Chauffeuse Lucky Lad Has Notable Ancestry on Island of Jersey

BETHANY-A new aristocrat

in Jerseydom has come to the Bethany rural district and will be on the farms of M. G. Gunderson and Samuel Torvend, both of whom have owned a number of champion Jerseys and are well known among western breeders. The new individual has the interesting name of Chauffeuse Lucky Lad. This pretty little animal was born March 21, 1937, and has an unusually fine backing besides having creditable points of his own. The wellknown Edmond Butler, Jersey importer of Chester, New York, is responsible for making an American out of Lucky Lad and it was from Mr. Butler that Mr. Gunderson obtained him. Ancestry Notable

The little calf was sired by Lucy's Oxford Dreamer who is a grandson of the great Lady Oxfordia and the equally great Pacificer, who was reported sold at $5000. Lady Oxfordia is the sensational island cow whose unparalleled achievement includes four times all-island champion cow; three times reserve allisland champion; four certificates of merit on the island; highest young producing cow, besides a host of lesser winnings.

Legion Convention to the convention are George Averett, Glen Porter, Irl McSherry, Will Start Today

'Mose" Palmateer so Far Alone in Running for State Commander

Unless a dark horse candidate should gather considerable strength to his colors it appears that Salem will be the home of the next department commander of the American Legion after the veterans hold elections at their state convention opening at Albany today.

O. E. "Mose" Palmateer, who is the present state vice commander. is so far without opposition for the post of commander to succeed Guy Cordon of Roseburg.

Although several other legionnaires have been mentioned as possible candidates for the commandership none of them has been campaigning actively for the post, it is understood.

Irl McSherry, also a member of Capitol Post No. 9, is among the several who have been mentioned as possible dark horse candidates for the commandership. Others include John Beckwith and Ai Greenwald of Portland and Zed Merrill of Albany. Sid George Opposed

The hottest political battle at the convention is expected to rage about the post of national committeeman. Three candidates are actively seeking the national job with Sid George of Eugene, the incumbent, a candidate to succeed himself. Two other past department commanders, George Koehn of Portland and Joe Chamberlain of Corvallis, are seeking to wrest the post away from George. Delegations to the convention will arrive in Albany today for registration and the official opening of the convention tonight. The 40 et 8 societe, fun organization of the Legion will open the festivities with a street parade slated for 7 o'clock, after which the grand promenade

"I Don't See How I Ever Stood Such Misery!"

"My stomach bloated with gas after every meal," said Mrs. Hughes. "Then all of a sudden the terrific gas pressure would force a sour, acidous water brash up into my throat and mouth from my stomach. I had splitting headaches and dizzy spells and my breath was foul and I was so nervous with suffering that I couldn't sleep right and felt tired and worn-out continually. I also had sluggish - acting kidneys which caused pains across my back and I had to rise from my bed about 3 times every night due to this kidney sluggishness, which broke up what little rest got; and my bowels were so stubborn that they refused to act unless I took a strong laxative of some kind every night.

"Finally I read about Van-Tage and started taking it, and took some of Mosby's Tablets along with it, and I am overjoyed at the results I got. This medicine relieved my gas and bloating and that awful belching up of sour water brash and now I can gat my meals and enjoy them. It also flushed my sluggish kidneys and relieved the pains in my back; and it gave my bowels a great cleansing. I eat, sleep and feel better THAN IN YEARS, since I took Van-Tage, and I am so grateful to this medicine that I gladly give you my statement and publicly endorse it to others who suffer like I did."
