Linfoot's Return From Eastern Trip

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Linfoot and son Ross of Portland who formerly made their home in Salem will be interested to learn that they have just completed a 9000 mile jaunt which took them into ten states. They were gone about ten weeks. They were in Salem yesterday on their way to Portland visiting their son, William J. Linfoot.

On the trip they visited 195 relatives including members of both families. They took the northern route and stopped at Glacier park on their way east and visited at Niagara Falls and while in Canada saw the Dionne quintuplets. Enroute home they stopped at Yellowstone park for three days. They found the east very prosperous and good farming conditions.

Mrs. W. L. LaDue and her daughter, Miss Charlotte LaDue, are leaving Saturday morning for White Salmon, Wn., where Miss LaDue will be the honor guest at a party for which Mrs. George C. Gladden will be hostess Saturday afternoon. Miss LaDue's marriage to Ross Gladden will be an event of Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Mayfield of Portland visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dryan Wednesday and celebrated the birthday anniversary of Mr. Mayfield.

Mrs. W. W. Ogilvie of Portland has been the house guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Crawford this week. She returned to her home last night.

Professor and Mrs. Henry C. Tillman of San Jose, California, are visiting in the capital. They are former Salem residents and he is head of the science department of the San Jose high school.

Miss Margaret Ann Bligh, Miss Katherine Taylor, Miss Peggy Thompson and Miss Mildred Bender are enjoying this week at Ocean Lake.

Bridge Luncheon
This Afternoon
At Myers Home

Entertaining this summer has been mostly informal with any number of small parties such as luncheons, four-somes for bridge, and picnics. Today a number of Salem matrons have bidden party to one of the larger parties of the summer season. Hostesses will be Mrs. Burton Myers, Mrs. James Teed and Mrs. Harris Lietz.

The affair will be a luncheon and will be held in the lovely Myers gardens on North 24th street. Luncheon will be seated at 14 individual tables which will be centered with a unique arrangement. An afternoon of cards will follow the luncheon.
