Leon Perry Will Marry Nebraska Girl in Fall

The engagement of Miss Jose-phine Marsden, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Marsden of Lincoln, Nebraska, to Leon Perry, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Perry, was revealed at a party at the home of the Marsdens in Lincoln on Saturday.

The wedding will be an event of October 9 in the Holy Trinity Episcopal church in Lincoln and the ceremony will be performed by the bride's father.

Miss Marsden is the daughter of the former Maude Laughead. who lived in Salem before her marriage. She is a niece of George and Harry Elgin of Salem and of Clifford Elgin of Portland. She met Mr. Perry while visiting in Salem with her cousins, Mrs. Connell Dyer and Mrs. Clayton Foreman this summer.

Miss Marsden attended the University of Nebraska and is a member of Delta Gamma.

Mr. Perry, who is in business with his father in the J. C. Perry Drug store, attended Oregon State College and graduated from the North Pacific college of Pharmacy. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.
