Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS There's captivation in every line of this radiant frock, one whose simple, shoulder-to-hem panels can be seamed up in less time than it takes to tell. Such light o' heart little frock can't help but be the center of attraction when it wins the spotlight for its wearer by reason of slashed sleeves, a prettily curving neckline, bright, eye-catching buttons, and flared skirt. You've all manner of printed cottons and figured or plain crepes from which to choose fabric for this. So easy to make, it's the very frock for "beginners" or those with limited sewing experience.

Pattern 4398 is available in misses' and women's sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38 and 40. Size 16 requires yards 36-inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Purebred Cattle Breeders Invited

Lot, Court and Church

All purebred cattle breeders in Marion county are invited to attend an all-day meeting of the Oregon State Holstein Cattle club on Saturday, August 7, at the Multnomah hotel in Portland, starting at 10 a. m., according to County Agent Harry L. Riches.

A breeding school will be conducted at the meeting by Dr. E. E. Heizer, geneticist from Ohio State university, who has been loaned to the Holstein association of America. All purebred cattle breeders may attend this meeting, whether they have Holsteins or any other
