Posse at Dallas Catches Fugitive

Albert Teal, Charged With Larceny, Taken Near Falls City

DALLAS—An armed posse from Dallas, under the direction of Deputy Sheriff Williams, captured Albert Teal, wanted in Falls City for larceny not in a dwelling. He was apprehended a mile south of Falls City Tuesday.

Albert Teal, age 29, an ex-convict, was released in April after serving two years in the state penitentiary. He was arraigned Thursday in justice court as an accomplice of three other men arrested over the weekend, who appeared in justice court and were bound over to the grand jury on Tuesday. They were Henry Kordalewski, 18, Gilbert Morgan, 19, and Carl Teal, 18.

All four men are under a warrant for arrest for larceny not in a dwelling in Wallowa county.

Attend Livestock Tour

W. C. Leth, Polk county agent, was accompanied by three members of the Monmouth Junior Sheep club, on the annual Willamette valley livestock and crops tour, which was held this year in Clackamas and Multnomah counties, August 2, 3 and 4. The boys were Albert Riney, Bob Lorence and Ferry Carnichael.

Approximately 125 4-H club boys and leaders attended this year. There were representatives from nearly all of the western Oregon counties present. The entire group were provided with camping facilities at Dodge park, about 25 miles out of Portland. This park, between the Sandy and Bull Run rivers, is owned by the city of Portland and operated in connection with the city park bureau. The boys enjoyed the outdoor experience, which was complete, with camp fire hour each of the three evenings.

Livestock judging and a study of methods used by outstanding farmers were the main interests of the tour.

Farmer's Union News

CENTRAL HOWELL—A meeting of the Farm Union was held Monday. It was decided to hold the local's picnic in conjunction with the state union's picnic at Champoeg Sunday. The Central Howell local will picnic together at noon. Members are to bring a picnic lunch and table service. Coffee will be furnished.

State President G. W. Potts just returned from a trip to Salt Lake City, will be present. Each county will furnish a number for the program.

DAYTON—About 100 people attended the annual lawn party and meeting of the Dayton-Webfoot local Farmers Union held Thursday evening at the home of the president, James Richardson. Herman Lafky, attorney of Salem, and G. W. Potts of Jefferson, state president, each spoke briefly on the union.

Snell, Holman Accept Invitations To Judge Fiesta Beauty Contests

INDEPENDENCE — (Special) — Earl Snell, secretary of state, and Rufus Holman, state treasurer, are slated to become members of the judiciary by reason of their acceptance of an invitation to act as chief judges of the moonlight-bathing-beauty contest, a novel feature of the annual Hop Fiesta at Independence August 26 to 29, inclusive.

The two state officials will appoint twelve other members of the court of pulchritude from a long list of applicants for the much sought-after positions.

The moonlight-bathing-beauty contest will take place during the fiesta "Midnight Matinee," the fun show of the celebration, which is to be held Saturday evening, August 28.

Winners of several major Oregon beauty contests are entered in the event. These include: Ruth Rhodes, Portland, who placed first in the 1937 Redhead Roundup contest; Gwen Quigley, Taft, and Dorothy Gary, runners-up in the titian show; Juanita Phillips, Portland, and Lillian Parker, Tillamook, who took honors at the recent Tillamook Beaches Jubilee; and Myrna Miller, Seattle venus who has won several first prizes in Washington beauty competitions.

Three large trophies will reward the winners of Hopland's beauty classic.

Many attractions are included in this year's Hop Fiesta program chief among which are midget auto races, motorcycle races, hop pickers' contests, boxing matches, grand floral and industrial parade, a junior Hop Fiesta, fairyland pageant, dances, ball games and a carnivl.

Twenty-five of the leading Pacific coast midget car pilots will compete for the large cash purses being offered in the midget auto races.

Points won in this meet will count toward the national championship which insures spectators of witnessing a series of thrilling races.

Hop Harvest Will Start August 20 at Wheatland

WHEATLAND—Hop picking in the P. H. Fowler 20-acre yard with 55 local people registered will start about August 20.

The 10 acres of Jesse Gilkey will be harvested by the same crew and dried at the new 28 by 28 foot tryer completed Monday to replace the one burned last year on the Fowler farm.

Final Rites Said For Daniel Davis

ALBANY—Daniel S. Davis, 88, died at the family home, 1040 So. Cottage street, Tuesday morning. Mr. Davis had been an invalid following a stroke of paralysis some eight years ago. Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the Baptist church. Rev. Elmer Junker was in charge of the services. Burial was in Riverside cemetery, with the Fisher funeral home in charge of arrangements.

Daniel S. Davis was born December 16, 1848, in Cinnati, Ohio. Before coming to Oregon in 1890, Mr. Davis had lived in Iowa as well as Ohio. He followed farming until 1917 when he moved into Albany where he has since made his home. During his active years, Mr. Davis was considered to be quite a horseman.

On February 8, 1872, Mr. Davis married Frances E. Smith at Polk City, Iowa. On February 8, this year, Mr. and Mrs. Davis celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary. Mr. Davis was the last member of his family and before his death was the eldest of five generations. He was a member of the Baptist church.

Surviving is the widow, two sons and three daughters. The sons are Harry E. Davis of Halsey and Claude Davis of Albany. The daughters are Mrs. John Wilbanks and Mrs. Lyle Chance both of Halsey, and Mrs. Theodore Hoflich of Albany. He is also survived by 15 children, nine great grandchildren and three great great grandchildren.

Martin Walters Funeral Is Today

WOODBURN—Martin Walters, 78, passed away Tuesday at the Woodburn hospital. He was born in Switzreland and came to Ohio when a young man, later going to Nebraska where he was first married in 1877. Thirteen children were born to this union, two surviving. His first wife died in 1908 and in 1910 he married Augusta Busch of Hanover, Germany. The one son born to them died in infancy.

He came to Woodburn in 1925 from Kansas. He is survived by the widow; two sons, Herman of Idaho and Fred of Kansas; step son, Bill A. Busch of Kansas; three brothers, Gootlieb, Richard and Solomon, al of Ohio. Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p. m., from the Presbyterian church. The body will be sent to St. Francis, Kansas, for burial.

Seek Pastor's Return

HUBBARD — Miss Clarice Myers, pastor of the M. E. church at Donald who resigned recently because of friction with two traveling evangelists, is being sought to return to the pastorship by Dr. Louis Magin, district superintendent of the church.

Grangers' News

LIBERTY—Red Hills grange met Tuesday with 32 members present. A vacation program was featured including songs, description of the 17 national parks and a pantomime entitled "The Vacation Trip" presented by members.

NORTH HOWELL — North Howell grange members and families who attended the Marion county picnic at Riverdale last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bump, Mr. and Mrs. V. Van Brocklin, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wiesner, Mrs. Martha Vinton, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stevens, Sam Brown, Daniel Van Brocklin and Mary Lou Wiesner.

From Portland were Miss Ethel Jo Martin and Loris Stevens who were week-end guests at the W. H. Stevens home.

Regular grange meeting will be held Friday night at the North Howell hall.

Dyer Weeps When Crime Described

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 11—(AP)—Thirty-two-year-old Albert Dyer wept today as Deputy Dist. Atty. Eugene Williams described to a jury of six men and six women the mutilation of the bodies of three young Inglewood girls he is accused of choking to death in a sex orgy last June 26.

The little former WPA crossing guard sniffled and wiped away his tears with his bare hands.

Three Inglewood boy scouts later took the stand and told how they found the bodies two days after disappearance of the victims, Melba and Madeline Everett, 9 and 7, and Jeanette Stephens, 8.

After three and one-half days examination, the jury was completed today.

Hundreds of persons, mostly women, again jammed the courtrom and adjacent corridors today.

THE REXALL PLAN

The Rexall Plan of drug store merchandising is a simple one founded by Louis K. Liggett in 1903. It is a simple Plan whereby the leading independently-owned drug store in every city, town or community join together in producing and selling their own drug store products of better value for less money. These products are known by the tradename — Rexall, Purestest, Firstaid, Klenzo, Kantleek, Cara Nome, Adrienne, and others.

The Shadow Lifted

Rexall backs up every statement with proven fact made possible by Rexall's own staff of research scientists, who work in Rexall's own technological laboratory.
This Rexall Department of Research and Technology lifts the shadow of doubt with knowledge and proof. Every Rexall product without exception will measure up to the claims made for it on the label. Your money back, without delay, red tape or quibble, if you are not satisfied.
