of Salem and six on Friday and a group of his Faith Sherburne of Browning, Clarkes Will Make Future North 19th street Thursday ed with the Consolidated connight. Bridge was in play dur- struction company. ing the evening and at a late hour supper was served. Guests Salem friends of Mr. and Mrs. were seated at small tables cen- Annual Class Reunion W. D. Clarke regret to learn that tered with pansies arranged in blue glass bowls,

Those bidden to honor Miss ence Baxter, Mrs. George Newmann, Miss Katherine Snapp. Miss Ruth Grace, Miss Maxine Miller of Molalla, Miss Christine Sweigert, and Miss Elizabeth

Mrs. Long Honored at Luncheon Thursday

Mrs. Walter Bondell and Mrs. E. V. Johns were hostesses for a luncheon Thursday afternoon at Shirley secretary and Ed Bawill move shortly to Eugene to make her home. The luncheon table was centered with a bouquet Brown Barker talked about his of summer flowers. An informal son home on North 5th street Fri- McKee, Mrs. Claude Talmage, Bay company activities in Oreday evening. The garden was dec- Mrs. Ed Simmons, Mrs. John Godorated with colored lights, and a frey, Miss Delores Godfrey, Mrs. to publish these records.

The Florence Vale Missionary

Miss Jean Hawley, supervising Arriving in the capital Friday nurse of the obstretical departto visit with her parents, Mr. and ment of the Pasadena hospital nied by her two daughters, Sarah Mrs. Rex Dayls, was Mrs. R. S. will be a guest at the home of Ann and Alice Louise, will leave Cosgrove (Hester Davis) of Indio, Mrs. G. A. Wood on South High Wednesday for a stay at Seal wife here next week and together mother, Mrs. Carrie Hawley of eral weeks, Mr. Ohling will join they will leave for an Alaskan Minot, South Dakota, is also a them on the week-end. guest of Mrs. Wood. Mrs. Haw-ley and Mrs. Wood are sisters.

cier National park.

SAWYER-BARHAM PLANS Miss Loree Barham who will become the bride of J. Stewart Sawyer on Tuesday, August 12 has announced the plans for her wedding. The ceremony will be read by Rev. Arno Q. Weniger in the Barham garden on North Winter street at eight o'clock. planted, sometime during the Mrs. Harry H. Harms will sing preceding the service and Miss ding marches. Miss Barham who will be given in marriage by her father has asked Mrs. Wilmer Wells, her future sister-in-law, to be her maid of honor. Bridesmaids will be Miss Jean McElhinney and Miss Lorna Barham. Miss Vivian Barham, sister of the bride, will be flower girl, Miss Rosemary Gardner and Miss Jean Barham will light the candles, Ray Gilliam of Portland, fraternity brother of Mr. Sawyer, will be best man. Ushers will be Wilmer Wells and Russell Mefford.

A reception in the gardens cationed at Neskowin are the will follow the wedding. Mrs. ing table. Mrs. Herman Gile Mrs. Frank Spears and Sybil and Mrs. K. H. Pickens will cut have spent most of the time at the ices. Mrs. J. F. Billeter will the Taylor Hawkin's cottage cut the bride's cake. Young friends of the bride-elect who The Howard Maples are among have been asked to serve are the colonists to enjoy the Nesko- Miss Dorothy Holmes, Miss Florence Foster, Miss Florence Tull. Mrs. Carleton Smith arrived Miss Doris Schunke, Miss Dor-Tuesday to spend some time in othy Barham, Mrs. Kenneth Graber, Mrs. Brewer Mills of Cot-Mrs. Alden Adolph has been tage Grove, Mrs. Clark Jackvisiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. son of Woodburn, Mrs. Wilma Rex Adolph who with daughter Wright and Mrs. Russell Mef-

Following a wedding trip the Mrs. Kenneth Wilson and couple will make their home in daughter, Patty, and Mrs. Forest Grove where Mr. Sawyer Charles Wilson spent last week is connected with the state highway commission, Miss Barham, Mrs. Louis Lachmund has had daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl as her house guest for the past V. Barham, is well known in the week at the Thompson cottage, capital and attended Salem schools. Mr. Sawyer is the son The Carl E. Nelsons are oc- of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Sawyer of New York City, formerly of

On Friday, July 23, Miss Alberta Howe, daughter of Mr. and Dr. and Mrs. Phil Newmyer and daughter, Phyllis, formerly of Salam but now of The Dalles.

Mrs. Bert M. Howe, became the bride of Marion Bryant, son of Mr. and Ms. Everett Bryant, The ceremony was solemnized at 8 o'clock at Leslie Memorial church with Reverend Dean Poindexter

Before the wedding Carl Mason sang "At Dawning" and Miss Vir-Mrs. Wolcott E. Buren and ginia Mason sang "I Love You children, Nancy and Dick, have Truly,." Miss Hoshie Watanabe been spending two weeks at Nes- was the accompanist and played

The altar was banked with The Elton Thompsons and palms, ferns and gladiouii guard-Richard Meyers have been stay- ed by white tapers in candelabra. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length Mrs. Bert Ford and sons, who dress of white brocaded satin are occupying their cottage, fashioned with tunic. She wore a have been visited the past weeks cluster of gardenias in her hair and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas and red rose buds. Miss Barbara Howe was maid of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Miss Evelyn DeMarais, Miss Margaret Pfohl and Miss Annabelle Cooter. They all wore gowns in the pastel shades. Clarence Bryant acted as best man for Mr. Bryant. Ushers were Clyde French, Richard French and Ira Gardner. The couple left for a wedding Miss Beryl Grace whose mar- trip to southern points and Mrs.

At Jonesmere

The first graduating class of the Salem high school, held its sixth annual reunion of the group that graduated from the old East Salem (now Wasington) school in the year 1888-89. This was the first high school class to graduate from Salem public schools. The affair was to be held at the Jonesmere farm, but owing to rain the picnic lunch was carried to the Mission Bottom school house where the business meeting was held. Milton Meyers was elected president, O. J. the Bondell home honoring Mrs. ker treasurer. A committee was A. C. Long, who with Mr. Long appointed for the seventh anniversary to be held next year.

During the afternoon Burt gaining access to the British records in London relative to get-Covers were placed for Mrs, ting early history of the northwest territory and the Hudsons gon. An attempt is being made Class members present Ed. L. Baker, Burt Brown Barker, Mrs. Carrie Walker, Mrs. present were the honor guest, Miss church will be host to members Nellie Ferguson, Mrs. Cora L. Geo. Dunsford, John Evans, Mrs. Holman, Mrs. Florence Irwin, and Mrs. Nels Laudahl, Mr. and at a dessert luncheon on Friday sie C. Jones, Mrs. Gertie Kruse, Jens Peterson, Miss Babe Carruth, held at the home of Mrs. H. S. Mark Savage, O. J. Shirley. Fred Marvin Mattson, LaVerne Peter- Gile at her country home Boul- Williams, Perry Wright, Milton Meyers and honorary member-Mrs. Dan J. Fry.

Carrie Hawley of eral weeks, Mr. Ohling will join

Washington State college.