

Marriage of Miss Shaw Is Set

Miss Jean Shaw, medical technologist at the Salem General hospital for the past two years has announced the date of her wedding to Dr. Robert K. Schroeder of Missoula, Montana as August 21. The ceremony will be performed at the First Presbyterian church of Spokane. The bride will be attended by Miss Helen Schroeder of Spokane, and the groom by Paul Stevens of Portland.

Miss Shaw is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elton Shaw of Portland. She is a graduate of Albany college and a member of Alpha Gamma Delta.

Dr. Schroeder, the son of Mrs. A. W. Schroeder of Missoula is a graduate of the University of Montana and North Pacific dental college in Portland. He is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon and Delta Sigma Delta.

The couple will reside in Whitefish, Montana where Dr. Schroeder is a practicing dentist.

The nursing staff of the Salem General hospital entertained for Miss Shaw at a crystal shower in the apartment of the superintendent, Miss Lillian McDonald, on Wednesday night. The evening was spent informally.

Musical Society Has Banquet, Program

Gathering at the Congregational church on Thursday night, members of the Dr. Z. M. Parvin musical society enjoyed a banquet and program. Dr. Parvin taught music at Willamette university during the '30s and '40s and later conducted classes in Albany and Portland.

Dr. H. C. Epley was elected president of the organization for the coming year. Mrs. Mabel Adair Lockwood vice-president and Prof. James T. Matthews secretary-treasurer.

The program included a piano number by Mrs. Etta Stratton Breckenridge, a vocal duet by Major Vivian Brown, grandson of Dr. Parvin, vocal solos by Mrs. Marguerite Alderson Burkhardt and Mrs. Lulu Sargent Edwards, an original piano composition by Homer A. Kruse, and talks by Professor James T. Matthews and Dr. H. C. Epley.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Homer A. Kruse of Sherwood, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Burkhardt of Portland, Mrs. Nellie C. Rites of Vancouver, Wash., Mrs. Ronald Glover, Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Newport of Lebanon, Mrs. Hallie Parrish Hinges, Mrs. Rose Simon Gwinn, Mrs. Charles M. Elkins of Prineville, Mr. and Mrs. Mayo McKinney of Turner, Mrs. Mabel Lockwood, Prof. James Matthews, Mrs. Emma Matthews Wheeldon, Miss Allie Chandler, Mrs. Walter Denton, Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Breckenridge and Dr. H. C. Epley.

Miss Ila Mills Hostess For Dessert Luncheon

Miss Ila Mills entertained with a smartly arranged dessert luncheon yesterday afternoon at the Court street residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mills. Covers were placed for 14 guests of the hostess.

The afternoon was spent informally. The tables were centered with hollyhock blossoms in low crystal bowls, gladioli, marigolds and summer flowers were arranged about the guest rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Cal Patton, Miss Germaine Goodrich, Miss Melva Belle Savage and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clagett will leave today for a two-week stay at Pacific City.

Style-Smiles --- by Gretchen Thielsen Tea Is Charming Affair

"Her tea parties are the old fashioned kind where they actually serve it!"

Then "tea" parties aren't extinct, after all, lest you think that in all the tea-time talk of paintings, etchings and wood-cuts, good old pen and ink sketches are extinct, we assure you that art is flourishing—in reprints on silk as shown on the left. A long neckband rolls over the full gathered blouse and ties in a bow. On the right, white daisies etched on brown ground with starched linen trimmings—collar, cuffs, revers and belt. With this she should wear an enormous starched linen hat with a brown grosgrain ribbon whipped 'round it.—Copyright 1937, Esquire Features, Inc.

Thielsen Tea Is Charming Affair

A charmingly arranged affair of yesterday afternoon was the informal tea for visiting Mrs. William Thielsen and her daughter, Miss Gretchen, who were hostesses at the Thielsen home. The tea was arranged in honor of Mrs. Phil Gearhart (the former Edna Simonton) of Seattle, sister of Mrs. Thielsen who is visiting here for several weeks, dividing her time between Salem and Shaw as the guest of another sister, Mrs. Ivan Putnam. Intimate friends of Mrs. Gearhart were bidden to call between three and five o'clock.

The honor guest wore a striking flower print chiffon over yellow silk, and Mrs. Thielsen wore Burgundy lace.

Mrs. Ivan Putnam, wearing cerise silk trimmed in cream lace, greeted guests at the door. Formal tea for visiting table during the afternoon were Mrs. O. K. DeWitt and Miss Nellie Schwab. Mrs. DeWitt's gown was of brown lace, Miss Schwab was striking in all white, with a lace jacket.

Assisting in serving were Miss Gretchen Thielsen, Miss Frances Laws and Miss Barbara Gearhart. Miss Elizabeth Clement sang several numbers during the afternoon.

The table was beautiful with a drawnwork cloth centered by a bowl of pastel sinian and asters. Blue candles guarded the centerpiece. The table was set entirely in heirloom silver, crystal and blue. Early American glass cups completed the arrangement.

Royal Neighbors of America and Juveniles will have an all day picnic at Hazel Green on Wednesday. They will meet at Fraternal temple at 10 a. m.

Play Presented at Church Tonight

"The Fool," a modern problem play by Channing Pollock is ready for presentation at the First Methodist church Sunday at the evening service which begins at 7:30 o'clock. Miss Beulah Graham is director.

The leading man, Daniel Gilchrist is played by Alfred Tebault with fine interpretation. Miss Martha Jane Hottel is playing the woman's lead as Clare Jewett, a young woman of charm and position whose love is not big enough to resist hardship. Mr. Herbert Rick plays Mr. Goodkind, a mature role. His son Jerry, wealthy and conceited, is done by Art Lamka. Pearl Hennig, an unfortunate girl is done by Florence Palmer. Little Mary Margaret, a crippled child, who thinks she can get better "if she believes hard enough" is played by Blanche Roddy. The big role, Unanski, is a hard role and is done with sympathy by Don Green.

Other characters are Mrs. Gillman, Genevieve Milligan; Mrs. Tice, Constance Smart; Mrs. Thornbury, Jean Cone; "Dilly", Elsie Holman; Brother Barnaby, Dick Van Pelt; Rev. Wadham, George Self; Charlie Benfield, Alan Siewert; Max Stedman, Bill Byars; Joe Hennig, Harry Mosher; Grubby, Lawrence Morley; and a number of incidental characters.

Mrs. James T. Rubey is technical director; Harry Mosher, electrician; Mrs. Lila Y. Mosher, costumes, and Florence Palmer, properties.

A large crowd attended the picnic supper of the Men's and Women's Bible classes of the First Methodist church, held on Friday at the Municipal picnic grounds. Dr. Quigley conducted an old fashioned spelling bee which was won by the women.
